Close Call for Car—

As a result of a daring attempt to steal Chief of Police Timothy's auto under the chief's nose on Main street, opposite the police station yesterday, C. S. Badgley of Portland was sentenced by Justice Taylor this morning to serve six months in the county jail. It was one of the most absurd and laughable criminal events in local history.—Medford Mail Tribune.

Caves Road is Inspected—

Phil H. Dater and F. E. Bonner returned yesterday from a trip to the Oregon Caves, where they were looking over the highway and also inspecting the caves. Mr. Dater is district engineer for the forestry department, and Mr. Bonner has charge of forest roads, with his headquarters in Washington, D. C. The gentlemen inspected the project with the purpose of gaining some idea of the work that will be necessary to provide adequate accommodations for the large number of tourists that are expected to visit the attraction every year. The gentlemen left for Medford and will go on to Crater Lake to inspect that resort.—Grants Pass Courier.

What is a vacation without music? Buy a small Victrola and take it along. Rose Bros. 247-1f

First Apple Shipment—

The first apple shipments from the valley were started to the eastern market Wednesday night. There are several more cars of this variety to go, but apple picking and shipping generally will not begin until about October 1, although in the meantime a car here and there will be shipped. The pear shipments are going right along and up to last night 410 car loads had been started east.

"Bob" Warner Returns—

Once more the sporty wire wheeled Nash car is in the possession of the genial "Bob" Warner. Mr. Warner made a recent trip to Eugene to reclaim his car after it had been taken from a local garage by a Eugene banker who held a mortgage against it prior to Mr. Warner's purchase of the machine. In some way, known only to those of the "inner circle," the affair was settled to the satisfaction of "Bob," the dealer, and the banker. It is said that the entire trio enjoyed a picnic after the settlement. For a time, it is said, the dealer was in danger of prosecution.
