Jesse Winburn Plays Host to Children of Three County Cities

JESSE WINBURN EULOGIZED IN MOTHER GOOSE VERSE. RANKS HIGH AS ENTERTAINER OF LITTLE FOLKS.

BERT MOSES MAKES BIG HIT AS BUCOLIC ENTERTAINER UNDER COVER OF ALIAS "HEZ HECK"

By MRS. MARGARET E. DILL.

In Mother Gooseology we are told about an old woman who lived in a shoe and she had so many children she didn't know whatever she would do. Mr. Jesse Winburn was host to three hundred children yesterday and he knew just exactly what to do. Anybody knows a shoe couldn't hold nearly 300, so we'd like to add this verse in Mother Goose's book

Mr. Jesse Winburn don't live in a shoe.

But when it comes to children's parties he knows what to do.

Old Mount Ashland bled with joy at the rhythmic tread of the happy hearted children who were guests at this June party at Sap-and-Salt-in-the-Woods. Before one o'clock guests began streaming in from down the valley, parties from Medford, Jacksonville and Ashland met at Hotel Austin where all were loaded into auto buses and automobiles and hit the trail up Mount Ashland six miles.

The jolly crowd was greeted by the host in a veritable fairyland which had been made for the day's pleasure. The party grounds were circled by little trees of fir and cedar strung with gay streamers and weighted with favors flaunting all sorts of colors and above them jolly swinging Japanese lanterns added a touch of festivity.

Things began going the moment the crowd reached the cabin. In fact, on glimpsing a broken baseball bat we were told that a crowd of boys (the biggest one's initials are L. V.) couldn't wait until one o'clock but went at eleven and had such a rousing, enthusiastic game that the bat was broken by a strenuous ball which made everybody forget what the

COLORADO TEACHER IS SECURED FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

By G. A. BRISCOE

Homer Davis of Colorado Teachers' College, will teach at the Ashland summer school.

Mr. Ruch of Stanford was to have the work in educational measures and psychology, but a change in plans at Stanford made it necessary for Mr. Ruch to remain there. On June 1, he and Dr. Treman began a piece of research work that will cover a period of 18 months, and involve an expenditure of $20,000. While Southern Oregon regrets losing Mr. Ruch, as it lays some claim to him, he having been engaged in the local high school for three years, yet the summer school is fortunate in securing Mr. Davis.

Mr. Davis has had a large experience as a city superintendent. He has been a close student in psychology and educational measures in both the Indiana and Stanford Universities. It is expected he will bring to the members of his classes both the theory and practice of his important subjects.

Every teacher of Southern Oregon should avail himself of the opportunity of Mr. Davis' classes.

STEPS ARE TAKEN TO GET RELEASE OF PRISONERS

SCORE OF UNITED STATES CITIZENS ARE THREATENED WITH DEATH BY RUSSIAN BOLSHEVISTS.

By A. L. BRADFORD

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—

The lives of more than a score of American citizens imprisoned and detained in Soviet Russia hinge on the efforts of Secretary of State Hughes to obtain release it is believed here. Secretary Hughes is now working out plans to get American citizens out of the hands of the Bolshevik authorities alive. Hughes fears that any miscarriage of the state department's plans will result in the deaths of some but failure to get them out will be a blot against the honor of the United States in the opinion here.

The state department has received advice relating to the serious plight of Americans. Numbers of United States citizens are imprisoned and at the mercy of the Bolsheviks. No official reports are being made as it is feared that it would hurt the chances of rescue for the Americans.

SOCIALIZATION FAILED.

PRAGUE, June 2.—One of the first experiments in socialization in Europe outside of Russia has ended in failure. About five months ago the big Zilchov Gapel glassworks was converted into a workman's co-operative enterprise. Previously the plant had been one of the most prosperous in Bohemia. The Ministry of Social Assistance contributed 200,000 crowns and the Co-operative Labor Bank one million crowns towards the experiment. After five months management of the plant the workmen have found themselves faced with a deficit of 600,000 crowns and have confessed themselves unable to continue the experiment.

Children's Playground Under City Supervision

Mrs. H. L. Homeswood In Charge

The children's playground in Lithia Park was formally opened yesterday for the summer months under the supervision of Mrs. H. L. Homeswood who arrived in Ashland from Eugene Sunday. Mrs. Homeswood was in charge of the playground last year. More than 100 children of the city took advantage of the playground rendezvous for Ashland's Young America.

The maintenance of the playground at the city's expense is part of Ashland's program of civic betterment and has been a pronounced success during its conduct in the past. The idea of a public playground under the care of a paid supervisor for children is a comparatively recent one and was pioneered at first by only the larger cities of the country. Ashland, however, was among the first to carry out the idea.

The primary purpose of the playground is to not only fill the need of a gathering place under suitable conditions for children of all ages but to also relieve mothers of worry during the summer vacation months when the kiddies are not in school. There are no charges of any kind made, Mrs. Homeswood states.

The program for the activities of the summer, Mrs. Homeswood announced, will feature baseball, volley ball, swimming lessons and kindergarten work for the small folks. The swimming lessons will be given by Mrs. Homeswood at the Natatorium and are open to the public, no age limits, without charge. The playground will be under the supervision of Mrs. Homeswood from 10 to 12 o'clock in the morning and from 1:30 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

DON'T MENTION IT, SAY THE BRITISH.

LONDON, June 2.—An attempt to amend American history will be made at a conference of Anglo-American Professors of History, to be held here in July.

Among the subjects to be discussed is a proposal that Americans should eliminate from their public school histories all passages which exaggerate the old antagonisms between Britain and the United States and the causes of the war of independence. It is believed here that most Americans are of the opinion that the British example should be followed. For several years British public school histories have been purged of all references likely to cause offense.

Over thirty teachers of history are expected to come from the United States to attend the conference, and Professor Earle B. Babcock, head of the American University Union in Paris, will represent the New York University.

ASHLAND C. OF C. SEC. MAY ATTEND STATE CONFERENCE

John H. Fuller, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this morning that he is making every effort to attend a conference of commercial organization representatives and newspaper editors at Portland, June 7, for the purpose of discussing land settlement plans for Oregon.

The conference will precede by one day the Rose Festival to be held at Portland and is part of the program being carried out by the state Chamber of Commerce to bring homeseekers from the middle western states to Oregon. Those who attend the conference will give especial attention to the reception of settlers who are due to arrive in Oregon from the middle west in about 60 days time. William Hanley, state Chamber of Commerce director, who has returned recently from Omaha, reports that the first trainload of settlers are scheduled to leave for this state from Omaha and Kansas City by July 19. He will outline conditions of the middle west at the conference.

The state Chamber of Commerce states the importance of the conference lies in the fact that the land settlement program is the initial beginning of a campaign to be continued next year. In their communication to Mr. Fuller they called attention to the fact that Portland visitors may vote during state election, June 7, at Portland providing they secure a certificate of registration from the clerk of their county.

Local business men who are familiar with the program being carried out by the state Chamber of Commerce expect Ashland to derive a great deal of benefit from the coming influx of homeseekers. Tour-

OLD PITCHERS FIND '21 GOING MIGHTY ROUGH

By HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, June 2.—Old pitching bones have had a lot of tough going this season.

Youngsters, unknown and unsung, are slipping into the regal robes of the old kings of the mound.

"Lefty" Cooper, Fred Toney, "Babe" Adams and "Red" Faber are the only veterans showing anything close to their old form.

Alexander the Great is doing bench duty for the Chicago Cubs with a sore arm and Jim Vaughn, his big teammate, isn't delivering as expected.

Dutch Reuther, sensation of the 1919 pennant dash of the Cincinnati Reds, is a disappointment in Brooklyn and his old staff mate, Hook Eiler, is out of the game under suspension.

Barleigh Grimes, Sherry Smith and in fact all of Uncle Robb's All-star pitching staff cracked and Brooklyn is falling down in the pennant race.

Ferd Schupp and Bill Doak, of the Cards are out of form. Scott Perry has fallen by the wayside with the Athletics. Bob Shawkey has been useless to the Yankees and Tris Speaker is having his troubles with his stars, Coveleskie, Bagby and Mills.

Arthur Nehf, the $35,000 beauty of the New York Giants, hasn't been as effective as Bill Ryan, a rookie pitcher from the International League.

Walter Johnson's work with the Washington Senators makes it seem that the old star is almost through. Joe Bush hasn't shown anything for the Boston Red Sox and George Daus has done the Tigers very little good. Dick Rudolph had to give up after a brave effort and is now working with the Braves as a coach.

Managers blame the cold, rainy weather of the early season for the failure of the old wings to get in shape. But while they are waiting for the coming of the hot days, clubs with good young hurlers may get out for a lead that will be hard to overcome.

The Pittsburgh Pirates are getting the best pitching of the year. "Lefty" Cooper is in his best form. "Babe" Adams looks as young as ever and Glazner, Zinn, Ponder and Yellowhorse are delivering.
