That more than a passing interest in the Oregon Caves highway is being shown by the state highway commission is evidenced in a letter just received by Judge Eclus Pollock of the Oregon state highway commission: "We have changed our records to show that we are to aid in any co-operation that may be needed in maintenance of the road between Grants Pass and Waldo," writes Mr. Booth, "and we are discussing the possibility of extending the work from the Caves road to the Holland turn-off on a 50-50 basis with the forestry people, leaving the $10,000, which you are to contribute, to some other section of the road, that may be decided upon later."—Grants Pass Courier.

Local Firm Is Retiring From Business Today

Today was the last day of regular business for Ferguson's Bargain Store. Wednesday and Thursday the store will be closed and final preparations made for the great closing-out sale that promises to interest every man, woman and child within a radius of fifty miles. The fixtures are for sale, and the store room is already leased for a term of years, to be occupied as soon as this stock is sold out. The retiring of this popular firm from the local field brings to a close eleven years of successful merchandising in Ashland for Mr. Ferguson, who, all will remember, started in a very small way in one room of the building now occupied by the Daily Tidings. This only served the purpose for a short time when the other adjoining room was necessary. Their ever-increasing business made it necessary for them to again seek more commodious quarters, and about four years ago they removed to their present quarters. Mr. Ferguson says he has no intention of leaving Ashland. He says he would just as soon live here as anywhere on earth, and will have sufficient interests to keep him engaged. 75-1

Traffic Regulations—

J. McMahon. The latter has received many complaints from autoists concerning horse vehicles driven at night without displaying lights, and will from now on make arrests of all such violators.

DEAR FOLKS:—

I am going to help Santa Claus this year, for he has so much to do with all his toys and dainty finery, that he thought best to turn over the practical gift things to me.

Gloves and hose, waists and petticoats, furs and furbelows—so many of those things he even cannot call by name—he said he did wish I would leave all such things at McGee's store this year. That seems to be a pretty good place.

Yours truly,
