

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MASONIC CALENDAR THIS WEEK

Eastern Star meets Tuesday evening. Initiations. Malta commandery, Wednesday evening. Ashland lodge No. 23, Thursday evening. Lunch at 6:30 followed by program. All of the foregoing orders elect officers for 1922.

Going to Hildebrand—

Fred Beck, who has been visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Powell, at their home on A street, left this morning for Hildebrand, Klamath county, to visit his son. Mr. Beck is a former farmer who has had very interesting experience the past few years, working on the highway and in the navy yard at Vallejo, visiting the Yosemite, National park and San Francisco—which he had not seen for thirty-five years—seeing his children at Salem and Ashland, after living for a half life time on a frontier farm. Mr. Beck has two brothers in Stuttgart, Germany, who write that conditions are very hard in the old country, where the government takes out ten per cent of even laborer's wages.

Genuine Mexican chicken tamales, 20 cents. Engers Confectionery, 62ft

Jeweler Ill—

O. H. Johnson, proprietor of a local jeweler shop, is ill at his home 185 North Main street. Mr. Johnson was suffering from a bad cold yesterday and is today confined to his bed.

For pleading, see Orres. 69ft

Special Election Dec. 14—

A special election for the voting of bonds to improve the county fair ground at Medford, will be held December 14. Numerous telephone inquiries were received at the Tidings office this morning.

Returns from Canada—

W. R. McGee returned last evening from British Columbia, where he has been visiting the McGee colony from Ashland, which consists of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McGee—formerly Miss Lottie Crews—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haines and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hoover. The two ladies last named were formerly the Misses Myrtle and Minnie Bell McGee, sisters of Allen McGee and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McGee, of Ashland. They all live on adjoining farms in the Thompson river valley, twenty-four miles from Kamloops and one hundred miles from Vancouver. Their post office is Black Pines, B. C., and they are all prospering, reports Mr. McGee.

With modern apparatus we can make your portrait at night as well as in day time. Evening by appointment. Darling Studio. 71-1mo

Buy Union Street Home—

L. A. Brush has purchased the residence at 59 Union street from W. F. DeWitt. He expects to move there immediately. The deal was handled by E. E. Phipps.

Former Ashlander Speaks—

Dr. T. H. Boyd, of San Francisco, lectured last evening at the Temple of Truth. Dr. Boyd is rector of an Episcopal church in San Francisco, but devotes much time to lecturing for the National New Thought alliance. Thirty-five years ago he lived in this city and worked in the Ashland flour mill, afterwards marrying a daughter of Mrs. A. H. Russell. The Ashland New Thought association expects to have monthly lectures similar to the one delivered here last evening. They hold regular Sunday evening meetings, which consist of singing and the study of some text book. They are led by Mrs. E. A. Rowland and have just finished studying "The Power of Thought." The building is rented during the day for school purposes, the second and third grades of the Hawthorne school being taught here. Because spiritualist meetings were at one time held in the Temple of Truth, many people think that the present meetings are somewhat spiritualistic in nature, which is not true.

ATTENTION, FISHERMEN

Important meeting of everyone who has or has not fished, to be there Wednesday evening, city hall, 7:30 o'clock. Tourist hotel project coming up later. This fish meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock is important and belongs to our project. We must furnish sport for our tourists. Come lend us your support.

67 YEAR YOUNG HIKER STOPS HERE ON LONG TRAMP

Men may come and men may go but somewhere in the soul of James Alby Hill, of Berkeley, Calif., sixty-seven year old seeker of health, is the eternal fire of youth and the wanderlust call of the dusty, open road. Aided by a travel worn crutch carrying a small suitcase and wearing a genial smile, the white-haired patriarch of the highways slowly but cheerfully hobbled his way to the Plaza late yesterday afternoon and pronounced it good after the all-day hike from Medford. He spent the night at a local rooming house and left this morning for California on a trip that will take him as far south as San Diego before making his way east by Arizona as the preliminary to a 4000 mile foot journey to Eastport, Maine.

Under doctor's orders, Mr. Hill, who suffers from rheumatism, left San Francisco from the ocean surf near the Golden Gate July 26. He is insistent with his explanations that his unique hike is for health only, asserting that he pays his way independently and is neither peddling or alms begging. Since the start of his trip he has visited the governors and state executives of Nevada, Oregon and Washington, obtaining their autographs in a name-scribed book filled with newspaper clippings and photographs. Among the signatures listed are Governors Louis F. Hart, Wash., E. D. Boyle, Nev., Ben W. O'cott, Or., and W. D. Stephens, Calif. The book contains signatures of prominent men, college presidents, and city officials in various parts of the northwest.

True to his creed of youth, the aged hiker has a hobby. He has letters from the mayors of various cities to the executives of eastern cities bearing a like name. "When I get through," smiled Mr. Hill, "East will meet West, and, I hope, never the twain shall part." He bears a letter from two year old Leeds Sullivan to the latter's uncle, Kenneth C. Beaton, known nationally to newspaper readers as K. C. B. After leaving Arizona, Mr. Hill will make his way up and down the central states, visit his old home at Gallon, O., and winter a year from now in Florida. In the summer he will hike to Maine, his objective. He estimates that the trip will take two years. Whether or not he will return to California by train is as yet problematical, he said.

Limit Truck Loads—

At a recent meeting of the county court an order was issued limiting the loads of vehicles passing over all dirt and macadam roads to two-ton loads. Over the Pacific highway, which is paved, the loads were limited to five tons. Between Ashland and Gold Hill and on all other paved roads the loads were limited to three tons. The order is made to protect the roads during the winter months and will be changed as soon as it is safe for heavier loads to pass over the roads without much damage.

RESULTS TELL

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Ashland

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of an Ashland citizen can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? W. Hardy, retired, 586 East Main street, Ashland, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and wouldn't be without them. I had attacks of kidney complaint and lumbago and suffered with dull backaches and pains through my kidneys. Mr. Doan's weren't acting right when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon relieved these ailments and eased the aches and pains. I heartily endorse Doan's for they are a remedy of merit." Price 60 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hardy had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

RECEIVING A COLLEGE DEGREE

Thinks He Has Found Here the Fountain of Eternal Youth—Four Million Americans Have Seen Him.

MARSHAL FOCH, the Allied

Generalissimo now touring the South and West as the guest of the American Legion, is on the second leg of a triumphal trip through the greatest series of ovations ever tendered a visiting foreigner. When he arrived here he was seventy years old, his face seemed with the strain of four and a half years of the bitterest warfare. During his travels he has dropped the burden of years so that now he is traveling with the buoyancy of a man of forty. "Do you find American hospitality more arduous than the German offensive?" he was asked just before starting his new itinerary by Alton T. Roberts, who as chairman of the Legion's Reception Committee, has the added duty of safeguarding the marshal's health. "It is so exhilarating to find such a wholesomeness of spirit," he answered, "that I believe I have found here the fountain of youth. One has no time to grow old in your young country."

"Will this tour fatigue you too severely?" solicitiously asked Franklin D'Olier, Past Commander of the American Legion, who is in the touring party. "After the strain of the war there can never again be any such thing as fatigue for me," he replied.

Hanford MacNider, the Commander of the American Legion, who has a statistical mind, has made a summary of the outstanding features of the whole tour. Before the Marshal returns to France he will have covered an approximate mileage of 17,000 miles, which with the travel to and from Paris will bring the total to 25,000 miles—equal to the earth's circumference. His auto tours will comprise about 5,000 more miles. He will have participated in 150 banquets and have been a guest at 1,200 public meetings. Four millions of the American people will have seen him face to face and he will have shaken the hands of at least 50,000 of these. His right and left hands now are stiff and sore from these cordial contacts. Furthermore, he will have bestowed his kiss upon 2,000 children—for the Marshal never overlooks the opportunity to greet the little ones.

Up to the time he began his new swing he had received fourteen degrees from various colleges and universities so that before he returns he will carry with him the honors of at least thirty educational institutions.

More than 2,000 gifts have been presented to him. These range from the wildest presented by the Montana members of the American Legion to the gold sword presented to him by the City of Philadelphia.

MOTORCYCLE TAXIS FOR NEW YORK

Before many moons, unless all signs fail, New York will be indulging in a new form of taxi riding. In Paris, Rome, and several other cities of Europe, Americans, the past summer, have enjoyed the novelty of the motorcycle taxis, which are becoming common over there.

The side cars in which the passengers ride are filled up with all the comforts of the most luxurious motor cars. There is a new thrill to be had in riding in one of these taxis. Besides the fare is much lower than in the motor car affairs.

Lady Macabees Attention—

The election of officers will be held Wednesday evening, December 7. A full attendance is requested. 80-1 indications Are That Sport Clothes Will Copy Navajo Tribe and the Scandinavians.

INDIAN DESIGNS ARE LATEST

If the sweaters which have been seen are an indication of what the coming season fashions are to be, the feminine world of sport clothes lovers will resemble the Navajo tribe and Scandinavian sportsmen. Light backgrounds with Norwegian and Swedish designs in all the primary colors and darker backgrounds with Navajo patterns are the latest things in sweaters. As to colors, the fuchsia shades are in the lead, but every color the rainbow has ever displayed or suggested vies in popularity.

Mending the Blouse.

Sometimes, when a favorite suit blouse goes to pieces under the arms, a new piece of material may be hemstitched to the worn place most satisfactorily.
