

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MASONIC NOTICE

Stated communication of Ashland Lodge No. 23, Thursday evening, November 10. Owing to the Armistice day dinner at Chautauqua Pioneer hall, also on Thursday evening, instead of Friday as originally planned the lodge supper and social scheduled for this date will be postponed until either the stated communication or on St. John's day in December, merely a business session being held November 10.

W. E. BUCHANAN, W. M. W. H. DAY, Secretary.

Leaguers Leave Tonight

Improving Church Street Home

John Swenning has been making extensive repairs and improvements on his Church street residence near High street. One of Mr. and Mrs. Swenning's nieces is teaching at the Bellevue school, and another at Phoenix. The Swenning family came to Ashland a number of years ago, before autos were invented, in a wonderful traveling house, which had been purchased from a Villisca, Ia., merchant, and which contained all the comforts of home, including beds, cupboards, lavatory, refrigerator, etc. This moveable house was drawn over the mountains from the Hawkeye state by four horses, and later sold to a Medford man. Mr. Swenning has a timber claim near Buck lake, and since he first came to Ashland spent a number of years in Iowa and New Mexico.

"SCENIC WONDERS OF OREGON"

There will be a lecture at the Christian church Friday evening, November 18, at 7:30 o'clock, on "The Scenic Wonders of Oregon," by Mr. Frank Patterson, the noted scenic artist, and it will be illustrated by natural color slides. These are not hand colored pictures, but are taken by a special process of photography which produces the pictures in full color, without any artificial coloring whatever, and is absolutely the latest triumph in picture making. These pictures are admitted to be among the very best examples of natural color photography yet produced.

An added attraction is the first presentation to the public of the new song, "In Ashland," which will be illustrated by slides of Lithia park and Ashland canyon.

Every person who comes to Bible school at the Christian church November 13 at 10 o'clock will receive two admission tickets free of charge.

YOUNG KLAMATH FALLS DIVORCEE DISAPPEARS WED.

and his bare feet bleeding from injuries received because of their unprotected condition. He had neither hat nor underwear, wearing only a worn suit of rompers, and acted as though fear was his dominant emotion.

The ladies mentioned were anxious that no injustice be done the mother, since they had no positive proof she was to blame for the condition of the child. She herself was very poorly dressed and had evidently suffered many privations and much sorrow.

The child's father, according to statements made by the mother to Mrs. Stevens had been divorced at Klamath Falls when Robert was but three months old, the court ordering him to pay $15 a month for the support of his baby and former wife. Three months ago this slender allowance was cut off and since then efforts to locate the child's father had proven fruitless.
