What Constitutes Advertising?
In order to allay a misunderstanding among some as to what constitutes news and what advertising, we print this very simple rule which is used by newspapers to differentiate between them: "ALL future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection is taken IS ADVERTISING." This applies to organizations and societies of every kind as well as to individuals.

When love begins to sicken and decay,
It useth an enforced ceremony.—Shakespeare.

Charlie Chaplin can not go about London without being mobbed by admirers and put in jeopardy by the crush of people. There are some compensations for the common person. He or she can go about without molestation.

Government "of the people, by the people, for the people," has its defects, but these are remediable. It is the best form of government under the sun, and is capable of progressive improvement.

Politeness in children is admirable. But it is not so common as it might be.

Blessed is the man who has a competence, and yet whose head is not turned by money.

TIDINGS FASHION HINTS

SKIRTS ARE UNCHANGED

In the matter of styles for separate skirts designers appear inclined to let well enough alone. The new utility skirts for winter are still made of striped or plaid materials, and are usually plaited, either in box or side plaits. Their resemblance to summer skirts ends when fabrics are considered. These are heavier and in warm, rich colors.

WE'LL TELL THE WORLD!

A Siamese newspaper has the following advertisement: "The news of English, we tell the latest. Write in perfect style and most earliest. Do a murder get commit, we hear and tell of it. Do a mighty chief die, we publish it, and in borders of sombre. Staff has each been college and writ like the Kipling and the Dickens. We circulate every town and extortionate not for advertisements. Buy it!"

Medford Pastor Attacks Traffic of Booze Runners

MEDFORD, Or., Sept. 20.—An unusually large audience attended the "Constitution Day" services at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday night. Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett delivered an address dealing with anarchistic propaganda in all of its forms, but laid special emphasis on defiance of the eighteenth amendment, classing bootleggers with anarchists.

Barber Buys Old Shop For Third Time, Three Years

For the third time in as many years Clyde Costello has purchased the Plaza barber shop. The recent purchase was made from Dennis Henry, who had himself bought the establishment from Mr. Costello a year ago when the latter left Ashland to take care of eastern business interests.

Mr. Henry disposed of the business because of mining property requiring his personal attention. Mr. Costello has sold and repurchased the barber shop three times because of his frequent eastern business trips.

STUCK-UP ELEPHANTS MAKE HERD CARRY TRUNKS JUST SO

Kas and Mo and Klot and Mama are performing elephants and they have constituted themselves a board of censorship over all the other elephants with the Sells-Floto circus, coming on Saturday, September 24, to Medford. Because of their superior education they are very upstage with the pachyderm actors less clever than they, and, as for the elephants which can not perform—well, one should see Kas and company slip them the scornful razz.

Kas, it was, who found a name for the quartet. Being a well-traveled elephant, he has picked up a fad of reading signs on box cars. "We shall be the 'Big 4,' he whispered behind his trunk to Mo, and Mo passed the word to Floto and Mama. That led to other things. Soon, "The Big 4" began to tell the other "bills" how to carry their trunks in parade. The patient, kindly members of the five Sells-Floto herds have allowed themselves to be imposed upon to the extent that now they yield the centers of the three rings to Kas and his pals in the performances and copy their table manners. So, if in the big menagerie tent of the circus, you find meek elephants that are slow to reach out for the peanuts, do not pass them by, but offer the goobers to them twice. You won't have to wait long, for Kas and Mo have a tough time restraining their humble understudies' eagerness for peanuts. Of course, it is hard for the trainers to put "The Big 4" in their places, for they really are clever actors. Most circus men concede that Floto and Mama are the cleverest pachyderms that ever performed. They are all of them great lovers of children, and it is almost impossible to be harsh with elephants that care for children as do the Sells-Floto herds.

In the opening spectacle, "The Birth of the Rainbow," Mama, Floto and twelve other elephants carry Maypoles and ballet girls dance at the ends of dozens of rainbow streamers which radiate from the peaks. All of the Sells-Floto performing herds are presented in the rings and on the tracks by girl trainers.

SERVICE

TO HOUSEWIVES

There are home women in Jackson County who keep their household accounts as systematically as could any business women. Their household allowances are deposited in the First National and each month they check out regular expenses, and any surplus goes into a family savings account. This is an ideal way to keep family finances in good condition.
