Return from Grenada—

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Eastman have returned from a motoring trip to Grenada, Calif., to which place they were accompanied by Mrs. S. N. Roberts and daughter who have spent the summer months in Ashland at the Eastman home. Mrs. Roberts and daughter will remain at their Grenada home.

Return from California—

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Raine returned Sunday evening from Salinas, Calif., where they spent a delightful three weeks visit with friends. The trip was made by auto.

Parent-Teachers Meet—

The Parent-Teachers association will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Hawthorne school annex. A program is being arranged by the children of the first and third grades of the school and an invitation for attendance by the public has been extended. The complete program has not yet been announced.

Hallowe'en Party—

Mrs. E. M. Wallin, 174 Church street, entertained a number of the young friends of her son, Junior, at the Wallin home yesterday evening with a Hallowe'en party. The children spent the evening playing games, diving for apples and other activities favored for "spook" night.

Those present were: Rosalin and Ramona Wise, Wanda Schwein, Helen Detrick, Eleanor and Grace Coe, May and Mabel Clary, Harold and Marjory Aikley, Roy Pulse, Junior Wallin and Mrs. Wallin.

The unleashed dollar would do much to bring prosperity and relieve unemployment. Put the hoarded dollars to work!

The only commendable thing that could happen to that threatened railroad strike would be to call it off.

PROHIBITIONISTS TO HOLD CONFERENCE HERE NOVEMBER 4

Officers and to organize the forces, if possible, for future action. "Similar campaigns are being conducted in every state in the union. If prohibition is to be made permanent and a success, the same must be properly enforced, and we are confident that this campaign will be the means of arousing a stronger public sentiment for law enforcement. The greatest immediate need in the state is to inform our people just what the law is and their duty as citizens, and get the people and law enforcement officers together."

HALLOWE'EN IS OBSERVED BY 101 AT HOTEL PARTY

sion to speak, explained that he had an offer of $10,000 for the Civic Improvement club building, but the offer was conditional upon being accepted by 7:20 o'clock, and it was then 7:23.

Victor Mills sought to deceive the ladies by wearing his wife's hat and coat, which was considered a very proper personal decoration. Following the example thus set, Rev. Edwards, Henry Enders, Jr., and other male speakers resorted to similar disguises.

John Fuller and Dr. G. O. Jarvis paid the most fines, being utterly incorrigible when it came to speaking without permission. Mrs. O. C. Bergner and Mrs. N. H. Harrison collected the cash so graciously, however, that the pain of giving was almost entirely eliminated.

Nearly all the men were fined at one time or another for breaking forth into song, their gaiety having been frequently silenced by the chairman's big rattle and little whistle.

The festivities closed with a toast to the ladies, which was proposed by Mr. Fuller and sung by the men, with foaming schooners of kickless cider upraised.
