

Irvin V. Willat has just completed "Fifty Candles," a picturization of Earl Derr Bigger's novel, for Hodkinson. You can't make light of that!

Paul Scardon-husband of the radi-antly beautiful Betty Blythe, who scored so triumphantly in Fox's "Queen of Sheba"-has been engaged to direct for Universal.

There's a rumor-but it's only a rumor so far-that after a prolonged rest "Doug" and Mary are going to make a picture together. Wow! Come early and avoid the rush!

Benj. B. Hampton has completed "The Mysterious Rider" for Hodkinson. When questioned, the gentleman refused to divulge his identity. Mebbe he's related to one of "The Four Horsemen."

"Exit The Vamp," a Paramount Picture starring Ethel Clayton, was completed just a little while after Theda Bara had announced ber retire-ment from the screen. Which means

Norman Kerry, one of the most popular leading men of the present day, is at work in London upon "Three Live Ghosts," under the direction of George Fitzmaurice. His brother spooks haven't been announced yet,

The title of Anita Stewart's new cicture has been changed from "The Prices of Happiness" to "Her Mad Bargain." Don't women always go mad when a bargain is involved?

Ward Lascelle's version of "Ta Van Winkle," a forthcoming Hodkinson picture which boasts Thomas Jefferson in the leading role, will have its world premiere in Philadelphia. Can any little boy or any little girl tell me why that particular city was

Louis D. Mayer has secured the film ights to Hulbert Footner's "Fur It will be made by John M. Stahl. Which reminds me of the youngster who when questioned by the teacher as to what animal supplied his mother with furs, answered

R. W.

MAJ. THOMAS L. CLEAR

surer of the United States shipboard Emergency Fleet corpora-Major Clear has been connectwith the regular army less than a r, but he served with the expediary forces in several countries in ope during the war as an inspecgeneral in connection with army nces. He was one of General thals' assistants at Panama

THANKSGIVING

Tomorrow Ashland will celebrate. ing day stands out as typically Amer- Ashland, enjoying the prosperity The epicurean tastes of Young ican, harking back to 1621 when the of a year that has sent the city for-America and the "grown ups" will 'Pilgrim pioneers of a great country ward in advancement in accomplishrun riot at tables laden with the offered their prayers of thanksgiving for a year of plenty. With the ments, has every reason to be thank-Thanksgiving day feast, from turkey passing of years Thanksgiving day ful for the benefits of the past and to cranberry sauce and all acces- has taken on added significance to the already grasped hopes of a greatsories, planned weeks in advance by the people of a nation that has er and bigger Ashland for the comhousewives as the event of the year fought its way through the trials of ing year. In their private homes and when their culinary ability is an early beginning to the place of in the churches, Ashland people will brought to the light of appreciation. leadership now granted with the pause in the pursuit of worldly gain Of all the festivities and holidays evolution of a world disarmament that they may the better review the celebrated in the world Thanksgiv- conference at Washington.

nearing and of a brimful year.

When following another car closely on crowded roads be ready to turn out to one side or the other when using lected $148,720,800 from automobile owners last year, through the manufacturer's tax.

Charles J. Swain claims to have wned the first automobile in Philadelphin, in 1898, and since that time he has owned 24 different cars.

The Royal Danish Automobile clul in Copenhagen, was founded in 1901 Prince Axel is president of the club which has a membership of 1.000.

Motor buses are used by 12,000 schools in the United States. The vehicles are operated in 16 states, and transport more than 200,000 pupils.

AUTOMOBILE Teachers Recommend Books As Christmas The United States government col-cted $148,720,800 from automobile Gifts For Children books make the best possible Christ- cause of its rarity. building character in the right di- ture instead of constant stimulation rection. The prospective buyer is from the screen. perplexed with an embarrassment of. The following list will be helpful riches, for there is such a vast num- in selecting good books for chilber of good books to choose from dren's reading. To further aid the that it is sometimes difficult to de- mother, the age of the child for cide just which ones to purchase. which each book is intended, is Librarians and others who have given: made a special study of the subject recommend large lists of first-class (12 years). children's gift books, which renders, "Story of a Bad Boy," T. B. Alit easy to make Christmas purchases. drich (10).

Ashland dealers carry large stocks of the best gift books obtainable, and will gladly order any desired volumes which they may not have edited by Kate Douglas Wiggin (11) in stock. One of the largest bookstores in the world is located at (12). Portland, making it possible to fill orders for this line of goods within a very few days. In order to avoid possible disappointment, however, ages) book buyers should make purchases or select books to be ordered, at an Carro! (9).

The growing habit of parents of Twain (12). allowing their children to attend moving picture shows is to be ques- Craik (7-9). tioned. Granted, even, that the, "Robinson Crusoe," Daniel Defoe plays are strictly censored and thor-i (all ages). oughly moral, there yet remains the "Hans Brinker," M. M. Dodge fact that this form of recreation is (10-11). passive and not a substitute for the "Lance of Kanana," H. W. French reading habit. The plots are hurried (14) and full of thrills, and the child's : Fairy Tales, J. L. K. and W. K. mind becomes so accustomed to Grimm (7-11). "plenty of action" that it will never Wonder Book and Tanglewood form a liking for "quiet and leisure- Tales, Nathaniel Hawthorne (8-11). ly" mental pleasure. The plays, "Water Babies," Charles Kingswritten for mature minds, are at- ley (9-10). tended by the child, who is soon un- Jungle Book, Rudyard Kipling becomingly sophisticated. The con- (8). scientious mother will watch the "Boys' King Arthur," Sidney Lanplays carefully, and when one ap-lier (12). pears that is well recommended for "Pinocchio," Carlo Lorenzini (7children, she will take her boy as a special treat, or as a lark, pure and

Parents and educators agree that simple, to be enjoyed the more be-mas gifts for children, provided the. The moving picture cannot be a volumes are interesting and instruc- books. The child's imagination substitute for the reading of good tive, well illustrated and filled with should reach out into a field of actreading matter which will assist in ivity stimulated by the word pic-

"Little Women," by L. M. Alcott

"Fairy Tales," H. C. Anderson

Arabian Nights Entertainments, "Story of Roland," James Baldwin

"In the Days of Giants," A.

"Alice in Wonderland," Lewis "Prince and the Pauper," Mark

"Little Lame Prince," D. M. M.

(Continued on Page Six)

MICKIE SAYS

ARE YOU GUILTY OF BORROWIN' YER NEIGHBOR'S COPY O' THIS GREAT FAMILY JOURNAL, WHEN A FEW RED PENNIES WILL DELIVER IT INTO YER BOX REGLAR? HONUSY, I DIDNY THINK YOU

One for aroma. TURKISH The finest tobaccos perfectly aged and blended

A III FIFTH AVE.

Goodrich and Fisk Tires Reduced in Price

GOOD CLEAN STOCK, ALL FRESH THIS SEASON

20 per cent off on Cords 10 per cent off on Fabrics

Come in and Get that New Tire Now Overland Marcy Co.

Corner Main and Third

Exchange Department

If you have furniture that doesn't suit-want something more up to date and better-phone us and we'll send a competent man tosee it and arrange to take it as part payment on the kind you want-the quality kind. We'll make you a liberal allowance for your goods and we'll sell you new furniture at low prices. The new furniture will be promptly deliv-

Swenson, McRae Company

Consult Usy

about the things you want to try in the lineof investments. If we don't know about them already, we'll investigate their reliability and protect your purse.

The Citizens Bank

Ashland, Oregon

AN OREGON PAYROLL

The people of OREGON can increase the STATE PAY ROLL by patronizing a comparatively new OREGON INDUSTRY.

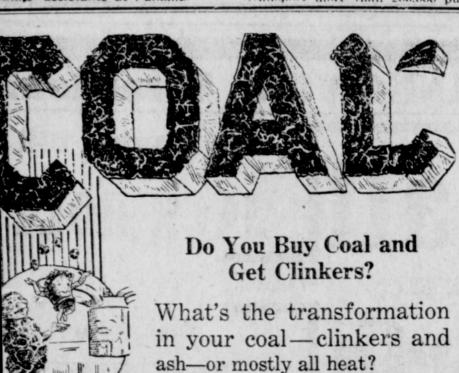

The BEAVER HILL COAL COMPANY has spent over HALF A MILLION DOLLARS in developing a COAL MINE and equipping a CLEANING PLANT to clean the coal, and is now prepared to serve the people of Western Oregon with a GOOD, CLEAN, SOOTLSS COAL, at LESS COST PER HEAT UNIT than any foreign coal or wood.

Lump Coal, per ton delivered. $15.00 Per half ton, delivered$ 8.00

USE AN OREGON PRODUCT AND HELP BUILD AN OREGON PAY ROLL

Ashland Lumber Co.

Phone 20

Heat is what you expect when you order coal, but unless you say SUPERIOR Coal to your > Dealer, you can't be sure until your money has gone up in smoke. Superior coal burns freely with a long flame, makes little soot, only a small degree of ash, and emits great heat. Nor does it cost more, for Superior Domestic Lump is the economical range in size for furnace, heater, cooker and fire-

Sold by

IRSON-FOWLER

LUMBER CO.

