DRAFT EVADERS FILL FEDERAL PRISON CELLS

STEADY STREAM OF DRAFT EVADERS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY EXPECTED SOON AT LEAVENWORTH.

By THOMAS WRIGLEY (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent) LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 15. The "slackers of the world" war are soon to receive the inevitable sentences that military justice demands.

Eight men, who were convicted of draft evasion, and who hail from all sections of the central west, are now serving time at the disciplinary barracks at Leavenworth. These eight men are the first of a long list who are expected to be punished.

The sentences of the men range from one to five years at hard labor. The court-martial awards are being carried out to the "letter," in regard to the imprisoned slackers. Some are working on the prison farm—others are building roads, and the rest are laboring in the barracks shops.

"By the latter part of September," one officer said, "we expect to be receiving a steady stream of convicted draft evaders from all parts of the United States east of the Rocky mountains."

Names appearing on the lists of draft dodgers which are being issued by various army posts throughout the country, are being carefully checked by government agents who are working in conjunction with army officers to put the army slackers in "the city of silent men." That a steady stream of convicted slackers will be flowing into the United States disciplinary barracks at Leavenworth, Kan., and to Alcatraz, Calif., by the latter part of September, was the prediction.

C. LAKE GUESTS GO; BEARS TAKE PLACE FOR FEED

Now that the number of visitors at Crater Lake is decreasing the bears that live in that vicinity are becoming more tame and bolder in their foraging for food in campers' stores and soon will be decreasing Alex Sparrow's chances for a pleasant hereafter by their nightly raids on the government camp meat supply.

These bears obtain a good living by their daily morning and evening visits throughout the season to the garbage dump of the lodge, which is in the woods a short distance from the government camp. There every evening can be seen about half a dozen big bears eating, and many tourists have enjoyed the novel sight throughout the season. Attaches of the hotel and national park force have become especially acquainted and attached to two huge bears, "Jiggs" and "Maggie," who have been at the lake for several years. Maggie has become so tame that often she lets women attaches of the lodge handle her eatables at the dump.

All the bears dine in harmony at this location until Jiggs, who is the largest and fiercest, shows up. He gives a few snarls and grunts, and makes a few passes, ordering all the other bears away, especially Maggie, and they lose no time in going until Jiggs has eaten his fill and retired, when they return and eat what is left. However, as guests are now so many at the lodge now, and the garbage is consequently lighter, the hungry bears are not so shy of humans and stick closer to the food haunts.

Car Goes Over Bridge Culvert; Motorcycle Mix

Miss Hazel Smith, clerk at McGee's, and Harvey Cliff, mechanic at the Ford garage, were slightly bruised when the light car in which they were driving went over an eight-foot culvert on the south side of the overhead bridge on the Pacific highway at 8 o'clock yesterday evening.

The accident is said to have been caused when J. R. Edwards, 42 Third street, driving a motorcycle with a side car, attempted to pass the Cliff car just before crossing the bridge. Cliff states that in attempting to avoid an oncoming car, Edwards turned short with his motorcycle, cutting in ahead of the car and locking hubs with the Cliff machine. The top of the Cliff car was badly damaged.

Doctor Crandall And Washington Girl Marry Here

Dr. W. J. Crandall, of Crandall & Sawyer, was married at noon today to Dr. Gladys Anderson, of Ellensburg, Wash., at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage by Rev. Charles A. Edwards. The bride arrived this morning. Dr. and Mrs. Crandall left immediately following the ceremony for Crater Lake, where they will remain for a week before returning to Ashland and their apartment home on Glenn avenue.

Dr. Crandall has made many friends here since coming to Ashland a year ago from Los Angeles where he attended a medical college. The newlyweds first met while attending college in the southern city.

The young couple will take up their practice here after returning from their honeymoon. Mrs. Crandall formerly practiced in Oregon City.

Fred Holibaugh Takes Position As Columbus Co. Agent

Fred C. Holibaugh, the well known Valley View rancher, who has been assistant county agent of Jackson county since last January, left Sunday for St. Helens, Or., to take the position of county agent of Columbia county, having just been appointed to that position by the extension service of the O. A. C. This is essentially a dairy county, and Mr. Holibaugh is especially well qualified in that line.

While his promotion pleases his many friends, there is general regret that Jackson county loses his efficient services. Mrs. Holibaugh will not join him for some time yet. His successor as assistant agent of Jackson county has not yet been appointed, but County Agent Cate expects that no delay will ensue in the appointment and that the new man will be along in a few days.

ANOTHER JACKSONVILLE MINE BONDED AND LEASED

The Long Pine mine consisting of six claims three miles southwest of Jacksonville and formerly owned by Mr. Haff, of Gold Hill, has been bonded and leased by Clark & Childers for a sum of $10,000. The mine, which is situated on Poor Man's creek, has several thousand feet of tunnel work which was done prior to the recent transfer and the ore from these tunnels has averaged $30 per ton, with some of it much higher. Many of the high grade specimens which were displayed in the olden days by "Jerry, the Nugget King," were taken from the Long Pine.

250 PIONEERS OF S. OREGON HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Two hundred and fifty strong, the Southern Oregon Pioneer association gathered at the Chautauqua Pioneer hall at 11 o'clock this morning for their annual meeting. New arrivals from Rogue River valley points are arriving hourly.

Following the memorial exercises and the reading of obituaries of the original pioneers by the association's permanent secretary, Mrs. Mamie Day Nelson, of Jacksonville, new officers for the ensuing year were elected. Colonel H. H. Sargent, of Jacksonville, was elected president, and Mrs. Leona Ulrich Hanson, also of Jacksonville, was chosen as vice president. Colonel Sargent, when he learned of his election, declined the honor in a speech made during the basket dinner served in the downstairs hall.

As reason for his action he stated that he was not a native son of Oregon, nor a pioneer, and believed his election was out of order. What action was taken on the matter by the association could not be learned before going to press today. It was urged that Mrs. Sargent, member of a Southern Oregon pioneer family, could act for her husband. Mrs. Sargent did not favor the suggestion.

Officers of the association who will finish their term of office today, are Mrs. O. Winter, president, and Mrs. Robert Garret, treasurer. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the pioneers gathered at the new log cabin built on Mill street recently by G. S. Butler, as a memorial to his mother, Mrs. A. Butler Thompson, and for the use of the Pioneer association. The building was presented to the association by Mr. Butler with fitting exercises. The acceptance speech was made by Mrs. O. Winter. The cabin was dedicated to Mr. Butler's mother. Prof. Irving E. Vining addressed the pioneers at the exercises.

The log cabin is constructed known Valley View rancher, who has been assistant county agent of Jackson county since last January, left Sunday for St. Helens, Or., to take the position of county agent of Columbia county, having just been appointed to that position by the extension service of the O. A. C. This is essentially a dairy county, and Mr. Holibaugh is especially well qualified in that line.

Haz Kik

If I was going to start a business in good faith, as a permanent enterprise in a town, I would put in a plant and establish a payroll in that town. I would not take money from the people in that town, on the assumption that my effort was a local enterprise, and use it to build up payrolls in another town. If I did that, however hard I might rib myself to overcome it, I would feel like a foreign institution. Besides, it looks reasonable to me that "with Ashland payrolls is Ashland made." Anyway, I worked pretty hard one time to keep the S. P. shops here when I thought they were going to be moved.

ASHLAND DELEGATION TO JOSEPHINE COUNTY FAIR

An automobile parade bearing huge banners painted "Ashland," and containing approximately 150 representative business men and citizens, left the Plaza at 10 o'clock this morning for Grants Pass where "Ashland Day" will be observed at the Josephine county fair.

Members of the delegation equipped themselves with various noise-making instruments before leaving. The party will return this evening.

Room and board for students at O. A. C. has been reduced from $34.81 to $26.70 a month.

Friderger Home Is Stormed By Backing Truck

"A man's home is his castle," like Friderger, manager of the grocery department of Ender's store, admits the quotation as alleged, but avers it was applicable in the days before motor trucks, speed wagons and joy rides. Mr. Friderger explains that the front of his home, 29 Second street, was damaged to the extent of approximately $200 at 10 o'clock yesterday evening, when a "speed wagon" truck is said to have been backed into his yard by a party of "joy riders." The truck, occupants and driver have disappeared.

Mr. Friderger states that the car was evidently unable to climb the hill just above his home and in backing down the driver was unable to control the machine. A front room suffered most from the mishap although the whole front has a visible dent. Police are searching for the "joy riders."

Newlyweds To Crescent City For Honeymoon Trip

Miss Hazel Ewell and Gerald E. Gunter, well known Ashland young people and graduates of the local high school, were married yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. Charles A. Edwards. Miss Bernice Plackus and Guy Wolcott were attendants at the wedding. The newlyweds left by car for Crescent City where they will spend a week's honeymoon trip. Mr. and Mrs. Gunter will live at 130 Pioneer avenue.

Mrs. Gunter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Powell, 137 Oak street, and graduated from the Ashland high school with the class of 1917. Mr. Gunter is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler C. Gunter, 264 Grant street, and graduated from high school here with the class of 1916. As Miss Powell, Mrs. Gunter was formerly bookkeeper at the First National bank.

STATE AUTO LAWS WARNING IS PAST; MUST DIM LIGHTS

The period of warning for all violations of the state automobile law is now past, and from now on the law will be rigidly enforced in this vicinity, according to an announcement by Chief State Motor Vehicle Inspector Rafferty and Deputy State Inspectors McMahon and Griffiths, who are working with him here this week.

Special efforts will be made to enforce the law against overloaded trucks, and with regard to lights on all motor cars. The inspectors call attention to the fact that no patent lens is recognized by the Oregon law and that the lights of all cars must be dimmed on approaching other cars outside of the city, and headlights must be dimmed in the city.

They also announce that Sheriff Terrill now has on hand a supply of state temporary license tags, and that each new car owner who has not yet obtained his permanent license must get one of these tags from the sheriff and wear it on his car until the regular license comes.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—Tilden was sent into the semifinal round of the National tennis singles tournament today when he beat Gordon Lowe of London in three straight sets.

IRISH NOTE FOR BRITISH REJECTED BY LLOYD GEORGE

TWO MEN, SHOT IN BELFAST STREETS—MACHINE GUNS ARE USED ON MOB—ULSTER RE-FUSED REPRESENTATION.

BELFAST, Sept. 15.—Two women were shot in the streets here today when a violent outbreak of rioting occurred. Revolvers were fired and stones and brickbats thrown. The police were powerless to disperse the mobs. Soldiers with machine guns were summoned and soon brought the crowd under control.

DUBLIN, Sept. 15.—Accusation that the British government is seeking "to rend the ancient nation of Ireland," and partition its territory, was made by Eamonn De Valera in his latest note to Premier Lloyd George, the contents of which were made known this afternoon, despite the fact that the premier refused to accept it.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—Ulster unionists have requested representation at the proposed Irish peace conference at Inverness, Scotland, but were refused by Lloyd George, it was learned today. The refusal was based on the contention that the conference was merely a preliminary meeting and that later a general parley would be held at which all the Irish factions would be represented.

DUBLIN, Sept. 15.—Joseph McGrath and Harry Boland returned today with De Valera's latest note which Premier Lloyd George refused to accept until it was revised or modified. The Sinn Fein cabinet went into session to discuss the situation. Irish newspapers intimate that a serious hitch has developed in the peace proceedings.

J'VILLE SCHOOL ROW; STUDENTS OUT ON STRIKE

JACKSONVILLE, Or., Sept. 15.—An injunction prohibiting E. G. Stultz from acting as principal and Miss Vida Bradshaw from acting as teacher of the eighth grade of the Jacksonville school was granted by Circuit Judge F. M. Calkins Tuesday morning, and their places assumed by Prof. Ben W. Hosmer as superintendent and B. R. Finch as eighth grade teacher. Most of the high school and eighth grade pupils walked out with the ousted teachers. The injunction was filed by Directors Fleming and Smith of the school, through their attorney, Evan Reames.

Further legal action will follow the granting of the injunction, when Prof. Stultz and Miss Bradshaw will ask to have the order vacated. It was also said that the directors would take steps to have the transient officer bring the "strikers" back to school. No date has yet been set for the hearing.

The row, which has been raging in the county seat for two weeks, centers about which of two principals shall be in charge, and which of two teachers shall be in charge of the eighth grade. Each side of the argument stoutly maintains that the other side is not legal. The school opened Monday with Prof. Stultz and Miss Bradshaw in charge and Prof. Hosmer and B. R. Finch occupying places in the background. In the morning Director Fleming
