TWENTY-FIVE EXTRA MAIL CLERKS BETWEEN ASHLAND AND PORTLAND—HOLIDAYS

The railway mail service will put on its Christmas holiday extra crews beginning December 16. There will be twenty-five extra railway mail clerks on the Portland and Ashland division, and in addition the regular crews will make extra trips.

The Ashland-Gerber division railway mail clerks with their residence in Ashland have also received their orders governing the situation, beginning December 16.

WOOL GROWERS AIMS BLOW AT SHODDY DECEIT

ful interests that directly or indirectly profit by shoddy's counterfeiting virgin wool, are urging upon congress the same old excuses, alleged to be reasonable, for not enacting the "truth in fabric" bill that were urged against the pure food laws by the interests that profited by the sale of substitute food and drugs as the genuine.

The president, in this petition, is earnestly requested to exercise every proper influence within his province to accomplish the swift enactment of the Capper-French "truth in fabric" bill.
