Beeson's Bees Coming

Elton Beeson, the well-known Wagner Creek rancher, has announced his intention of making an exhibit of beef cattle at the coming winter fair and has volunteered to help construct the necessary shelter.

Many Guests at Hotel

Hotel Ashland is filled to capacity these days with high class guests, whose presence and expressions of pleasure over their entertainment here indicate the possibilities of the hotel business in Ashland, according to Proprietor Leach. Among recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. James, of Dunsmuir, who came Wednesday and remained for a few days; Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and son, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Quary, all of Spokane, who made a pleasant stop yesterday on their way to California.

Lebanon Players Here

Sixteen pigskin kickers will arrive on the afternoon train from Lebanon, together with those who usually accompany a high school football team, reservations having been made for the visitors at Hotel Ashland. Much interest is being manifested in the personal makeup of these Willamette valley champions, who are promised the game of their lives on the local gridiron tomorrow. The Ashland players are much stimulated and encouraged by the novel sensation of knowing that their traditional enemies from Medford, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls will all be rooting for them. Indications are that it will be the biggest and best game ever played in Southern Oregon, and certainly the most expensive. High school students have been working like beavers to sell tickets enough to meet the heavy cost of bringing the visiting team here. The winners of tomorrow's game will have the privilege of playing Portland for the state championship.

Come on! You people without homes, get a good home cooked dinner for 60 cents at Pioneer hall on Thursday evening, November 10, 5:30 to 8. 58-2

Scene Painters Here

The Calvert & Calvert Scenic company arrived here yesterday by auto from South Dakota, en route to California. The two brothers who comprise the company express themselves as more highly pleased with Ashland than any other city this side of Portland, and are especially appreciative of our park and camp grounds. They also state that Oregon has the best roads of the fifteen states which they have visited.

Window Frames Stolen

Yesterday morning, when Contractor Frank Greaser went to work on the Presbyterian church addition he found that during the night a nice bunch of window frames had disappeared. Mr. Greaser considers this the last straw, the rest of the stack being made up of delays in getting material and labor to finish the job mentioned.

Get your season tickets at Rose Bros., Elmore's Boot Shop, and the Citizens Bank, Only $1.75 for the season. American Legion Lyceum Course. 60-2

Home to be Remodeled

The H. T. Elmore home, Laurel and North Main streets, is to be remodeled, Frank Greaser having submitted satisfactory plans for the desired alterations. Whether the work will be done soon or not until next spring has not been decided.

Barnum of the Marivista orchard, near Phoenix.

Power to Develop Industries Largely In Hands of Women

By IDA B. CALLAHAN,
President, Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs

EIGHTY to ninety per cent of the household articles and clothing for the family is bought by the women of the state.

If the women of Oregon should decide to buy Oregon Products a tremendous industrial growth would surely result. Many people who are now idle would have jobs. The factories would be increased in size. Payrolls would be larger.

Women of Oregon, let us try the plan of asking for home products. This plan, if properly supported, would mean a more prosperous Oregon and many more happy homes "out where the handclasp's a little stronger."

Ask for Oregon brands!
