Birthday Surprise Party

Miss Alice Craig celebrated a birthday Monday and received a handkerchief shower in the afternoon at the local telephone exchange where she is employed. In the evening, a number of the telephone girls surprised her by appearing at her apartment in the Allen building, prepared to spend a pleasant evening. It was really a double celebration, as Miss Norma Williams is to celebrate a birthday in a few days, and one of the two birthday cakes was in her honor. The evening was spent with cards and music, light refreshments being served and an enjoyable evening was reported. Those present were Mrs. Dora Hubbard, chaperone, and the Misses Alice Craig, Norma Williams, Lola Couey, Bertha Smith, Mildred Carlton and Gladys Inlow. Are you still paying the other fellow's bad accounts, or are you following the crowds to Detrick's Groceteria. 130tf

BIBLE LECTURES ARE NEARING COMPLETION

The perplexing and sadly neglected question of Christ's return was cleared of the many difficulties that would-be prophets have thrown around it, in Mrs. Champie's sermon at the Christian church last night. She presented it in a straightforward scriptural manner. Of the two hundred or more people who heard the sermon a large percentage expressed gratification for a new and satisfying revelation in regard to this subject on which there has been so much confusion.

Mrs. Weinberger rendered one of her excellent vocal selections, and Vera Champie and Elizabeth Wilmut played "The Palms," a piano duet.

Both of these numbers were much appreciated by the entire audience.

Tonight the subject of the sermon is, "The Church." What is the true church? Who was its founder? Who is it now?

The following parties are recent arrivals at the Columbia hotel: H. V. Smith, W. F. Emmett, J. H. Garvin, Portland; T. M. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins and children, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Newby, Salida, Colo.; H. A. Culp, Dunsmuir; V. G. Dollittle, C. E. Miller, G.
