As the Crow Flies

The Long Distance Telephone has become the inseparable ally of the successful business man. It is a time-saving, money-saving practice to use Long Distance in the daily business transactions which require speed, accuracy and definite results.

In the West the Long Distance lines must follow the contour of the country, the highways, the railroad lines, but regardless of the route followed you can talk direct to any point in our territory and our rates are based on air line distance—as the crow flies.

You can talk as easily across the state as you can across the city. Use the Long Distance Telephone in your business—you will be pleased with results obtained.
