

Local and Personal

Ashlanders in Georgia— W. H. Wenner and wife, who are making an extended tour of the southern states, recently visited the J. B. Hunter family, now located in Georgia, where they keep bees—seventy four stands of them, in fact. Mrs. Hunter was formerly Miss Melissa Wenner, of Ashland. Mr. Wenner is a clerk at the Southern Pacific company freight depot, and the vacation which he is now taking is the first he has enjoyed for three years. Mrs. Wenner has some very dark thoughts about the colored population of the South and is anxious to get back to Ashland, where she and her husband are expected soon.

Band Practice Tonight— This evening, at 7:30 o'clock, the Ashland band will meet at the city hall for their regular practice, which for several reasons had been postponed.

For pleasing, see Orres. 17tf

Elharts Entertain— Yesterday the H. H. Elhart family entertained at dinner with their usual liberality and cordiality. Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Ball, Tom Hudson, O. H. Barnhill and John Riggs. The two war veterans entertained the rest of the company, telling how they fought, bled and died at the front during the recent unpleasantness across the pond and in the 1860's. Fresh strawberries were served from the Elhart garden, where Hudson admits the climate is just as tropical as on Scenic Drive.

Johnson Claims Premiums— Albert Johnson has the card, the ribbon, $11 in cash and the word of C. C. Cate that he received the first premium at the state fair this year on the best three boxes of apples, a prize which another Ashland orchardist was reported to have captured.

Cliff Payne makes shaving stands.

Ashland Man Acquitted— J. H. Wheeler of Ashland, who conducts an auto top establishment in that city, was found not guilty in Justice Taylor's court here today of driving a car on which was a license other than the one issued to him by the secretary of state's office. He was arrested on this charge several days ago by J. J. McMahon, deputy state motor traffic officer. After hearing the conflicting testimony, Attorney George Coddling, acting as special counsel for County Prosecutor Rawles Moore, practically recommended a not guilty verdict. —Medford Mail Tribune.

Duck Hunters Return— Amos Nininger, E. T. Staples, and T. J. Coffman returned Saturday from Tule lake, near Klamath Falls, with the remainder of the Staples car covered with wild duck, the evidence at least of a successful hunt. Mr. Jacobs returned with Mr. Staples although he remained in Klamath Falls during the duck shooting expedition.

Remodeling and cleaning—C. Orres.

Embroidery Club Meets— The Friday Afternoon Embroidery Club met last week with Mrs. Frank Gulsinger on the Boulevard. The afternoon was spent in needle-work. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present besides the hostess, were: Mesdames Frank Nelson, C. A. Cotter, Roy Hale, Guy Jacobs, H. C. Emery, O. W. Long, G. H. Hebb, Frank Foltz, N. Z. Stewart, A. M. Dyrud, and M. D. Love.

Auto Collision— W. A. Black, 922 Boulevard, has filed a complaint with Chief of Police Hatcher to the effect that a Hudson car containing three young men, had run into him on North Main street yesterday, resulting in considerable damage to the plaintiff's car. Mr. Black stated that the car, which is registered to E. O. Steigler, was being driven at terrific speed and never slackened until the Black car was struck. Chief Hatcher telephoned Traffic Officer McMahon at Medford to look out for the alleged speedsters, who were headed north. The Medford officer replied that he would wait until evening and see if the accused made a report. No further particulars have been received at the Ashland police station today.
