For Chautauqua $627—

C. B. Lamkin says he has been too busy the past two weeks attending to Chautauqua business and other important affairs to sell real estate. As a member of the retiring Chautauqua board of directors, Mr. Lamkin says he did not like to turn over a deficit to the new board, and therefore has, with the help of his associates, raised $627 to apply on the debt.

Woodshed Seneca for Speeders—

Samuel L. Leonard and son Harold, while on their way by auto from a several weeks visit with Guy Leonard at Fresno, Calif., yesterday afternoon were sailing through Ashland at thirty-two miles an hour, with Harold at the wheel, when State Officer Sandifer placed under arrest the son, who was fined $15 in Justice Taylor's court today for speeding. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Leonard are much grieved, and Guy, Paul, Sam, Morris, George, Ted and Leon Leonard also keenly feel his disgrace—over parting with $15 without adequate return. Sam Sr., and Harold, who is better known as Pat, had a warm interview in the wood shed last evening.—Medford Mail Tribune.

With modern apparatus we can make your portrait at night as well as in the daytime. Make your appointment today. Phone No. 8.—Darling Studio. Portraits that please. 83tf

Government Job Ruling—

Twenty-five thousand ex-service men and women are affected by the recent ruling of Attorney General Daugherty that former service men and women will not be thrown out of their government jobs as long as they are rated "good" by the bureau of efficiency. This information has been received by department headquarters of the American Legion, in Portland.

An agency for the Liberty car has been established at Medford, and anyone interested in them may see them at the Riverside Garage. P. F. Close is agent. 132 S. Riverside. 88tf

Orchard Increases Crop—

The Riverside orchard this season made a small increase over their output of last year in spite of the fact that owing to weather conditions the worms were more abundant. Their total crop from the one orchard is eleven cars of which about one-fourth were Spitz and the balance were Ben Davy's and New Towns.—Gold Hill News.

Lets Lightning Do It—

Mrs. G. L. Bullen, whose cordial invitation, "Dew Drop Inn," has brought many curious visitors to her tasty drink and lull parlor on the Plaza, has a system of electrical cooking which should interest housewives. There is an electrical range, pressure cooker, waffle iron, toaster and many other appliances electrically operated. Even the water is heated with lightning quickness by electricity. To a man up a Christmas tree it looks like cooking made easy.

Flying Beavers—

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Beaver and two children came down from Portland last week for a few days visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beaver, 916 Iowa street. The trip was made in a Standard Eight car, which left Portland at 4 o'clock one afternoon and arrived here at the same time the following day. The night was spent at Eugene and one hour lost fixing a tire. Mr. Beaver is sales manager for the Portland Standard Eight garage, which sold 122 cars in a single month.

Lyceum Number Pleases—

The entertainment at the Baptist church last evening was greatly enjoyed by a good-sized audience, which pronounced it one of the best things of the kind which ever came to Ashland. Madame Ringsdorf as a singer and reader was splendid, and so was the pianist, Miss Van Hoose, and the little violinist, Helen Hunt. The ladies performed under difficulties, the trunk containing their wardrobe having failed to arrive in time for use here. The next number in the lyceum course, which is being put on by the American Legion, will be a "chalk and sand" entertainment at the Methodist Episcopal church December 30. This show is very highly recommended.

New Business District—

Seven new stores on Second street just off East Main, constitutes a new business district which has a very advantageous location, being close to a bank and theater, and lighted at night by the powerful electric lights of the Union Oil station. The Beaver Realty company is to occupy room 2 of the Beaver block, which will be vacated by "Jerry the plumber" as soon as room 1 of the Beaver annex is ready for his stock of plumbing fixtures, which will probably be within a few days. J. L. Farrell's Home restaurant will do business in room 2; L. H. Jack's "Fixit shop" will be in room 3; P. J. Amer's stock of candy, sporting goods and miscellaneous merchandise in room 4. The building just below is occupied by William Depu's lunch counter and shoe shining parlor. Room 1 of the Beaver block is now occupied by Leslie Price's candy factory.
