FRENCH ARTISTS OFFER NEW FACES FOR $300 EACH

By EDWIN W. HULLINGER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, August 5.—At last, ladies, you can get a brand new face for 3000 francs (about $300 at present rate of exchange) in Paris, made according to any of the most approved styles of beauty you may pick.

Nor will it be a makeshift or camouflage job. Your features can actually be refashioned, even if it be necessary to remold the bony framework of the face. This can be done by facial surgery and without pain—beyond that occasioned by the parting with the $300.

Dr. Jack Brettmon, one of the world's foremost experts in facial surgery, is authority for this statement.

Many European women and a few Americans have already been operated upon successfully, according to Dr. Brettmon, and many more are planning to obtain new faces in this way during the summer.

In the beautiful reception room of his "Hospital of Aesthetics," on Rue Rivoli, Dr. Brettmon told a correspondent his experiences correcting the sculpture of nature and combatting the imprints of years. He is also a sculptor of no mean ability. In his studio were three or four plaster casts done by him.

"Partly as a result of experiments with wounded men during the war, facial surgery has now reached a stage where the human face, deformed by malformation at birth or weathered by fatigue or time, can be recut or rejuvenated, much as a serviceable but out-of-date garment can be remodeled and imbued with the season's latest curves," he declared.

"No longer does Antoinette need remain a back number because she happens to be born with a crooked nose. She can take a limousine to a beauty hospital, look through the nose catalogue, pick out a Roman, Greek, or best American nose, and in less than a week be back in the opera box with as pretty a member as any girl in the house. Many beautiful girls miss being extraordinarily beautiful simply through malformation of one feature of the face."

New noses cost from 1500 francs ($150) up, he said.

kettle in alternate layers and let stand a few hours to extract the juice. Then bring slowly to the boiling point; then simmer until thick. Jam or marmalade may be tested by dropping some of the syrup on a cold dish. It should stiffen in a few seconds.

Gooseberry Jam

Stem and wash gooseberries. Mash and cook very slowly until fruit is tender. Add equal parts sugar and fruit and simmer until thick. This fruit contains so much acid that the additional sugar is required.

THRIFT LIKE SALT

The small boy said "salt is what makes things taste bad when you leave it out." Thrift is much like that. The First National has seen tragic instances of lives where thrift had been left out. Many homes are broken up because of reckless spending and financial inefficiency. Many men are square pegs in round holes because of failure to save some capital. Have you a steadily growing account here?

Sir Walter Raleigh Had A Bright Idea

YOU remember the episode of the rainy day when he threw his cloak into a puddle that the good queen might cross without getting wet feet and perhaps the flu. That was advertising. Sir Walter had a message of import to her majesty. He wanted a hearing. He got it by a courteous and ingenious method of attracting favorable attention. It was another case of advertising that paid both ways.

Business today is metaphorically throwing its cloak before you. It seeks your favorable attention. It uses its most effective method of capturing it—advertising. Day after day it caters to your tastes, and your desires through advertising.

The firms who advertise in the Tidings believe that if they succeed in getting their message across to you, you will often be interested and sometimes inspired with a little of their own enthusiasm for their wares.

Advertising will help you. Whether you realize it or not, advertising is a big vital force in your life. Through it, American genius and American manufacturers are putting within your reach the many boons of modern life.

Advertising keeps your information up to date on every article of human need, whether food, clothing, articles of household utility, necessities or luxuries.

Advertisers deserve your support. The queen knighted Sir Walter.
