To Observe Neal Dow's Birthday

The birthday of Neal Dow, March 20, has been set by the National W. C. T. U. as a day for celebrating the victory of the organization so far as victory has been won, and for presenting to the church memberships of the nation the program which has been worked out for the years preceding 1924, the 50th year since the founding of the organization.

A little rejoicing for the enactment of the eighteenth amendment will mark the day, but there will be also much insistence upon the need for its enforcement strictly in accordance with the letter of its meaning. The bright prospect of the future will be shown in the revelation of the splendid work being done, and of the greater work that is being planned by the several departments of the organization, in child welfare, in social morality, in Christian citizenship, in Americanization, to the end that the campaign for membership that is being made with the aim of doubling the enrollment and reaching the goal of a million women enlisted under the banner of the White Ribbon, may be successfully carried on during the ten weeks' intensive campaign that is to be urged.

JAPAN HAS HARD TIMES

(By Mail to United Press) TOKIO.—Judicial officers of Japan are appalled at the great number of bankruptcies which took place as a result of the great financial slump which struck the Empire in March and which lasted throughout the year. MARS TOO AFFECTIONATE

LONDON.—(By Mail to United Press)—It's all wrong to assign only war-like attributes to Mars, say British astronomers. That planet is far too affectionate for little Phobos, the three-mile in diameter Martian moon. They calculate mathematically that Phobos cannot continue to resist the tremendous tidal strain which Mars is exerting upon it. Some savants predict that it will fall to pieces and the fragments either plunge down upon the surface of Mars from their 6000 mile height, or continue to revolve around the planet in separate orbits.

IDLE MILLIONS MENACE TO GREAT BRITAIN

In addition to that, and in the direction of mitigating hardship, an amendment to the Unemployment Insurance Act has added $5,000,000 to the 4,000,000 persons insured. A further extension of the out-of-work donation to ex-service men has been granted, involving an additional expenditure of $25,000,000, making in all, since the armistice, $200,000,000 to ex-service men, and $110,000,000, out-of-work donation for civilians during the first year after the armistice.

One of the chief bones of contention between the government and the trades unions is the persistent refusal of the builders to permit dilution of skilled labor by employment of unskilled ex-service men. There is not an unemployed bricklayer in the country and work could immediately be found for 100,000 men, resulting in employment being provided for painters, plumbers, laborers, etc. In the face of these facts the 50,000 ex-service men are forced to remain idle.

The tendency here for some time has been to regard every trade as a close preserve and in a restricted market to force up wages by means of strikes. Last year alone 27,000,000 days of work were lost owing to strikes.

The Labor Party so far has failed to suggest a cure for unemployment. Leader Clynes of the party declares it is up to the government to devise means for maintenance or work, and that some steps should be taken to restore international trade.

Whatever the causes the present crisis is causing widespread misery in the country, and the out-of-work donations and other government doles are generally looked upon as being merely palliatives.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 18.—J. W. Dayan, who enjoys a wide acquaintance in the San Francisco bay region, and in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, has retired after 43 years of active service with the Southern Pacific's purchasing department.

DUST CREATES SOIL FOR TUBERCULOSIS

All industrial plants are more or less dusty. But how dusty is the air in any particular plant? The degree of its dustiness is important, for certain forms of air dustiness create in the workers a predisposition to tuberculosis and other diseases. Dr. O. M. Spencer of the U. S. Public Health service, shows in a recent report that neither exhaust pipes nor wet process in grinding and polishing prove that the dustiness in an industrial plant is satisfactorily controlled. Many exhaust pipes do not exhaust, and wet processes may create far more dust than dry ones. Only actual dust counts made at the working level show the actual dust-
