On Sick List—

Vernon Pankey, employed at the Eastern Supply company, was compelled to quit work Tuesday morning and go home. He was reported as being quite ill in the late afternoon.

Enjoy that feeling of satisfaction derived from wearing Paulserud's suits. 171-tf

New Linoleum in Office—

J. P. Dodge and Sons have put down new linoleum on the floor of their office. The new covering is glued to the floor, which is something of an innovation, and gives it no chance to creep or wrinkle.

Furry, who is featured in the concert at the Armory Thursday night, is considered one of the most promising singers in the school of music at the university, and is a member of a number of important musical organizations. His work, as presented at the Portland concert, received considerable favorable press comment, and his technique was almost faultless. 174-4

Visiting College Friends—

William Bolton, of Antelope, Or., who attends the University of Oregon, came home with Dwight Gregg for the spring vacation and is visiting U. of O. students in Ashland.

Fresh Marshmallows—

 Dennis has a few of those SOL-HOT Brooders left. Absolutely automatic, will not overflow or go out. All you do is supply the oil and the brooder takes care of the chicks. Have yours reserved now. 173tf

On Business Visit—

E. Summers, of Medford, was a business visitor in Ashland Tuesday.

Returns from Klamath Falls—

Mrs. L. Jacobs has returned from Klamath Falls, where she was called by the illness of Mr. Jacobs. She reports that Mr. Jacobs has recovered from his illness and is attending to business again.

Spring woolens are in at the pre-war prices, at Orres' Tailor Shop.

Fined for Wrong Parking—

Two car owners have appeared in Justice Gowdy's court during the last few days and paid fines of $5 each for having parked their cars too near fire hydrants. The law provides that a car must not be parked nearer than 20 feet to any fire hydrant, and the local officials have found a great deal of disregard of this feature of the law lately. Violations will be checked up strictly hereafter in order to give all property proper fire protection.

Men's Glee Club, U. of O. at Armory Thursday Night

Vallentyne, Farris, Eben, Reid, Ellsworth, Poston Furry, Smith Cannon, Akers, Bryson, Kays, Newberry, Gavin, English, Moore Phillips, Johnson Evans (Director), Pate, Morrow, Dawson.

The twenty young men pictured above, from the University of Oregon will arrive in Ashland shortly after noon Thursday to present a concert at the Armory that night, under the auspices of the American Legion and working in co-operation with the high school. "Remember it's a men's club with a punch in every number" was the statement of Art Rudd, manager of the organization, who was in town Tuesday. Both the high school, and the Junior high are conducting ticket selling contests. Alumni of the University are assisting with plans for entertaining the men.

The program, which features Aubrey Furry of Phoenix, as bass soloist, is the same as was presented at the Helig theatre in Portland last month and which created such a favorable impression there. The Legion will entertain the men at a dance, following the program, to which the public will be invited.

Patrons and patronesses for the concert will be as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. A. Furry, Mr. and Mrs. A. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. John Finerman, Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. N. Smith, Mrs. E. B.
