Irene, Back Home, Gets a Letter From Mickie

Washington, D.C.
August 23, 1921

Dear Irene—
This here town is full of famous folks, beside me, with is why the Boss don't like it, on acct. of him not being prominent here like he is to Hoam. But as for that, I aint met a soul yet who ever heard of our Congressman! Aint that Rutch!?
Har. Har!

④ Jest between you and me, Irene, this town has got Struckten beat a little bit, but I wont never Admitt it, becuz I allus stick up for my Ole Hoam Town! That's the kind of a Guy I Am! Hoping you are the same, with Love,
Mickie
P. S. Dont go lettin that Lemmie Clark go hangin around you! I'm coming Back Some Day!

PUEBLO, Colo., Dec. 3.—The first practical step in an effort to minimize the danger from further disastrous floods, similar to the one that engulfed this city early in June of this year, was taken here when an agreement was reached between the Missouri Pacific railroad and Pueblo city and county officials whereby the railroad company will turn over to the city a strip of land in its local yards which will be utilized in widening the channel of the Arkansas river.

The land extends from a point on the south bank of the Arkansas river to the eastern limits of the railroad yards. Engineering experts are planning, with the acquisition of this land, to cut a channel at the egress of the Arkansas river from the city that will be seventy feet wider than it was before the June floods, and about 100 feet wider than the channel of the river as it passes through the central section of Pueblo.

If you have furniture that doesn't suit—want something more up to date and better—phone us and we'll send a competent man to see it and arrange to take it as part payment on the kind you want—the quality kind. We'll make you a liberal allowance for your goods and we'll sell you new furniture at low prices. The new furniture will be promptly delivered.

Swenson, McRae Company

Below the new channel present obstructions will be removed, and dredging will start at once that will put the river's course near natural bluffs on its north bank. The Missouri Pacific railroad already has constructed a heavy "slag" embankment to protect its tracks along the south bank of the river, and a levee sufficiently strong to protect against raging torrents will be built.

Work of reconstruction throughout the city has progressed rapidly since the devastation of last summer.

Reclaimed Lands Impress—
J. W. Dressler, Medford's big real estate dealer, returned yesterday from Klamath Falls, where he went with E. T. Staples to investigate the reclaimed swamp lands being sold by L. Jacobs through Jackson county land agents. To say that the Medford man was favorably impressed would be putting it mildly. He was amazed at the richness of the soil, the ease with which it could be worked and the unlimited supply of practically free water, as well as the nearness to the railroad, a combination of advantages which make the present price of $120 an acre look small indeed. Mr. Dressler is considered one of the best judges of agricultural lands in Southern Oregon, and his judgment will go a long way with his Medford clients. He was assured by J. W. Siemens, president of the First State and Savings bank of Klamath Falls, that lands on the Jacobs tract would likely advance in price to $500 per acre, judging by values elsewhere. Mr. Siemens is a long-time resident of Klamath county and one of the most successful. When his bank was closed as a result of malicious rumors, it opened again within sixty days, with an army of depositors clamoring to leave their money with Mr. Siemens, showing their confidence in him.

Who Carries Your Insurance?

What do you know about the company you are insured in? An association of credit men said, "Our committee will bear strongly on the necessity of dealing only with strictly responsible insurance companies."

Fair weather insurance may pass muster in times of prosperity when the markets are booming. The testing time comes when the markets are declining and there is stress and storm. Property owners should apply the acid test to the indemnity they buy. Insurance that insures at all times is the only safe indemnity. That's the only kind that we would keep in this office. You can't afford to lose even once in the matter of insuring your property and yourself.
