Good music by choir at the Sunday Presbyterian Notes The white Christmas was from many standpoints a success and the Sunday school unanimously voted that they were pleased with it.

The Christmas Cantata was repeated Sunday evening to a much greater audience than was present the previous Sunday morning, and was greatly enjoyed by all. A vote of appreciation was given by the congregation to the choir, to Mrs. Fuller, choirster, and Mrs. Parson, organist, for their painstaking effort.

The dedicatory services of the Sunday school annex were highly enjoyed by all. Rev. Van Nuy of Portland and Dr. Forbes of Seattle, both delivered appropriate and interesting addresses.

The New Year's dinner last Monday was a huge success, and the splendid cooks of the congregation outdid themselves. Toasts and speeches were in evidence and Mrs. Day recited a poem singing the praises of the "ladies aid."

The week of prayer was observed with services of song scripture, testimony, and message. We hope that these services will be the beginning of a deepening spiritual throughout the year.—Pastor.

The public is cordially invited to all these services. If not worshipping elsewhere, come and worship with us. W. JUDSON OLDFIELD, Minister.

"What's in a Name?" BY MILDRED MARSHALL Facts about your name, its history, meaning, whence it was derived, significance, your lucky day and lucky jewel.

HETTY. THE simple little name of Hetty, suggestive of pleasant homely domesticity, has a lofty significance. It is translated to mean "a star." Perhaps, after all, the steady bright insistence of the stars may have some psychic reference to the generally accepted conception of the Hettys of the world. Hetty is in reality the endearing diminutive given to the more dignified Hester, but so coldly austere is the latter name that Hetty has come to be bestowed in baptism with completed disregard for its proper predecessor. Hetty came into existence by a rather complicated evolution through several languages. The fair daughter of the tribe of Benjamin whose royalty insured her peoples' safety, was called Atossa. Her name in the Persian language—quite unpronounceable—was combined with the Latin word for star "stella" and from the union, came the modern estrella. In the Septuagint, the Romans make this word Hestera or Esthera. In England, the "a" was dropped and Hester and Esther were bestowed as feminine names. The latter became Estie when the inevitable diminutive was forthcoming, and Hester soon gave place to Hetty, though the original form was usually preserved on the church registers. It was for America to gayly discard the proper appellation and substitute Hetty for all occasions. Hetty's talismanic stone is the turquoise, which promises her steadfast friends, true love, and freedom from danger. If she sees the new moon reflected in the stone, she will have rare good luck. Saturday is her lucky day and five her lucky number. (Copyright.)

THE average height of a full-grown human being, regardless of race, is 65 inches. The term "giant" is sometimes technically limited to individuals above 79 inches.

YOUR HAND THE HAND OF A LAWYER. TO JUDGE whether a person is fitted for success in the profession of law, note whether the hand possesses the following characteristics: The second phalanx of the thumb (between the first or nail joint, and the rest of the hand) should be long, strong and well proportioned. This indicates good reasoning power, a logical mind, and strong intellect generally. Now, as the will power in a lawyer must be strong, if he or she is to attain any rank in the chosen profession, the first phalanx of the thumb must also be markedly strong and well developed. Next, proceed to an inspection of the Line of the Hand. Necessarily, this must be good. Eloquence must accompany the successful career in the law, and this is indicated by various signs, one of them being a decided line running between the second phalanx of the little finger and the third.
