DEPUTY SHERIFF KILLED IN MINGO WAR

EXPORT DECLINE REACTS ON U. S. HOME MARKET

NEED SEEN TO AID SHIPMENTS DEAR DOLLAR EXCHANGE FORMS BIG OBSTACLE IN REMEDIATING SITUATION.

By W. H. ATKINS (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 31.—Continued decline in export trade in recent months, from the "peak" figures of the war period, has brought with it a still larger degree of uncertainty in domestic industrial trade fields.

The government's program to finance exports may be broadened considerably. It is also probable the plan of extending financial relief to domestic agriculture may assume larger proportions, with the inevitable piling up of surplus stocks in American warehouses.

Exports dropped from $8,000,000,000 to $5,500,000,000 last year. Since the beginning of the new fiscal year, July 1, the decline has continued. Future months probably will show steady drops in the volume of goods sold to foreign buyers.

Officials are giving close study to the problem in connection with its bearing upon measures designed to aid in restoring business in general to normal. Comptroller of the Currency Crissinger's explanation of the export trade drop and what it means to American business was this:

"We need to increase exports, but dear U. S. money impedes." "We need to increase our exports. But in our new phase as the greatest creditor country we find it difficult. The difficulty is increased by the fact that American money is the best in the world—the most expensive.

Oregon Supreme Court Adjourns Until Sept 12

ASHLAND EDITOR CHARGED WITH ATTACK IN ROW

"H. G. Enders, proprietor of the Enders department store at Ashland was the victim of Bert R. Greer's wrath this morning in Ashland, when the editor assaulted Mr. Enders with a bar of iron. Mr. Enders threw up his hand to ward off the blow, and was cut about the hands.

THIS IS ACCORDING TO MR. ENDERS, who arrived in Medford about noon today for the purpose of swearing out a warrant for Greer's arrest.

Mr. Greer is editor of the Ashland Tidings. At 2 o'clock today Mr. Enders had not filed the complaint, but was discussing the matter with District Attorney Rawles Moore.

The affair all comes about as the refusal of Mr. Enders to advertise in the Tidings. Some years ago Mr. Enders charged that Editor Greer, because of his appointment on the Lithia park commission, had grafted to the extent of $20,000. He also refused to advertise. A short time ago MR. ENDERS STARTED A WEEKLY PAPER OF HIS OWN, and is said to be cutting into Greer's newspaper business to considerable extent.

They met on the street in Ashland this morning, according to Mr. Enders, and Greer invited him into the Tidings office to discuss the matter. Greer suggested that Enders should shut up his little weekly paper and advertise in his home daily. Enders replied that he would never do it, and one angry word led to another, said Mr. Enders, until Greer struck at him with a bar of iron he had in his hand.

Belfast Burns--Is Report; Crown Forces in Control

Missing Pastor Thought Alive, En Route East

The Rev. J. T. Anderson, of Marshfield, who disappeared a week ago last Saturday from Portland, while his wife, formerly Miss Nona Face of Talent, was visiting friends and relatives there, is alive, according to information from Marshfield. Mrs. Anderson, with her brother, Henry Pace, left last Friday for Marshfield. The district attorney of Coos county has launched an investigation of the affair.

Rev. Anderson had a large sum of money in his possession when he "disappeared," and took pains to leave the impression that he was liable to have a "lapse of memory," complaining of intense headaches and financial troubles before leaving. His baggage was left at the Clyde hotel in Portland, and other evidence has been discovered showing an effort to leave an atmosphere of uncertainty about his movements.

It was first thought that Rev. Anderson, who was also identified with the civic and fraternal life of Marshfield, had been murdered or wandered off, a victim of dementia.

W. Y. Arthur, a friend of the "missing man," went to Portland and according to reports he brought back, Anderson was not in Oregon, but had probably left for the east.

The usual rumor in similar affairs that there is "a woman in the case" was brought out, but this feature of the case has not been confirmed.

RIOTERS AMBUSH SHIPYARD MEN; READY FOR WAR

DUBLIN, Aug. 31.—Flames are sweeping Belfast according to a report here, telling of property damage and the killing of Catholics in that city. With the Sinn Feiners and the British government in a diplomatic deadlock, Ireland is again on the verge of a civil war.

The Irish republican army is preparing for instant mobilization, and quiet but rapid preparations are being made for war.

BELFAST, Aug. 31.—Belfast is now under military control and the crown forces are taking control of the city despite the truce, at the request of the city authorities. Martial law has been proclaimed, although fighting continues in isolated spots. A total casualty list of sixteen dead and 100 wounded is reported by authorities.

Terrific fighting is breaking out again. Shipyards workers on their way to work today were fired upon by rioters in ambush. Scores were wounded and one killed as a result of the ambush. Both sides are using rifles and grenades. The British military forces drew a cordon around the fighting area but failed to restore order.

BERLIN CROWDS AWAIT DEMONSTRATION

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—"Bloody Wednesday" dawned with all Berlin anxiously speculating whether or not fresh bloodshed would result from the demonstrations in which 100,000 excited workers are taking part. Police in great numbers are patrolling the streets. Chancellor Wirth is heavily guarded following repeated threats of assassination before nightfall.

Nearly 250,000 workers arrived in Berlin today to participate in the demonstrations expected today. It is feared that trouble will start at the gigantic mass meeting scheduled for this afternoon.

The one employment in which a thousand men go broke for every one who gets rich is that of nursing old grudges and neglecting the really important affairs of life for a chance to get even with some one. I wouldn't have the bad feeling that comes from a heart full of envy and grudge for all the money on earth. I don't want any bad feeling toward anybody.

Local Man Returns After Chautauqua Tour as Director

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reed returned this morning from a five months Chautauqua tour on the Ellison-White system. This completes four years for Mr. Reed and finishes up his sixth tour, as director and lecturer, during which time he has traveled more than 100,000 miles and now holds the world's record as being the most successful director that ever stepped on a Chautauqua platform. One of the principal duties of a director is the renewal of the contract for the following year, and during four years of directing in towns too numerous to mention, and in some cases under difficulties beyond comparison, he never failed to secure a return engagement for Chautauqua, and that without any sort of disagreements or trouble with any member of a

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 31.—Members of the three largest union organizations of railroad workers have voted overwhelmingly in favor of a strike before they will accept the scheduled wage cut of twelve per cent, according to information obtained by the United Press today gathered from all the large railroad centers. A walk-out is strongly favored by the men should the railroad labor board insist upon the enforcement of the wage slash.

PROCLAMATION MARTIAL LAW IS DRAWN UP

MINERS AND CITIZENS CLASH IN MOUNTAIN BATTLE—FEDERAL TROOPS AWAIT ORDERS FOR MARTIAL MOVE.

LOGAN, W. Va., Aug. 31.—John Gore, deputy sheriff, was killed today when the miners and citizen forces clashed near Blair. The miners charged up the mountain from Blair, but the Logan county forces' first line of defense repulsed them, according to reports. Immediately following the clash, Colonel Eubank, commanding the state forces, appealed to the governor of West Virginia for reinforcements.

FEDERAL TROOPS READY TO MARCH ON MINGO

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 31.—Federal troops are being prepared to march on Mingo county and the coal fields of West Virginia at a moment's notice, should the armed miners protesting against martial law in Mingo county fail to heed President Harding's proclamation of yesterday ordering them to disperse. A regiment of infantry and a machine gun company are waiting at Camp Dix, N. J., and reinforcements are ready at Camp Sherman, Ohio.

Reports from the Mingo county mine war area indicate that there was a scattered fighting through the night between forces of miners and citizenry that were being constantly augmented in numbers by fresh, armed arrivals. The section is reported to be on a war basis, with every available man in the firing line and the women holding up the civil and industrial affairs at home.

In the proclamation issued yesterday by President Harding the warring miners were ordered to return to their homes in a peaceable manner not later than 12 o'clock noon of September 1. It is stated that unless peace is restored federal martial law will be declared, additional action over the state of martial law that has been enforced in the Mingo mine district by the state troops of West Virginia for the past several weeks.

War department officials state that it may not be necessary to proclaim federal martial law for the sending of troops to the scene of action.

WILL HOLD 1925 EXPOSITION CONFERENCE SEPTEMBER EIGHTH

SALEM, Or., Aug. 31.—Oregon's 1925 exposition will be given its state-wide significance when a conference of representatives of every county in the state will be held in the Multnomah hotel in Portland on September 8. Governor Olcott has reverted back to the war days in the selection of the committee believing that those leaders in each county who so successfully served to place Oregon to the forefront in all liberty loan and other ways, would be best adapted to devise ways and means for financing the great Oregon exposition. In addition to calling for the co-operation of the war leaders in each county, the governor has increased the number of counselors at the meeting by requesting several state-wide organizations to send three delegates each.

All of the preliminary work in building up the foundation for the exposition organization was done by the people of Portland, but as soon as congress passed the bill authorizing the exposition, and it was signed by President Harding, thus giving the exposition the governmental recognition which insured its success, Governor Olcott acted upon a pre-determined plan to have some of the best brains in the state get together and put in effect an efficient co-operative plan which would provide the finances necessary for the successful building up of the exposition.

The meeting of September 8 will determine the financial scope of the exposition and the best means for raising the money; it doubtless will endeavor to provide a means by which every hamlet, village, town and city in the state will have its part in the exposition, that every section of the state may be represented in the undertaking, the greatest movement in the history of Oregon for the cementing of the interests if the state in a grand plan for its exploitation.

The representatives of the various counties, as appointed by the governor, follow: T. G. Montgomery, Baker; A. J. Johnson, Benton; D. C. Latourette, Clackamas; G. W. Sanborn, Clatsop; S. C. Morton, Columbia; Dorsey Kreitzer, Coos; Harold Baldwin, Crook; W. A. Wood, Curry; C. S.
