Russell Picture Exhibit at K. Falls

A picture of a blazing forest fire painted by Mabel Russell, of Ashland, was taken to Klamath Falls by the Ashland delegation which attended the recent forum luncheon in that city, and hung in the dining room of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce, where it received much favorable comment. While the painting depicts a weird, yet beautiful, scene, the real purpose is to show the deprecation and destruction to scenery of the forest fires.

Duck Season October 1—

The duck hunting season will open October 1 and not twenty days later than that date, as believed by some sportsmen, according to Captain A. E. Burghuff, state game warden. The deer huting season closes October 20 and some sportsmen have confused that date with the opening of the duck season. All prospects are for an excellent duck season, according to the game authorities.
