EASTER MORN

The strife is o'er, the battle done; The victory of life is won; The song of triumph has begun. Alleluia!

The powers of death have done their worst. But Christ their legions hath dispersed. Let shout of holy joy outburst. Alleluia!

The three sad days are quickly sped; He rises glorious from the dead; All glory to our risen Head! Alleluia!

He closed the yawning gates of hell; The bars from heaven's high portals fell; Let hymns of praise His triumphs tell! Alleluia!

Lord! by the stripes which wounded Thee, From death's dread sting Thy servants free, That we may live, and sing to Thee Alleluia!

HOLY PLACES IN JERUSALEM Stations of the Cross Are Objects of the Most Solemn Reverence at Easter Time.

The stations of the cross, the eighth of which is shown in the illustration, are the objects of solemn reverence in Jerusalem on Easter. The 14 stations are supposed to fix the site of the chief events on the path of Christ from Pilate's hall to Calvary. The first station is in the barracks on the site of the castle of Antonio. Here Christ was condemned to death. The second station marks the spot where the cross was laid upon Christ. At the third station Christ is said to have sunk under the weight of the cross. At the fourth station Christ is believed to have met His mother. The fifth station on the sorrowful way is where Simon of Cyrene relieved Christ of the cross. At the sixth station is the house of Saint Veronica who is said to have wiped the Savior's brow with her veil. The seventh station is at the Porta Judicaria where Christ fell a second time under the cross. It is at the eighth station that Jesus comforted the women of Jerusalem. The ninth station is in front of the Coptic monastery. Stations ten, eleven, twelve and thirteen are in the Gethsemane of the church of the Holy Sepulchre, marking the spots where Jesus was disrobed and fastened to Eighth Station of the Cross. the cross, where the cross was raised, and the spot where the Virgin Mary received the body of Christ as it was taken down from the cross. The last station is at the tomb in the church of the Holy Sepulchre. It is now marked by a chapel, a building erected inside the church. Many priceless lamps hang before the marble-topped tomb, now one of the most venerated altars in Christendom. The traditional Gethsemane is on the side of the Mount of Olives across the Kedron. The garden is at present a walled enclosure cared for by Franciscan monks who bestow great attention on eight ancient olive trees supposed to be remnants of a grove standing at the time of Christ's agony.

GROWING LILIES FROM SEEDS

Federal Department of Agriculture Tells of Results of Experiments It Has Been Making.

In growing Easter lilies from seeds the florist intends to handle his stocks and possibly upon which his seed becomes available, says the Bureau of Plant Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, in discussing the results of experiments with growing the flowers from seed instead of from bulbs. Sowing they say, can be done at any season if suitable moisture conditions for germination are maintained. In northern climates, if seed is planted out of doors, it should be sown in the autumn for spring germination. Until the trade produces seed of the lily and offers it for sale, it is pointed out, it will be necessary for the grower to raise his own seed. The best way to do this now is to procure imported bulbs either in the early winter, when they are generally offered for sale, or at Easter time, when most of the plants are in blossom, and grow seed for planting the following January.

EASTER MORNING

Just an early investigation. Evidently the Easter rabbit had been "on the job" early, greatly to the satisfaction of this small boy.

Mexico's Holy Week. Mexico has her holy week, celebrated with pomp and splendor, sad devotions and odd customs that still linger in the land of Montezuma. The people go from all points of the compass far and near, on their annual pilgrimage to Guadalupe, the holiest shrine of all Mexico, where they congregate in immense crowds. There the descendants of a nation sunk in paganism meet to celebrate the divine tragedy that was enacted in Syria 1900 years ago.

The most solemn week of all the weeks of the year is Passion week in Mexico City. Images, icons and crucifixes are to be found everywhere. The most remarkable of the ceremonies is the blowing up of Judas. The betrayer is represented as a misshapen monster. Hundreds of his images are sold on Good Friday. They are filled with explosives which blow the doomed figures to atoms when let off on Saturday morning.

Spiritual Influences of Calvary. Let the world on this Easter, with all its materialism and all its bloodstains, be compared with the world of the first Easter, and it must be recognized that from Calvary radiated spiritual influences whose very incomplete results so far encourage the most splendid visions of what humanity will become.
