County Nurse Gives Report

The nurse committee held a meeting in the library building yesterday afternoon. Miss Faldine, county nurse, was present and gave an interesting report of her work since February. Arrangements were completed for the baby clinic to be held August 15. Special announcements concerning the clinic will be given by the nurse.

Constance Talmadge has completed "God For Nothing" for First National release. No. Pansy, her lead man was not Grover C. Bergdoll.

Gene Castle's first picture for Hodkinson has been officially titled "The French Kiss." But it isn't dedicated to the legal Shoe Company or anything like that.

Charlie Chaplin's next, made under the working title of "Vanity Fair," will come to the silver-sheet as "The Idle Class." Do you suppose our Charlie plays a bartender?

Famous Players-Lasky have the title-changing fever, too. They've changed "Peter Ibbetson" to "Forever." That's the picture which boasts in its cast Wallace Reid, Elsie Ferguson and Elliot Dexter. Girls, wouldn't you just love to play "Forever" with Wallie Reid?

Benj. B. Hampton, who releases his productions through Hodkinson, is at work now upon "The Grey Dawn," adapted to the screen from Stewart Edward White's Satevepost story. Since Prohibition went into effect there aren't as many grey dawns as there used to be; Or haven't you noticed it?

Boy Scouts Return After Two Weeks At Lake O'Woods

The two troops of Boy Scouts who have been encamped at Lake O'Woods for the past two weeks, returned this morning under the command of John Rigg, with Palm Beach tan complexions and husky appetites. Swimming, rowing, hikes and camp fires are pleasant memories with the scouts who have returned in time to prepare for the opening of school September 12.

While at camp the boys were arranged into four mess groups as follows: No. 1, Orlando Nelson, captain; Moreland Smith, Chester Wilcox, Webster Wertz and Spalding. No. 2, Fred Johnson, captain; Ralph Robison, Farres, Henry Elmore, Charles Edwards, and Tilton. No. 3, Clarey, captain; George Johnson, G. Crossby, Aubrey Miles, Crews. No. 4, Ross Taylor, captain; Clark Butterfield, John Storm, George Trott, Carl Dryde and Caldwell.

Doris May's first for Robertson-Cole Pictures is tentatively titled "The Foolish Age." And that's anywhere between fifteen and ninety-five. 'm thinkin'!

Gasnier will make—also for R-C—a picture called "A Wife's Awakening." Which same was probably brought about by a long blonde hair on hubby's 'at.

Ralph Connor's engrossing novel "The Foreigner" has been pictured and renamed. As "God's Crucible" will soon reach the screen—via Kinison.

Constance Talmadge has completed "God For Nothing" for First National release. No. Pansy, her lead man was not Grover C. Bergdoll.

That you get more genuine satisfaction at less cost when you use this class of tobacco.

A small chew lasts so much longer than a big chew of the ordinary kind. And the full, rich real tobacco taste gives a long lasting chewing satisfaction.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
