ESPEE OFFICIAL PREDICTS 1300 CAR APPLE CROP

EXPECT THIRTY PER CENT INCREASE IN APPLE SHIPMENTS FROM ROGUE RIVER VALLEY—CANNERIES ARE ACTIVE.

Eight hundred cars of pears and 1300 cars of apples will be shipped from the Rogue River district and the Umpqua valley this season, according to conservative estimates announced here today by I. T. Sparks, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific company.

The apple movement will be 30 per cent greater than that of 1920, and the pear shipment, which was expected to be only 85 per cent of last year's movement, will equal the 1920 shipments.

According to A. T. Mercier, superintendent of the Portland division, who was here today, all of the shipments made thus far have moved on schedule time or better. The record from the Oregon territory to Ogden, the eastern terminal of the Southern Pacific lines, is considered a fine tribute to the efficiency of the railroad.

The shipment of the new vegetable—broccoli, from this district will aggregate 75 or 80 cars. Twenty-five cars of fresh prunes have been shipped, and this is expected to grow into a considerable importance.

Oakland, Or., one of the greatest turkey shipping points in the United States, expects to equal or exceed its last year's record, according to reports received by R. E. Kelly, representative of the Southern Pacific's executive department, and K. C. Ingram, editor of the Southern Pacific bureau of news, who are touring the Oregon territory served by their company.

The canning industry is unusually active. Seventy-five cars of canned fruit will be moved from the Rogue River and Umpqua Valley districts.

Miners Must Win Mingo Fight Says Union Leader

COL. H. H. SARGENT FUNERAL HELD AT J'VILLE SUNDAY

Following the largely attended funeral services at his late home, and the military burial service at the Jacksonville cemetery during a drizzling rain, and which was concluded with a volley of shots over the grave and the sounding of taps, the remains of Colonel H. H. Sargent, soldier, author and prominent citizen, who had served his country faithfully during two generations, were laid Sunday afternoon in their final resting place at the foot of a magnificent laurel tree, overlooking his late home and the Rogue River valley he loved so well.

Then nature joined in tribute to the beloved departed, as the rain ceased, and a beautiful rainbow arched the valley.

People were present from all parts of the county to pay their last tribute. The services at the Sargent home were conducted by Rev. J. K. Howard, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Jacksonville, who delivered an eloquent eulogy on Colonel Sargent's life as soldier and citizen. The choir of the church sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes of many artistic designs, including pieces from the city of Jacksonville, the Medford American Legion post, the Women's Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Among the pieces from a distance was one from the Beekman family of Portland, former residents of Jacksonville.

The American Legion veterans, Spanish-American war veterans and separate company A of Medford were largely represented at the funeral. The active pall bearers, all American Legion veterans, were Colonels Gordon Voorhies and Paine, Captain Ralph Cowgill, and Lieutenants Floyd Hart, Bert Elliott and Carl Y. Tengwald. The honorary pall bearers, prominent citizens of Jacksonville.

Haz Kik

If I wanted to go from the Overland shoe shop to the First National bank, I wouldn't strike out cat-a-corner across the street and then swear because an automobile nearly ran over me. I would go straight across at the proper crossing and give the auto driver a chance to miss me. And besides, then, I'd have the law on my side.

HAZ KIK.

NO COMPROMISE SAYS J. L. LEWIS, MINERS' MEETING

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 20.—"The fight in Mingo county must be won," said John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, in a report made at the biennial convention of the international miners organization here today.

"There can be no compromise of the principles involved. Industrial peace can never come to that tented area until the miners of that field are accorded the same privileges as exist in the organized sections of America, and which are their lawful heritage."

The Square Deal Grocery To Have New Store; Lease

Mr. Flackus states that a large, modern grocery store equipped to handle a large volume of city and country trade will be installed. The new location will be only a few doors north of the present location of the Square Deal grocery. Mr. Flackus and Mr. Powell are both well-known business men of Ashland. Mr. Flackus has engaged in the grocery business in this city for the past three years, formerly having a location at Fourth and B streets.

GREEK OFFENSIVE AGAINST TURKISH NATIONALIST CAPITAL COLLAPSES

PARIS, Sept. 20.—The Greek offensive against Angora, the former capital of the Turkish nationalists, collapsed just as the Greeks were at the gates of the city, according to Turkish dispatches received here.

The Greeks lost heavily in the engagement, many were killed and wounded. A large amount of war material was left behind.

WITCHITA FALLS, Tex., Sept. 20.—The daring of a switch engine crew in moving a car of gasoline from the midst of blazing freight cars probably saved North Wichita Falls from heavy damage by explosion. The fire started in the "Katy" repair shops, which burned with a loss of $150,000.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—Dr. John Prince, of Ringwood Manor, N. J., was selected today by President Harding as minister to Denmark. Dr. Prince is a prominent educator.

OPEN SESSIONS OF CONFERENCE HAS OPPOSITION

WOMEN TO HAVE REPRESENTATION ON ADVISORY BOARD OF AMERICAN DELEGATION—WAR DEAD TO BE HONORED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—November 11, the date set for the opening of the disarmament conference and for burial of the unknown men who died overseas in the world war, at the Arlington cemetery, will be made a national holiday, it was announced at the White House today.

The plans which are now being formed here include a nationwide demonstration of expression in support of the conference, the announced purposes of which are the limitation of armament and the removal of the sources of future wars in the Far East.

Women will have representation on the advisory commission to the American delegation at the disarmament conference, it was announced at the White House today.

It is the intention of President Harding to have twelve members of the commission, two of which will be women. Labor and other groups will probably be represented, it was stated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—Opposition to congress making any move to force open the sessions of the approaching disarmament conference was expressed by Senator Underwood, democratic member and leader of the senate, today, following a conference with President Harding.

As one of the American representatives at the conference, Senator Underwood said that he would be "very glad personally to see the sessions open, but were not the other nations to take part in the conference, to be considered in the matter."

Wife of Missing Pastor Arrives At Talent Home

The Rev. J. T. Anderson, husband of the former Nona Pace of Talent, has not returned according to promises made when arrested in West Virginia. Mrs. Anderson arrived in Talent Saturday and will make her future home there. The Rev. Anderson mysteriously disappeared about a month ago, and after a long search was located in the east. Concerning the incident, which is considered closed, as far as Coos county is concerned, the Marshfield News has the following to say:

"Jesse T. Anderson did not return to Marshfield today, nor did he send any word to Mrs. Anderson, or to the district attorney, Ben S. Fisher. Mrs. Anderson's time limit for his return was today, and with his failure to come yesterday, she commenced packing her goods to move them to Talent, where she will reside, on returning there, starting tomorrow morning. And since the incident seems closed so far as Mr. Anderson's returning here is concerned, this article closes today's news with a statement from Mrs. Anderson, who was in the office just before the paper went to press. Mrs. Anderson did not have much to say, but she wanted her friends to feel assured that she was very grateful for every help they extended her in the affair. Mrs. Anderson said she would leave here in the morning and would reside at Talent, where anybody who desired to communicate with her could reach her."

START REHEARSALS FOR 'PURPLE SHOW' CAST IS COMPLETE

Rehearsals were started for the Elks show last evening, and from reports of the committee a great cast has been assembled to put "Purple Flashes" across the footlights. The show will hold the boards at the Vining theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 4 and 5.

The cast of the farce opens with Mrs. Maxine Silver in the leading role of Mrs. Jack Temple, a temperamental wife, a part that gives her great scope for her natural ability. It goes in a mix-up of comedy situation—from laughter to tears; from the sublime to the ridiculous.

Henry Enders Jr. will appear as her husband, Jack Temple, "a liar," and C. J. McNaughton, who is directing the show for the Elks, will be his chum, Frank Fuller, classed as a "bigger liar." Mrs. Miriam Shephard will be Mrs. Frank Fuller, a clever soubrette role, which is classed as the "Ferris Wheel Lady." Miss June Walton, who has gained professional experience in motion picture circles in California, will play the part of Dorothy Gladson, a romantic school girl who is very much in love with Captain Sharpe, a young English military officer, the part played by John Finneran.

Two comedy parts that are a riot of fun are those of Mrs. John Brown, a human cyclone, and her husband, John Brown, a ladies' hairdresser. They are capably taken by Miss Sidna Hellman and "Chick" Farlow.

The cast of the comedy closes with Ike Friderger as Wigson, the cockney English and very talkative butler.

There also will be two elaborate revues staged that carry a cast of thirty people, and feature plenty of pretty girls. The entire costuming and scenery for the production is carried by C. J. McNaughton, professional show producer, who is handling the show for the Elks. The Elks' show committee says that "Purple Flashes" is to be the event of the season.
