Hunter Acquired "Limit"— Veteran nimrods aver that Henry Provost bagged the "limit" when he acquired an aged white rooster while in quest of ducks last Sunday at the Bernes ranch near Phoenix. Mr. Provost was accompanied by Fred Neil and A. C. Ninfinger. The entire party was about to return without hunting laurels of any kind when Mr. Bernes sighted a large and rheumatic-looking rooster sunning himself on a nearby fence. Grabbing a gun from one of the hunting party, Mr. Bernes shot the fowl and tendered it to Mr. Provost with considerable ceremony. Although the rooster was accepted by Mr. Provost, other members of the party claim that the rooster is "no more."

Red Cross Trains 147 Blind Vets; In Useful Work

Training designed to fit them for the battle of life was taken by 147 blind ex-service men at the Red Cross Institute for the Blind, near Baltimore, Md., during the fiscal year 1920-1921, according to the report of the Institute for that period. Of this number, 19 have gone on to other institutions, in almost every case to institutions where those having sight are receiving advanced education. The blind ex-service men who have entered such institutions are provided with special text-books in Braille, reading which they were taught at the Red Cross Institute. Twelve men have passed from the Institute to successfully carry on some occupation or business for which they were fitted by special training. A few have withdrawn from the Institute because of poor physical condition, 14 are receiving further "training on the job" and 87 are still in training.

Red Cross Plans $6,000,000 Effort To Save Children

Medical care and clothing for thousands of children in Central and Eastern Europe are outlined as the activities of the American Red Cross in Europe for the current year, says a statement on the eve of the Annual Roll Call of the organization. These activities, supplemental to the feeding operations of the European Relief Council of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, are designed to provide the most adequate and balanced relief within the resources of private philanthropy. Through the establishment of child welfare stations in the centers of population of those countries where adequate medical care is not now obtainable, the American Red Cross plans to provide the medical assistance needed to restore these children to a normally healthy life. The sum of $6,000,000 has been made available for this work.

murdered by the Indians near Fort Hall. In closing, I will quote again from the Applegate manuscript: "Perhaps few companies of men ever performed such a campaign without repeated quarrels and even serious altercations, but the members of the Old South Road company bore together the trials and privations of the expedition with a 'forgiving and forbearing' spirit, and their mutual burdens and the dangers to which they were exposed continually developed and strengthened their friendship. A reunion of them, were such a thing practicable, would be a season of peculiar joy, one to be remembered by the veteran survivors with pleasure until they, too, shall pass away into the great unknown." Since the account of the road expedition was written, all members of the party have passed into "the great unknown." But their memory should be kept green by those

BENEFIT COMMUNITY CLUB HOUSE DRAMATIC Interpretation Dr. Mattie Brown Shaw Will Render the Drama "Miss Gibbie Gault" One and One-half Hours' Entertainment, Presenting the Entire Fifteen Characters Herself, on the Evening of OCTOBER 28 METHODIST CHURCH Dr. Mattie B. Shaw needs no introduction to Ashland, as her ability along dramatic lines was a source of great pleasure to her hearers during her former residence here, since which time she has finished a course of instruction from Emma Wilson Gillespie, of the Gillespie School of Expression, of Portland, and these are some of the things they say of her: "She is an artist whom it is equally a pleasure and education to hear. Her voice possesses a rare sympathetic quality which takes a thorough grip on her hearers. Her personality is unique. Her phrasing of difficult passages remarkable and rich." "She possesses all the qualifications that go to make a pleasing entertainment, making her character walk and talk before you, with a distinctive personality." "To hear her in the delineation of character is an event that is ever gratefully treasured in one's memory."
