THIRD DEGREE, MASONIC LODGE

Special communication of Ashland Lodge No. 23, Friday evening, February 25. Work in the third degree, several candidates. Visiting brethren cordially welcome. Meet at 7:30 sharp.

W. E. BUCHANAN, W. M.
W. H. DAY, Sec'y.

John Carson was called to the Imperial Valley this week by business. Mrs. Carson is remaining at her home in Ashland during her husband's absence.

We renovate clothes and make suits to order. K. Nelson, Hotel Austin Bldg. 145tf

The past two bright days have started the farmers of the districts surrounding Ashland to plowing, and in all directions the fields are the scene of great activity. The ground is apparently well soaked with water, and until Wednesday has been too wet to plow. The sunshine of Wednesday and Thursday, however, has done much toward drying off the surface, and farm work will be pushed rapidly from now on. Many tractors are being used this spring on the local farms.

Krugel Bros. Vulcanizing Works for guaranteed retreading. 91 Oak street. 136tf

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilgus, who are going to Kansas shortly to make their home, leave today for Albany to visit with relatives previous to continuing their journey to their new abiding place. Members of Mrs. Wilgus' family in Albany expect to leave for Kansas with them.

H. R. Adams for plumbing, heating and gas fitting. Repairing a specialty. 248 Fifth St Phone 166-J.

Mrs. G. R. Horr and daughter Jennie have come to Ashland with the expectation of locating here. Mrs. Horr is very hardy afflicted asthma, and she and her family had been in the city before, where the former had received great relief. Her husband will probably close out his interests in Red Bluff and they will make their permanent home where their health is benefited.

Let us market your dressed hogs and veal. Farm Bureau Co-operative Exchange Medford, Oregon. 149-6

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Zuerich of Grants Pass were up yesterday spending the day in the Lithia City.

Cliff Payne makes hat racks.

After dismissal last evening the high school serpentine through East Main street to the Plaza, where they bunched together and split the atmosphere with their yells in anticipation of the great battle tonight between the Ashland and Medford basketball teams on the home floor.

11. We extend a cordial invitation to anyone suffering with catarrh to call and see Hyomei. We will refund the money if Hyomei does not relieve. McNair Bros.

At the forum luncheon of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday a resolution passed favorably to organize a community chest from which to pay out the quota of all drives in future.

L. J. Orres was down to Grants Pass yesterday transacting business at the Josephine county seat.

Everybody still has a good chance to win a prize. The best music, good floor and all the dancing you want for $1.10. 149-2

Mrs. W. Roberts has returned to her home in Dunsuir after visiting with relatives in this city for several days.

H. T. Elmore, proprietor of the Boot Shop, was in Jacksonville yesterday afternoon transacting business.

Another of those popular dancing parties at Eagle Point Saturday, February 26. 149-2

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Redifer, who recently moved to their farm eight miles from Myrtle Creek, write to Ashland relatives that the season is much further advanced in that valley, and that they are picking wild flowers which are already blossoming in profusion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morgan have returned home from Edgewood where they had been making an extended visit this winter.

The name of Mayor C. B. Lamkin among the speakers was inadvertently omitted from the account of the D. A. R. banquet held Tuesday evening. Mr. Lamkin gave a fine patriotic address on Americanism, and the principles he advanced as the correct treatment of the foreigner in our midst made a great impression on his hearers.

Yes (in answer to numerous inquiries) we will continue to buy used phonograph records, although we have just brought with us a large assortment of the city's latest hits. Will also buy second hand books. The BAZAAR, on the Plaza.

Mrs. Wineland and Mrs. Shepard are showing spring hats in Room 1, Citizens Bank building. 149tf

A large number of local basketball fans will journey to Ashland Friday night to see the first of the annual games between the two schools. There is considerable speculation regarding the strength of the local team on the small floor which is a handicap to any team not used to it. A crowd as large as that which witnessed the last game with Roseburg is expected to be on hand when the two teams clash in this city Saturday night.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

U better C Yeo and insure that automobile. 109tf

Four new and additional indictments were returned by the grand jury yesterday against R. D. Hines, former vice-president of the defunct Bank of Jacksonville, charging "willfully and knowingly making a false statement to a bank examiner." Hines was granted a change of venue to Josephine county last week on the grounds that prejudice existed against him in this county. At the fall session of the grand jury Hines was indicted on seven counts.
