HUNGARY IGNORES ALLIED ULTIMATUM

PLAN FEDERATION OF COMMERCIAL CLUBS OF S. ORE.

TO HOLD FIRST MEETING IN ASHLAND THE EARLY PART OF NEXT MONTH—PROMOTE INTERESTS OF SOUTH OREGON.

Plans for a federation of Southern Oregon Chambers of Commerce were made at a forum luncheon at Klamath Falls yesterday noon given in honor of Ashland and Medford delegations. The first meeting of the association will be held in Ashland the early part of next month, John H. Fuller stated this morning.

The purpose of the new organization, which will include Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls, is to promote the interests of Southern Oregon. It is intended to concentrate on plans for the Scenic Loop drive, a proposed highway that will include all of the affected cities and Crater Lake.

Ashland men who attended the forum luncheon at Klamath Falls yesterday were Rev. Charles A. Edwards, H. T. Elmore, George M. Frost, and John H. Fuller.

G. M. Frost was one of the principal speakers at a meeting of the merchants bureau, of the Klamath Falls Chamber Wednesday night. Messrs. H. T. Elmore and J. H. Fuller also attended the gathering.

Mr. Frost, alive to business, carried a number of samples of choice Ashland apples to Klamath Falls, and was calling on the Klamath Falls merchants during his stay in that city.

In introducing the Ashland delegation at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Thursday noon, Secretary Fuller alluded to Rev. C. A. Edwards as the Bishop of Southern Oregon. Bishop Edwards was the principal speaker representing Ashland.

G. M. Frost, H. T. Elmore, and Rev. Edwards will give an account of the trip to Klamath Falls and the splendid entertainment by the Klamath Falls Chamber of Commerce at the forum luncheon next Tuesday noon at the Hotel Ashland.

Espee Makes Cut In Menu Prices Dining Car Service

The knife of the normalcy experts of the Southern Pacific has been welded, and as a result the dining car prices were slashed to somewhere near a figure coincident to the poor man's pocket book.

A pot of coffee, which until yesterday sold for 30 cents now can be purchased for 15 cents. Baked potatoes have been reduced 40 per cent from their former price of 25 cents.

Other brands of potatoes have slumped in prices approximately 30 per cent. Soups have splashed from 35 cents down to 25 cents, and all kinds of vegetables have struck a pre-war basis. Sirloin and tenderloin steaks have been cut down to $1.25 a portion, whereas they were $2.

A reduction of 15 cents has been made in ham and eggs, and the price that now confronts the prospective customer is 63 cents. A three-egg ordinary omelet is now on the block for 45 cents, having undergone a 20 per cent reduction. Fancy omelets have also undergone a similar reduction. Ten per cent reductions have also been made in cereals and fish.

Another innovation on the part of the Southern Pacific is the establishment of an 80 cent luncheon on the dining car menu.

100 MILES STATE ROAD WORK TO BE LET; BONDS SOLD

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 23.—At the next meeting of the state highway commission, October 25, bids will be opened for letting at least 100 miles of road work.

Another large block of bonds will be sold by the commission next month, this time the rate of interest to be fixed by the board. One million dollars' worth of bonds were sold Wednesday to a syndicate at a rate of $1,065.10 per $1,000.

There will be a survey of the Dalles-California highway through the town of Maupin. This place was recently visited by a severe fire and the commission wishes to establish the road lines before the town is rebuilt.

Greenwood & Dann was awarded the contract for surfacing ten miles of the Ochoco highway between the city of Prineville and the Ochoco forest reserve, for $21,000.

Senate Committee Votes To Favor Peace Treaties

POSTPONE HEARING OF R. MATTHEWS 'TILL TOMORROW

MEDFORD, Or., Sept. 23.—The preliminary hearing for Raleigh Matthews, 23, young Eagle Point rancher accused of the murder of Wilbur (Wig) Jacks, in an admitted shooting affray Tuesday morning, has been postponed until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning before Justice of the Peace Glenn O. Taylor, at Medford. The hearing was scheduled for 10 o'clock this morning.

"It's hell to have to shoot a fellow," was Matthews' only comment on the fatal shooting, while en route to the county jail with Sheriff Terrill yesterday.

Matthews spent Tuesday shocking corn, and was arrested when he returned to his home in the evening. He said he was waiting for the sheriff to come after him, and had no thought of flight.

A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict on the case as follows:

"We, the coroner's jury impanelled to investigate the cause of death of Wilbur Leroy Jacks, find the said Wilbur Leroy Jacks came to his death at Sacred Heart hospital, Medford, Oregon, on September 21, 1921, from gunshot wounds inflicted by one R. Matthews, at Eagle Point, Jackson county, Oregon, on the 20th of September, 1921, at about 9 o'clock a. m."

The verdict was signed by L. E. Wakeman, as foreman, and H. C. Burgess, Ed White, William Bays, H. D. Spencer and O. L. Harmon, as members thereof.

Two witnesses were examined. Dr. Charles T. Sweeney, the attending physician, who described the nature of the wounds, and the causes of death. He testified there were four bullet wounds, and twelve perforations of the intestines, and the severing of a large artery in the abdominal cavity.

Haz Kik

I have noticed the names of E. V. Carter and V. O. N. Smith pretty well at the head of the list in donations to every enterprise that has been put forward for the advancement of Ashland in the last ten years, but I have never known them to dedicate their gifts on the ladies going out and getting new depositors for their banks in order to induce the "gratuity." Perhaps they thought the ladies had "work" enough to do in keeping Ashland beautiful and forwarding their many public enterprises to waste their time boosting private enterprises. The ladies of Ashland are simply wonderful in their splendid accomplishments, and it is not the Smith and Carter way to ask them to "work" for their private enterprises in order to "wing" a few shekles out of them for enterprises that should appeal to their pocketbooks without subterfuge, evasion, or coaxing.

Anyway, it is no doubt just as easy for the ladies to get $2 direct for their club house, out of the average citizen, in such a worthy cause, and then the ones who really make the donations get the credit.

Should a little bonus be found necessary to induce the ladies to come through, with a year, a month, a week, or a day, we would suggest one of those fine, incense, big chocolate drops, "manufactured in Ashland" by Rose Brothers. HAZ KIK.

SENATOR BORAH CASTS THE ONLY DISSENTING VOTE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—The senate foreign relations committee voted today to make a favorable report to the senate on the treaties of peace with Germany, Austria and Hungary, which President Harding transmitted to the senate Wednesday.

Before reporting on the treaties, the committee adopted the reservation of stipulating that the United States shall not participate in any agency or commission created by the Versailles treaty without an act of congress authorizing such participation.

The treaties were reported on by a vote of nine to one, with only ten of the sixteen members present. Senator Borah cast the one dissenting vote.

YANKS WIN FROM CLEVELAND IN CRUCIAL SERIES

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Babe Ruth was the hero of the Yanks when they scored 4 to 2 in their victory over Cleveland today in the first game of the series. The big banno started every rally that netted the Yanks runs, scoring three himself and lashing out three sizzling doubles in his four times to bat against Coveleski, who Speaker selected to pitch the first game of the most crucial series in the race for the American league pennant.

A crowd of 36,000 saw Waite Hoyt, former Brooklyn schoolboy, win a hot battle, letting the Indians down with six hits. Both of the pitchers hurled wonderful ball, but Ruth's timely hitting turned the balance in favor of the Yanks.

Brumfield Hurls Chair At Sheriff; Quelled By Gun

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 23.—Dr. R. M. Brumfield, the accused murderer of Dennis Russel, now awaiting trial, was threatened with sudden death today by Sheriff Hopkins, when the latter drew a gun, after being narrowly missed by a hurled chair as he entered the prisoner's cell.

Missing the sheriff in the wild throw of the chair, Brumfield was halted by the leveled gun of Sheriff Hopkins, who threatened to kill the accused murderer if he made another move.

When asked to explain his rage, Brumfield, white in the face, said that Hopkins had worked his cell mate, a convicted bootlegger, "almost to death." Officials state that the bootlegger, who is sentenced to three months at hard labor, had not been compelled to do any hard work.

Before entering the cell this morning, Sheriff Hopkins had addressed Brumfield with, "Good morning, Doc, how are you?"

"You come in here and I'll show you how I feel," Brumfield replied. "Well, Doc, you're going to get the chance," the deputy said and started to enter the cell.

As Hopkins unlocked the door, Brumfield hurled a chair the length of his cell, striking the door.
