What Constitutes Advertising In order to allay a misunderstanding among some as to what constitutes news and what advertising, we print this very simple rule, which is used by newspapers to differentiate between them: "ALL future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection is taken IS ADVERTISING." (This applies to organizations and societies of every kind as well as to individuals.
 All reports of such activities after they have occurred is news.
 All coming social or organization meetings of societies where no money contribution is solicited, initiation charged, or collection taken IS NEWS.

Birthday Party Is Masquerade; MacCracken Home

Everett McGee and Gordon Mac-Cracken, Jr., entertained a score of their young friends at the latter's home Saturday evening. The affair was in the nature of a masquerade, Gordon appearing in his father's dress suit, and Everett as an old man leaning upon a cane. Two well-known sisters were dressed as a cowgirl and an old-fashioned miss. For once their friends had no trouble in telling them apart. Other characters taken were the Puritan maid, poppy girl, firefly, gypsy maid, Dutch girl, Miss Harlequin, Irish colleen, hobo, Happy Hooligan, cow puncher, clown, Yellow Kid, English butler, baby boy, high school freshman. A boy dressed as a flaxen-haired girl made the hit of the evening. Pumpkin pie, doughnuts and cider were served to the merrymakers. The guests were:
 Madge and Marie Mitchell, Mary Elmore, Katherine Phipps, Marie Davis, Velma Clapp, Juanita Rose, Dorothy Ninsinger, Lillian Phipps,

Gold Discovered On Farm Land Near Applegate

GOLD HILL, Or., Nov. 15.—W. F.
 Wright of Applegate, reports the uncovering of a valuable gold-producing quartz vein on his farm less than two miles south of Applegate.
 He has run a drift of 100 feet, cutting the vein at a depth of eighty feet. The vein has a width of four feet at this depth and pans well in free-milling ore. It occurs in a porphry schist contact, striking eastward and dips about thirty degrees north.
 Mr. Wright is at Gold Hill seeking a small capacity stamp mill for reducing the ore, pending further development and large equipment for the mine. He reports considerable activity in reopening old producing gold mines and development of new ones in the Applegate district which adjoins the Gold Hill district on the south.

To Test Bonus Law In Court November 22

SALEM, Or., Nov. 15.—The state supreme court has set November 22 as the date for hearing the case of Boyd against the state bonus and loan commission, which will test the validity of the state bonus and loan act for ex-service men. The bonus commission has set the date of the sale of the initial issue of $10,000, 000 in bonds November 30, and a postponement of the date will be necessary if the decision is not announced before that date.
 As soon as the court's opinion is received, if it holds the act valid, the commission will be ready at once to pass on a large number of applications. These will have been examined during the time pending the court's opinion and can be acted on without delay.
 It is understood that about 2000 applications for cash bonus will first be acted upon and an equal number of loan applications also will be ready.

"And Man, How I Did Eat Real Food!"

Looking back, now, to those vacation days, there's a lively kindling of joy—even in the memory of appetite at camp-fire meals.

Real food—and real hunger!

That's the year-around relationship between appetite and Grape-Nuts—that crisp and wholesome gift from the great out-of-doors—the perfected goodness of Nature's best food grains.

There's a flavor and charm to Grape-Nuts that appeal to the appetite like the tang of the summer camp, and there's a scientific balance of nutrition and a readiness of digestion that make Grape-Nuts a wonderful aid to health and vigor.

"Real food!" is the verdict of enthusiastic thousands who find a daily delight in the unique sweetness and crispness of Grape-Nuts, and who "carry on" splendidly with its body-building nourishment.

Let the zest of appetite be a companion of your indoor meals, too.

Grape-Nuts is sold and served wherever good food is sold and served.

AN ASHLAND INTERVIEW

Mrs. McDonald Tells Her Experience.
 The following brief account of an interview with an Ashland woman four years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.
 Mrs. S. C. McDonald, 685 B St., Ashland, says: "I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.
 I know from personal experience that they cannot be equalled for kidney trouble. I have taken them on several occasions for a lameness through my kidneys and it only required a few to relieve me of the misery. Doan's have also proved to be a splendid remedy for another member of my family who had considerable trouble with his kidneys." (Statement given March 15, 1916).
 On March 19, 1920, Mrs. Mc-Donald said: "I know there is nothing better for kidney complaint than Doan's Kidney Pills.
 I seldom have any sign of kidney trouble and give Doan's the credit."
