not expect any better camps in California. As yet we have not found a peer of the Ashland camp."

Praise of Camp Heard on Road—
J. P. Neul and Lewis Boden, attorneys of Long Beach, Calif., who are traveling through the northwest in a modern "land yacht," built for two and equipped with folding beds, running water and electric lights, heard of Ashland's camp ground while at Crater Lake.

After making a special trip to this city, they decided to stay a few days. They also were shade enthusiasts. After visiting various southern cities and touring the northwest, inclusive of British Columbia, Mr. De Neul states, "It's a rare treat to be here. All along the road we heard of this camp. It was praised higher than a kite, but we find that it certainly measures up to its reputation among the tourists we met. In fact, we are a bit inclined to add to the story as we go. We will spend the next month touring our way south to Long Beach. As we go, the story of Ashland's auto camp goes with us."

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hart are recent arrivals from Helena, Mont., at the camp grounds. "We like the greenness of Oregon and Ashland," says Mrs. Hart. "In the east things are burnt up a bit and not half so pleasant traveling as it is in Oregon. If all camps were as fine as this one, traveling would be just one continual round of pleasure."

Announcing The New Buick "Four"

A Thoroughbred Four, Completing the Famed Buick Line

The new Four-Cylinder Buick, here announced, is a thoroughbred—a pedigreed car well worthy of its name.

Down to the very last detail, this new model possesses every quality of enduring serviceability, complete comfort, and distinctive appearance that have always characterized Buick automobiles.

The advent of this new Four makes the Buick 1922 line complete. It offers to purchasers of a car of this size all the quality and service that go to make up the name "Buick."

The engine, of course, is of the time-tested Buick Valve-in-Head type. The year-after-year concentration of Buick's engineering skill and experience in building Valve-in-Head motors assures the highest standard of performance obtainable today.

Every other unit is of a quality equal to the power plant. The whole assembly constitutes a perfectly balanced chassis which is of typical Buick construction. The equipment of Cord Tires is merely evidence of the quality which characterizes the entire car.

Two open and two closed body types mounted on the Buick built chassis comprise the new series.

Even the most casual inspection of the details of design and workmanship will reveal that full measure of quality which motorists have learned to associate with Buick.

Obviously a high grade automobile—a genuine Buick production—the prices listed below make this great Four even greater. A value such as this is possible only because of the combination of Buick engineering skill devoted to the one ideal of quality, Buick production facilities developed over nearly a quarter of a century, and Buick's nation-wide distribution and service organization.

The Buick Motor Company is proud of the Buick Four. It has the faith of long experience in this newest addition to its line. It places upon it unreservedly the Buick guarantee carried by every Buick automobile produced. That its confidence is well placed is manifested not only by the keen interest with which motorists have awaited this announcement, but also the advance orders placed by distributors, dealers, and the general public.

Ford News

For your information we give below telegram just received from Mr. W. A. Ryap at the Home Office, which sets at rest the rumor that there will be a change in the design of the Ford car:

DETROIT, MICH., AUGUST 3, 1921.

TO ALL FORD DEALERS—
"We have given the following statement to the Detroit papers. Our attention has been called to recent newspaper articles, etc., to the effect that there is to be a new model Ford car on the market August fifteenth with a change in design to ventilating windshield and one-man top. We do not contemplate any change and there is no foundation to the rumor circulated in this connection. We have no hesitancy in making a denial of the report."
