Chinese Labor Starts Eight Hour Day Strike A.F. of L. Counterpart

By CHARLES EDWARD HOGUE (United Press Staff Correspondent) SHANGHAI, China, July 20.—Paid agitators who have set the rest of the world on end through labor disturbances have awakened sleeping China and are today engaged in organizing what they hope will be a counterpart of the American Federation of Labor.

Twenty thousand working men are on strike in Canton today and nearly that many have quit their jobs in Shanghai.

Peking and Tientsin are to be the next points of attack and after that, if the preliminary movements against the employer in the larger cities are successful, the plan is to extend the propaganda to the smaller communities throughout the country.

That foreign methods have been adopted by the Chinese leaders is evident and there is a strong suspicion among the authorities that a foreigner is secretly directing the campaign. But thus far all efforts to discover the identity of the "Man Behind the Throne" have been unavailing. Laundry workers who commit mayhem on soiled garments by processing them through a course of rock pounding in muddy water at three coppers per garment were the first of the local workers to rise in their wrath and demand better treatment from their bosses. An eight hour day, double pay for overtime, half day holiday on Sundays and full pay for national and labor holidays were incorporated in their demands. The laundry owners were aghast. They had never been up against a proposition like that before. Seldom had their menials dared to even raise their eyes to the higher-up, let alone demand or even beg better pay or working conditions.

"It can't be done," they wailed. "But it will be," grimly retorted the aroused employes. Whereupon they staged a parade demonstration and succeeded in calling out the carpenters, the masons, the cotton spinners and the sawyers. Daily other of the smaller craft are joining the ranks and what threatens to become a general strike is becoming more and more probable.

BOARD SERVANTS OF LEGAL MARAUDERS SAYS TOM WATSON

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—Tom Watson, Georgia senator, is after the scalps of the Federal Reserve board. He declares that President Harding should fire the present members of the board and appoint men who are not "servants of Morgan, the Standard Oil company, packers and other legalized marauders," according to Senator Watson. "Unscrupulous scoundrels," says Watson, "caused 10,000 business failures, and their criminal, arbitrary deflation of currency cost the American people $32,000,000,000—the amount of the German indemnity. They done what the U. S. boats failed to do. The atrocious sinking of the Lusitania was no worse in moral turpitude than the board's criminal policy."

MURDER MYSTERY HANGS ON WHO OWNED SHOES

ROSEBURG, Or., July 20.—The inquest over the headless body found in the wreck of a burning automobile near here last week, continued today, with the question of identity hanging on the ownership of a pair of shoes said to have been sold to Russell a few months ago. The corpse wore a size seven shoe, the same size as those that Russell is said to have purchased. Dr. B. M. Brumfield, sought by the police as the suspected murderer of Dennis Russell, wore an eight and a half size shoe, according to Mrs. Brumfield. Gruesome evidence featured the resumption of the inquest hearing today. Mrs. Brumfield again testified, insisting that the body was that of her husband. Other witnesses were divided as to opinion. Bits of scalp, a burned ear and charred clothing were submitted as evidence.

Plan Irish Military Repression; Claim Pacific Question Settled

IRISH-BRITISH PEACE WAVERING, PREPARE MILITARY

By CHARLES M. McCANN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, July 20.—With the Irish peace negotiations dangerously balanced, it was learned authoritatively today that if the conference fails, Great Britain will inaugurate an unparalleled campaign of military repression in Ireland.

In connection with such a contingency, the British are contemplating a declaration of martial law in all Sinn Fein sections, placing of military garrisons and patrols in all cities and country sections, force all Irish citizens to undergo Bertillonian identification, restrict all travel, deal summarily with disloyal government employes, requirements of passports to enter and leave Ireland, deal drastically with rebel sympathizers and to scour the country for the rebels with troop dragnets.

Congressman Rainey High In Praise For Rogue River Valley

Henry T. Rainey, congressman from Illinois, scheduled as the principal speaker at the Chautauqua this evening, arrived this morning from Portland after a 6000 mile tour of the United States by auto and train. Congressman Rainey states that in all his travels he has never seen a valley that could surpass the Rogue River valley in point of natural beauty or productiveness. He is frankly enthusiastic about the valley, ranking it with the best that he has known. Although Congressman Rainey has traveled through Rogue River valley and Ashland by train at previous times, this is his first actual visit to Ashland. He is highly laudatory in his praise of the city.

John H. Fuller, president of the Chautauqua association, states that a large crowd is expected to hear Congressman Rainey speak at the auditorium this evening.

Winners of Lithia Park Tennis Tournament Have Southern Championship

After three days of lustrous racket swinging during the tennis tournament, known as the Lithia Park Title Play, held here July 14, 15 and 16, Buckley Leeds, late of Stanford university, Calif., marched off with laurels as the open play champion of Southern Oregon, according to a statement made by J. D. Beeson, manager of the tournament. Mr. Beeson states that Ashland is the only city in Southern Oregon to have conducted an open play tennis tournament this year, and because of that fact the title winners of the recent plays have won more than local titles. The only possible contenders, Mr. Beeson states, for the title are members of the Medford University club, in case that organization should care to put on a tournament. Mr. Beeson points out that if the club did care to have a tournament with the object of establishing Southern Oregon titles, it would be necessary to have to be open to all contenders which would enable the local tournament winners to "swing a wicked racket" in competition.

Fast, scientific games were played throughout the tournament, Mr. Beeson says. He is especially laudatory in reference to the sporting ability of the players to give and take without contention, an attitude displayed to a marked degree by the younger players. Big crowds of on-lookers witnessed the games during the three days of the tournament.

Much credit is given to Mr. Beeson by local tennis enthusiasts for the successful staging of the tourney. Mr. Beeson is a veteran at the game, having organized thirty-nine tennis clubs throughout the state. He held the Southern Oregon title for several years until the meet last week when he was forced by illness to default his game to Lyle Sams. Mr. Beeson has challenged Buckley Leeds to a game in the near future. The date of play has not been decided.

The following list of title winners has been announced by Mr. Beeson. Open champion men's singles, Buckley Leeds; open doubles, Dwight Gregg and Lyle Sams; junior mixed doubles, Thelma Beeson and Wayne Ramsey; junior boys' doubles, Cleland Banks and Fred Koshier; juvenile mixed doubles, Bob Norton and Inez Wilhite; juvenile champion, singles, Wayne Ramsey; girls' junior singles, Thelma Beeson; junior girls' doubles, Thelma Beeson and Pauline Plummer; juvenile girls' doubles, Thelma Perozzi and Inez Wilhite; juvenile girls' singles, Inez Wilhite.

JAP AMBASSADOR DECLARES VERSAILLES TREATY HOLDS GOOD

LONDON, July 20.—(Copyright by United Press)—Baron Hayashi, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain, told the United Press today that the Yip and Shantung settlements were accomplished facts and that there was no need for the powers to discuss them at the disarmament conference to be held in Washington.

Giving his personal opinion in an interview to the United Press, the Japanese ambassador reiterated Japan's willingness to discuss the armament limitation, but characterized many questions that are part of the so called Pacific Problem as having already been settled through the Versailles treaty.

"The whole thing is a nutshell," Baron Hayashi stated, "is: what is the Pacific question and what will be discussed? The Shantung, Yip and New Guinea matters, if raised, would result in a general conference on matters that have already been settled. A practical solution of all the problems should be possible without interfering with the principal matters that have already been decided."

Lithia Park Offers Happy Playground To Ashland Kiddies

By LOETTA A. HOMEWOOD

It is interesting to note the splendid work being carried on at Lithia Park playgrounds this year, and is indeed gratifying to those who have given so much time and money to establish and support a place of this kind, to note the progress that is being made. It has grown out of the efforts of a few progressive women who would not give up, and now it is here to stay. It would be hard to improve upon the present system of management. The co-operation of the different associations that bring in the summer attractions for the people, have carefully avoided the overlapping of any of the various works, and without question, this year has been more successful than any preceding one. It has been necessary to make improvements and add to the present limit of the ground set apart for the children.

It is not unusual to see 100 children, ranging in age from two to fourteen years, on the ground at one time. The general average for the afternoon is about sixty-five. All pieces of apparatus are in constant use, and no accident of serious nature has occurred during the hours the supervisor has been in charge of the grounds.

A croquet court is being completed this week, and we note that some of the boys who indulge in this sport, have a remarkable growth of whiskers on their faces. But all are welcome, and this little corner in Lithia Park may become equal to the fabled "fountain of youth."

The sand box for the little folks is proving its worth of cost. Very soon seats will be provided for visitors who enjoy watching the children during their story-telling hour, which is a feature of every day here.

LANE COUNTY HOLSTEIN FANCIERS GATHER FOR PICNIC JUBILEE AT EUGENE

EUGENE, Or., July 20.—Lane county bovines are all pepped up today with the start of the Holstein tour and picnic from the Coburg high school grounds. Linn and Benton county Holstein fanciers are also attending the Lane county jubilee. Lunch boxes and baskets are to be seen on every hand, but the Lane County Holstein Breeders' association is furnishing a very appropriate desert—ice cream.

The Holsteiners set out at 9 o'clock to visit the Swengo farm, going from there to the Myers and Blachly farm at Springfield. Luncheon was served at Robinson's grove. Following the luncheon, the tourers visited Arp's dairy, where a judging demonstration was staged. The tour wound up at the Dunlap farm, near Medfordview, where the herd and buildings were inspected.

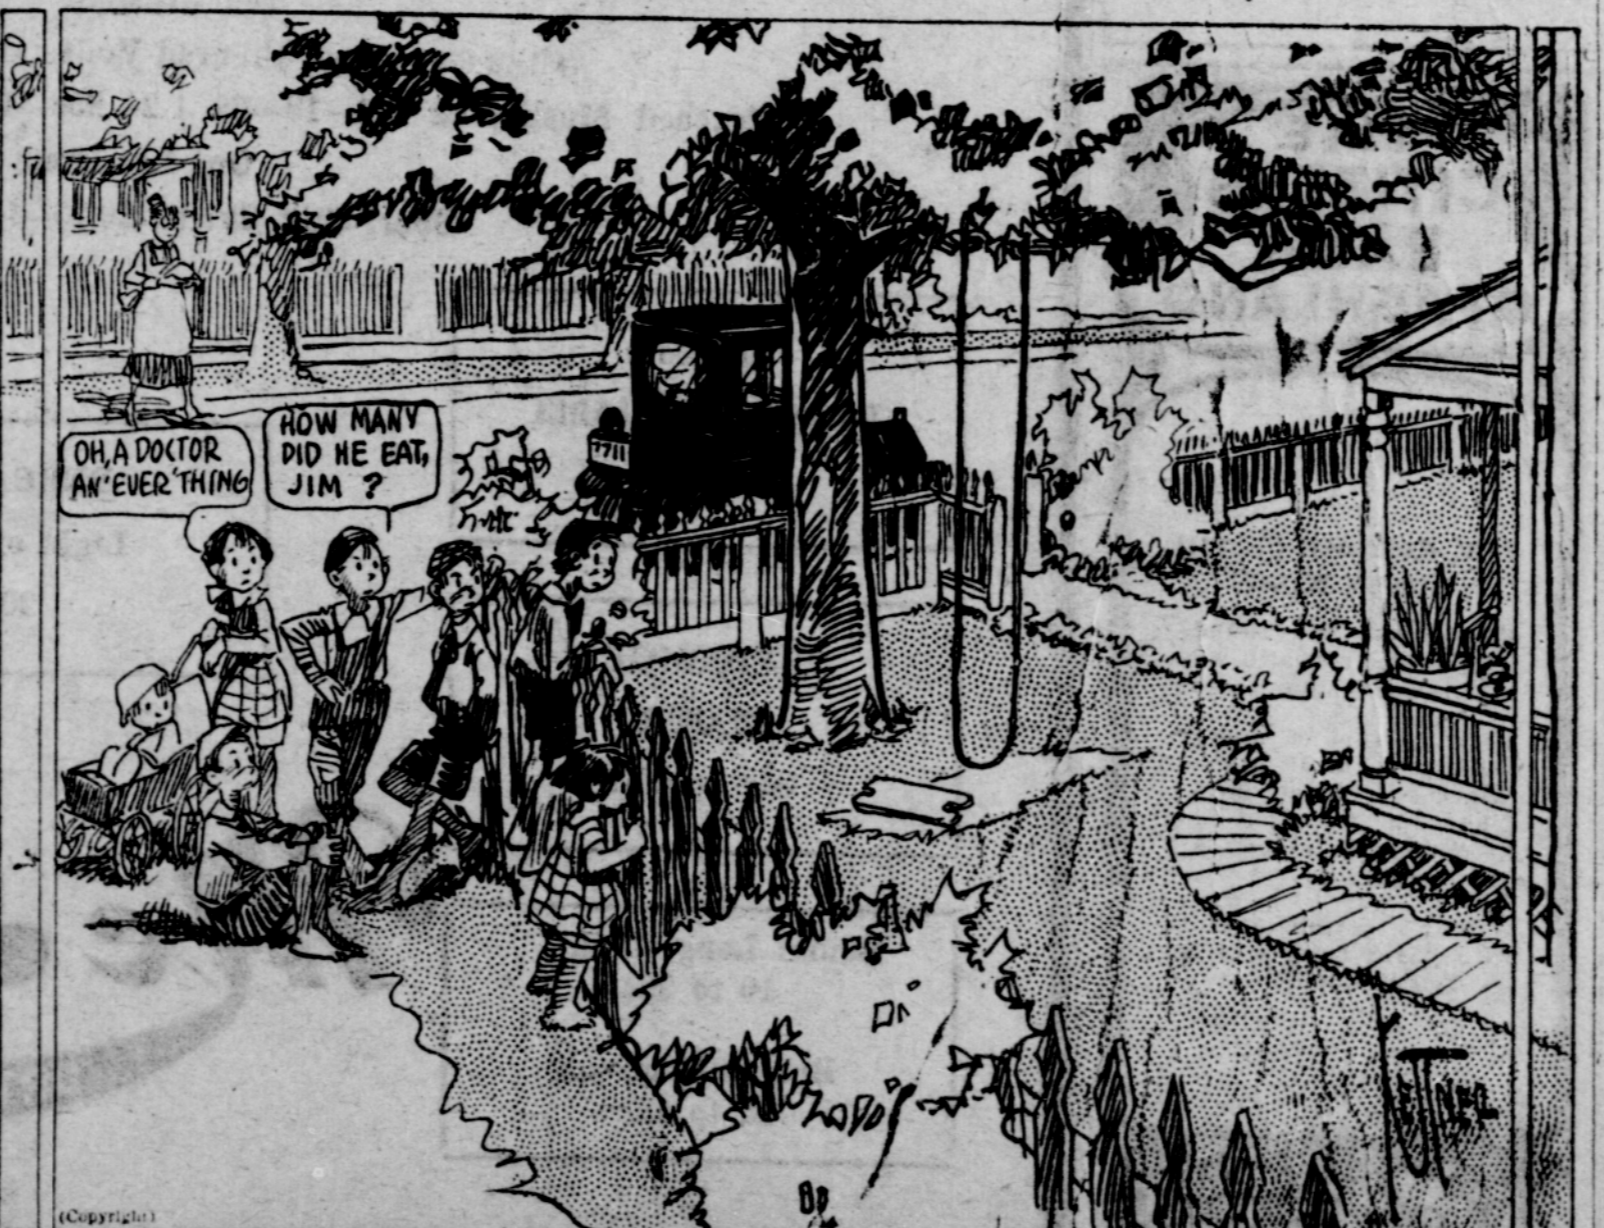

Sixteen Year Old Bad Check Writer In Police Tails

Raymond Jaeger, 16, arrested Monday on a charge of cashing bad checks with Ashland and Medford business firms, was turned over to the juvenile court at Jacksonville yesterday awaiting word from the boy's parents at Oakland, Calif. Various names were signed to the checks, five in number, during the past ten days, it is stated by Chief of Police Hatcher, and were drawn on imaginary bank accounts. They were all drawn on the First National bank.

The youth arrived here about two weeks ago with the intention of going to work on a ranch where previous arrangements are said to have been made for his employment by Ashland friends of the boy's parents. When he arrived here, however, after the offer of a proposed wage of $2 a month and room and board, Raymond preferred to take his own chances at employment rather than take the offered work at a wage that he claimed to be insufficient. He stayed with friends a few days, afterwards leaving them and taking various small jobs, the police state.

The checks totaled $60 and were cashed under different names at the Natorium, Army Goods store, Horst's gun store, Jordan's electric shop and a Medford store. William Bisha, who claims to hail from Minnesota, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing tools and a revolver from a wood camp at Wagner creek, was sentenced to six months in the county jail and fined $50 in Justice of the Peace Gowdy's court yesterday. He was taken to Jacksonville yesterday afternoon.

"STREAM OF LIFE" GIVEN INDORSEMENT

BY G. F. BILLINGS

"The Stream of Life," the new photodrama, a most wonderful production—so say the trade, the press, the clergy and laymen. It is in a class by itself—most beautiful picture ever shown. It is clean, straight and strong and should be seen by every citizen of Jackson county. If people knew its real value our Chautauqua building would not hold the crowd.

It has had a most wonderful reception in the middle west and the east. "The film picture, 'The Stream of Life,' which was at the Caldwell theatre, Caldwell, N. J., on Wednesday evening, surprised and delighted an audience that filled the playhouse to overflowing. It was one of the finest audiences that has ever gathered in Caldwell, being truly representative of the townspeople as a whole. Many of those present lived over again the scenes of their childhood, as they saw the familiar pictures of the barnyard, the meadow, the country school house, and the home fireside and its sacred scenes. More lumps in their throats as they passed out of the theatre, and it is safe to say that many received new strong incentives for better and nobler lives."

Summit Record, Summit, N. J.—"Community hall is presenting one of the most beautiful motion picture stories ever conceived and presented. Never before have we witnessed a thing so gripping, so soul-stirring, and yet so simple, so fascinatingly guileless. It is impressing the crowds who are witnessing it each evening. Rare good fortune brings it to Ashland for Thursday evening, July 21, Chautauqua building. Free admission. "The hat" will be passed—you are to be the judge whether you help pay the expenses. Come and bring your friends. Not a part of the regular Chautauqua program. G. F. BILLINGS.

Chautauqua Concert Features Rosenthal, Cellist Scores Hit

Two of the finest concerts given in a Chautauqua program in Ashland were those of last Sunday and yesterday evenings. Sunday evening, Ethel Johnson, soprano, and Albert Rosenthal, cellist, were the artists and the entire program was most finished in plan and execution. Ethel Johnson has a beautiful, clear soprano voice and sings in a very artistic manner, while Mr. Rosenthal is undoubtedly the best cellist ever heard in Ashland as a soloist. His technique is marvelous and stays long and painstaking effort in achieving such artistic perfection. The large audience listened with great delight to the program.

The pictures and lecture on "Wordsworth and the English Lakes" by Dr. Coleman was also much enjoyed.

Tuesday night brought a group of young ladies, also from San Francisco, and the beauty and freshness of voice and song will long linger with the rather small audience present. The personnel of the quartet, Misses Theresa Zahuaty, Dorothy Dunn, Vera Mathews and Esther Lindsay. Each one of these is a beautiful soloist and the combination of voices produced a harmony of melody which certainly made a hit for the quartet and each individual singer was repeatedly cheered and responded most graciously.

Albert Rosenthal appeared again and proved himself a wizard of technique and displayed a great reserve power which might be provoked to unknown musical feats. Ethel Johnson, by special request, delighted the audience with a rendition of a selection from the opera Falstaff, by Napranik, accompanied by Mr. Rosenthal.

Miss Bernice Yeo, of Ashland, accompanied Albert Rosenthal in a most acceptable manner. Miss Yeo is one of Ashland's most accomplished musicians and Ashland has every reason to feel very proud of her splendid work.
