What Constitutes Advertising
In order to allay a misunderstanding among some as to what constitutes news and what advertising, we print this very simple rule, which is used by newspapers to differentiate between them: "ALL future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection is taken IS ADVERTISING." This applies to organizations and societies of every kind as well as to individuals.
All reports of such activities after they have occurred is news.
All coming social or organization meetings of societies where no money contribution is solicited, initiation charged, or collection taken IS NEWS.

Entered at the Ashland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-class Mail Matter.

THE NEW EDITOR
It is no faltering or inexperienced hand with which the new editor has gripped the helm of the Tidings and undertaken to keep it clear of the rocks and reefs of animosity, petty jealousies and disgruntlement—ever lying hidden in the course of newspaper achievement.

That is the beginning and end of the policy of the Tidings, as it should be of every newspaper in the land. It is always a man-sized job, made particularly so in this instance, by the mental calibre of the present editor's predecessor, Mr. Bert Greer. To measure up to that standard of ability and journalistic achievement is no light task, but it is undertaken with a thorough comprehension of the responsibilities involved and a determination to "play the game square," having in view a single purpose—the advancement of Ashland.

IN WHICH CLASS
There are three kinds of public thinkers in America. They are:

(a) Those who know the facts and can soundly reason them out to a rational conclusion. In number (maximum estimate) they are about 3 per cent of the aggregate.
(b) Those who do not know the facts and (having neither industry nor ability) never can learn them; or, who, by accident, should they get the facts, could not, because of feebleness, deal with them sensibly. This class numbers, say, 45 per cent of the aggregate.
(c) Those who maliciously distort the facts, or concoct what they term the facts, and are always thinking of themselves (in their scramble for subscribers, votes and publicity) and never of the truth or the United States. They number, at least, 52 per cent of the aggregate. The diffusion of bunk, in the main, is directly chargeable to them.—The Nation's Business.

SOLOMONITES
This is April Fool Day.
Clean up, the tourists are coming!
A man may be down, but he's never out.

"Do it now!" is particularly applicable in the clean-up campaign in Ashland.
If you really wish to know yourself, look up the scale of being, and not down.
You can always make friends by being honest; you can hold them by being steadfast.

Community "make-up" can stand liberal application. It's different when the location is a woman's face.
It is well to remember that life is a campaign, and generally long-drawn out. Looking at it as a one-day battle will never get you anywhere but in the "also ran" column.

Let's get out of the suburban class and put it over Medford to the extent that we have the real attractions for tourists, with our sister city in the role of a suburb of Ashland, the "Gateway of Oregon."

INDIANS WOULD BAR SPORTSMEN FROM FISHING
KLAMATH FALLS, Or., April 1.—Tom, Dick and Harry of Klamath Falls and elsewhere will not be permitted to hunt and fish on the Klamath Indian reservation hereafter if a resolution adopted at a meeting of the tribal council is acted upon by Walter G. West, Reservation Superintendent.
The Indians claim that persons other than residents of the reservation have been infringing upon their rights, some even to the extent of making a business of catching and selling fish.

Federal law provides a fine of $500 for non-residents convicted of hunting or fishing on the reservation.

JURY DISAGREES IN TRIAL OF EX-POSTMASTER FOX
SACRAMENTO, April 1.—The federal court jury, which tried the case of William E. Fox, former postmaster of Dorris, Siskiyou county, charged with embezzlement, last evening, failed to agree and was discharged. The jury stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal.
Fox is to be retried at a date that has not been set.
The prosecution charged that Fox had accepted $365 from persons who intended to place the money in the Postal savings bank, whereas the Dorris post office was not authorized to accept such deposits.
Fox claimed, however, that the money had been loaned to him and that he had given notes to the people who loaned him the money.

WOMEN TRIED BY WOMEN IN THIS KENTUCKY COURT
WICKLIFFE, Ky., April 1.—Unique in annals of court procedure, Judge Morris gave up his bench to a woman, the jury was composed exclusively of women, and the litigants were women, in a case tried in the county court here yesterday.
Mrs. Della Blankenship caused the arrest of Mrs. Olie Winters, on a charge of disturbing the peace. Both sides agreed that a jury of six women try the case, and Judge Morris, presiding, stepped from the bench and appointed his clerk, Mrs. Lenzie Rollins, to act as judge. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and "Judge" Rollins fined Mrs. Winters $10 and costs.

HAVE HOPE OF ENDING KLAMATH FALLS STRIKE
KLAMATH FALLS, April 1.—Indications are "hopeful" for an early settlement of the lumber workers' strike here.
This is according to Otto Hartwig and J. K. Flynn, members of the state board of conciliation. They said it might be a day or two before a definite statement could be issued.
