

THANKSGIVING

The three hundredth anniversary of the Pilgrim's first Thanksgiving gives a peculiar interest to this year's recognition of Thanksgiving Day. The people who established Thanksgiving Day had little bounty and many dangers. How much more have we to be grateful for! America today has greater security and greater bounty than at any time before. That all of us may partake of the season's good things, merchants now make their most attractive offerings. Profit by these announcements, so you too may have good cause for Thanksgiving.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Birthday Party—
Raymond Dougherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dougherty, 71 Pine street, celebrated his third birthday anniversary at a party given at his home Tuesday of this week. They had a good time playing games, after which they had refreshments including the usual birthday cake with its three candles. The favors were tiny baskets of candy hearts. The little host was the recipient of many nice gifts. Those present were Lo's Fahs, Jack Fahs, Norma Peterson, Wilda Peterson, Margaret Short, Sam Hanson, Paul Good, Virgil Smith, Albert Meyer, Malcolm Meyer, Yale Meyer, Raymond Dougherty, Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Fahs, and Mrs. Dougherty.

Montana Tourists—
Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Tobie, of Klappan, Montana, passed through Ashland yesterday morning enroute to California, where they expect to spend the winter. The Montanians are friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. French and O. H. Barnhill, whom they used to know in the Flathead country. Mr. Tobie has for more than a score of years been cashier of the Conrad National bank, one of the leading financial institutions of Montana, while Mrs. Tobie is a well-known artist and writer. Her brother-in-law is Fred Whiteside, the man whose testimony secured the expulsion of W. A. Clark from the United States senate on the charge of bribery. Mr. and Mrs. Tobie were entertained Thursday evening at the farm home of Walter Frazier Brown, a Jackson county rancher and former Montana journalist, who lives between Phoenix and Jacksonville.

THANKSGIVING TURKEY

The most important part of the Thanksgiving Feast is the Turkey, of course. But it is equally important to know that your fowl is good and healthy, so the family may have no after-effects from the "big feed."

A big quantity of freshly-killed Turkeys has just arrived. The prudent housewife will lose no time in choosing one of these fine birds. Prices are lower here than elsewhere.

WILLAMETTE FLAX GROWERS ORGANIZE

SALEM, Or., Nov. 19.—The Willamette Valley Flax and Hemp Growers' association was organized at a meeting of about fifty farmers at the Salem Commercial club. It is planned to have members sign five-year agreements to deliver their crops to the association.

L. G. Hayford, president of the Marion County Realty association, was made temporary chairman and A. C. Bohrnstedt was named temporary secretary. Either the state flax plant or the plant located at Turner may be purchased by the association.

D. A. R. DONATE SUM FOR ROAD MARKER NEAR PHOENIX

By MRS. H. O. ANDERSON

The regular meeting of Mount Ashland chapter, D. A. R., took place at the home of Mrs. Fred Wilson yesterday.

Mrs. Peil's report as chairman of the road marker fund, showed a comfortable balance in the bank after Mount Ashland chapter had paid its half for the marker near Phoenix.

Mrs. Peil's paper on "The Tribes of Oregon Indians," was omitted, as her time had been too much occupied by the Red Cross drive to permit of its preparation. Miss Chamberlain gave a most interesting paper on "Oregon Poems"—giving
