The American advisory committee for famine relief.

The American committee in Peking has been approached for some time past by philanthropists from various provinces and of various political affiliations, with suggestions as to how best the money could be used.

The American committeemen have however, decided that none of this money should be expended for the relief of floods or famine that the Chinese could have avoided or are in a position to attend to with their own funds.

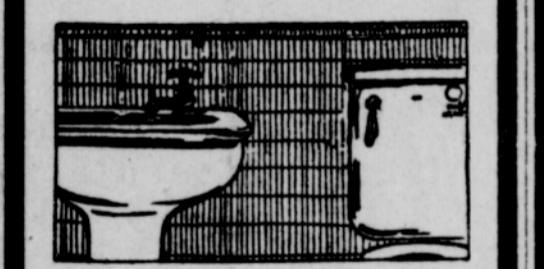

Junior High Notes

By FLORENCE WILSON Fire escapes have been built on the north and south ends of the school building. These will be a great advantage to the domestic science classes, as they can get from the building quicker.

The Parent-Teachers' association met at the Junior high school Thursday. The first, second and third grades furnished the program. The first grade and seven girls of the second grade sang a lullaby, and Ernest Evans gave a recitation. Mary Morris, of the third grade gave a recitation, and Sarah Lamasters sang.

The following boys play basketball, and are the ones from whom Mr. Wilson will pick the team: Albert Brown, Sam Prescott, Loren Culbertson, Louis Hoxie, Aldo Parr, Roy Parr, Clyde Beeson, Wayne Bloomfield, Frank Bloomfield, William Kannasto, Frank Bentley, Henry Homes, Frank Moore, and Fred Merritt.

This semester is school closes the

Modern Plumbing Means Sanitation and Health

Modern plumbing is the sworn enemy of dirt. Glistening white bathrooms and sanitary fixtures can be counted on to rout anything that is unsanitary.

PARENT-TEACHERS PROPOSE WADING POOL FOR CHILDREN

(Continued from Page 1) The construction of a wading pond for the small children. Another fund has been started with a $50 liberty bond as a first contribution, for the purchase of other apparatus.

The giver entered a protest against the use of the apparatus by adults, and stated that the greatest offenders were tourists, who made use of the apparatus after the playgrounds were closed for the night.

Grade School Graduations Twenty-five Junior high school pupils are expected to graduate from the eighth grade at the end of the present school semester, January 23.
