Dickey, a fireman for the Southern Pacific company running out of Ashland, will be given a free trip to Chicago this year as a company representative at the International Railway Fuel association's annual convention. Dickey of Ashland, F. M. Creason, E. J. Martin and W. H. Ahl of Dunsmuir and F. E. Lamphier of Hornbrook.

The First National Bank. ASHLAND, OREGON. Thrift—a Character Developer. You would be amazed at the number of people who open saving accounts at the First National, make a few deposits, then withdraw the entire amount. Saving means sacrificing the present for the future; cultivating will power and perseverance. But character grows that way, and the spendthrift changes into the efficient spender—for there is such a thing. We want the account of every one who can stick to saving.
