She Kills Chickens

Miss J. Spears, the enterprising Medford girl, who is taking magazine subscriptions in Ashland to pay her way through college, had a nasty job on her hands when she tackled Ben Howe, the busy butcher, who excused himself on the ground that he had some chickens to kill. "I'll kill 'em," volunteered the fair agent, "if you'll give me a subscription." The offer seemed fair, so Howe agreed, whereupon the Medford miss calmly proceeded to chop the heads off a dozen chickens. Her nerve made such a favorable impression that she secured several subscriptions on the spot from interested onlookers.

Don't fail to attend the Hawthorn school entertainment at the high school gymnasium tonight. It is an unusually good one. Candy and fancy work sale starts at 7 o'clock, curtain at 7:45 p. m.

Chinese Shoe Arrives

A tiny, pointed red Chinese shoe, not over three inches long, has been received by Mrs. G. F. Billings from Miss Lura Hefty, formerly of Drain, but now of China, where for a dozen years she has labored as a missionary for the Methodist Episcopal church. In an accompanying letter, Miss Hefty states that the shoe was worn by a grown woman. Wah Chung's small son, who was born of Chinese parents and has lived all his life in Ashland, was greatly interested in the tiny footwear, which was exhibited at the Billings agency.

The local plant was closed down the first of the week and the product delivered by the farmers will be shipped to the Salem creamery.

FRANCE WAIVES DEMAND FOR NAVY

The five big powers of the Washington disarmament conference failed to settle the question of the French naval ratio at a lengthy secret session in the Pan-American building today. The matter was allowed to go over the week-end until another meeting Monday.

It was indicated at the close of the meeting that the session had been a tense one. M. Sarraut, head of the French delegation, is understood to have voiced a formal protest over the manner in which the news of the French demand for ten new battleships was made public.

NEW PROVISIONS REGULATE INCOME REPORTS FOR 1922

The income tax on corporations for the calendar year 1922, and thereafter is increased from 10 to 12 1/2 per cent. The $2000 exemption heretofore allowed corporations is to be granted only to those corporations whose net income is $25,000 or less.

"Many persons are under the impression that the taxes on ice cream, soft drinks, etc., monthly returns of which are required, have been repealed with the enactment of the new act. These remain in force until December 31, 1921.

"No change is made in the tax on admissions, except that after January 1, 1922, there will be no tax where admissions is 10 cents or less. Effective January 1, 1922, the following taxes are also abolished: on musical instruments, sporting goods, chewing gum, portable electric fans, thermos bottles, fur articles, pleasure boats and pleasure canoes (unless sold for more than $100), toilet articles, medicines and numerous articles of apparel.

"On and after January 1, 1922, the tax on various works of art is reduced from 10 per cent to 5 per cent, the tax on candy from 5 per cent to 3 per cent, and the tax on carpets, rugs, trunks, valises, purses, fans, etc., from 10 per cent of sales price in excess of specified amounts, to 5 per cent of sales price in excess of specified amounts."

Why not Enjoy a Christmas Without This?

For wives and mothers Christmas too often means hours of preparation—not only busy shopping excursions and hours devoted to "making things," but the more trying task of getting the house in shape for the holiday homecoming.

This year, let us give you more time for the vital, essential things by having us take the heavy drudgery off your hands?

There are so many things to be washed and cleaned—the family apparel, the table linen, and bed linen.

We'll gladly take care of all this for you, washing and ironing things just as you like them. And we'll do it promptly, at a cost that's trivial when you consider all the time and energy we save you.

Only a moment at the phone will bring our representative promptly, and your worries about having things clean will be over.
