Let fate do her worst; there are moments of joy,
 Bright dreams of the past, which she cannot destroy;
 Which come in the night-time of sorrow and care,
 And bring back the features that joy used to wear.

"Hick" Party—One of the most laughable and amusing social affairs of the season enjoyed by the younger set was the "hick" party last night at Memorial hall. The guests—who were mostly high school students—were dressed in the most ludicrous costumes imaginable—country jakes, little lassies in pink rompers, Bowery toughs, aproned hired girls, and others difficult to describe. While the orchestra jazzed "Turkey in the Straw," the merry-makers danced a german and other terpsichorean novelties, having oodles and koodles of frolicsome fun.

The legion posts will be excused from such taxation after January 1.

A WORTH-WHILE GIFT

It's hard to choose a gift for a child that will please him, and yet be of some practical worth.

But when you present a boy with a First National Savings pass-book, you give him something he'll be proud of, and that will grow more valuable with the passing of years.

Why not then a "Nationalized" account for that son, or nephew, or cousin?
