COUNTY Y. M. C. A. PLANS FOR SUMMER CAMP

The county Y. M. C. A. will conduct a big summer camp for men and boys this year. Plans are already being laid and locations inspected. There are many beauty spots in southern Oregon, but not all of them for various reasons are suitable for a boys' camp. One of the most necessary adjuncts is the traditional "swimmin' hole." There must be sufficient depth of warm water, without much current and no treacherous eddies. A point somewhere on Elk creek may be chosen. Boys of 12 years or over, without regard to affiliation with any organization, will be admitted to the camp. The outing will continue for ten days, and will have many constructive features and wholesome influences. Cash Wood, county Y. M. C. A. secretary, will act as camp director. The camp will assemble about July 10th.

THYROID TABLETS CURE BALDNESS, DOCTORS SAY

LONDON, April 26.—Luxurious tresses for the bald-headed men and the women with thinning hair—all by merely taking a few extra strong thyroid tablets persistently!

That is the promise held out by the doctors of the famous Guy's hospital, London.

It is claimed that one case of absolute baldness has been already cured by this treatment. The patient was a young Dutch woman, who although only 23, was as bald as a man of 80. She was ordered to take ten grains of thyroid daily.

LLOYD GEORGE'S HAND ALONE STAYS THE GENOA CRASH

GENOA, April 26.—Only by the deft and conciliatory touch of Lloyd George and the fear of world opinion and world reactions, should the break come on the sharp issues outlined by leaders during this week, are the leaders holding the Genoa conference together.

The British premier followed his authorized denial that Britain was secretly dealing with Russia in any way, by an indirect message to the Russian delegation that he has lost patience with the spirit of haggling. He holds the greatest balance of power and by far the strongest strategic position. Lloyd George is staking his entire game on the conviction that no nation dare let go and bring a final crash to the conference.

FRENCH ACTRESS PAID 64,000 FRANCS MONTHLY

PARIS, April 26.—The highest fee ever paid to a music hall artist in France is to be Mistinguett's. In a new revue to be put on in Paris, she will receive 64,000 francs a month, approximately $5000.

HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUBS WILL GIVE CONCERT FRIDAY

The boys' and girls' glee club of the Ashland high school will appear for their first joint concert of the season at the high school gymnasium Friday, April 28, at 8 o'clock. The orchestra will assist the glee clubs, and several special numbers promise to make this the best musical event of the year.

The unusual talent which is present among the members of the organizations has been directed along the best lines by Miss Marsters, and together with the previous experience of many of them will bring results of more than ordinary merit.

Several numbers will be rendered by the two clubs, consisting of 48 mixed voices; and for those who enjoy concert numbers these will indeed be a rare treat. Many will be thrilled by the sweet strains of old favorites given by the girls alone, and the boys will do some fine work in their special numbers.

In addition to the selections by the clubs, a mixed quartet is featured, consisting of Ethel Hazen, Vera Champ'e, Harvey Woods and Raymond Bowers. The surprise of the evening is a minuet by members of both clubs.

Ranging from the classic "Ave Maria" to homely "Annie Laurie," but all of the finest quality, the numbers offer a varied and entertaining program and every person who loves music (and who doesn't) should not fail to hear it.

NO END IN SIGHT OF KLAMATH FALLS COURTHOUSE ROW

KLAMATH FALLS, April 26.—All hope that an early settlement of the court house row here, might be looked for was abandoned when the county court issued a warmly worded statement charging that offensive and unjustified statements were made by the Klamath Development company Friday, when it was declared that the county had forfeited all title to block 10 containing the Ho Springs structure.

This was shown in the declaration that the county court accepted the Klamath Development company's "challenge" and in a reference to the "unprecedented attacks made upon it in the discharge of its duty." The agreement made today by attorneys for both sides was looked upon as a truce only in the matter of permitting the collection of county taxes, which had been held up through refusal of the county clerk to include a $15,000 item in the levy because of a restraining injunction.

MANAGER SAYS WEED STRIKE HAS BEEN BROKEN

WEED, Calif., April 26.—With 525 men at work in the sawmill and other factories of the Weed Lumber company, General Manager I. M. White today announced that he considered the strike of factory employees, which tied up the plants March 7th, effectively broken.

The strike was practically broken on March 22, according to White, but since that time so many of the former strikers had returned to work he said, that the strike now had passed into history. More men are to be put on daily.

White said today that practically all the strikers in the district had returned to work, but that, while some of the strikers still were idle, they would not be permitted to return to work by the company.

ANNISTON, Ala., April 26.—Joseph Holliday and C. B. Hearst, city detectives, were shot to death in an automobile today by Policeman Welch, following a dispute. Welch took the bodies to an undertaker, and then surrendered at the jail.

Bad feeling is said to have existed between Holliday and Welch for several months. Welch claims he shot Holliday in self defense, and that Hearst was accidentally killed.

Only a man in the forest green. Only a match that was dropped unseen.

Only a flare—some leaves and wood. And only a waste where the forest stood.

TULE LAND TO BE OPENED FOR HOMESTEADERS

KLAMATH FALLS, April 26.—The first unit of an area of approximately 40,000 acres of land, uncovered by the receding waters of Tule lake, in Klamath county, Oregon, and Siskiyou county, California, will be thrown open to homestead entry about October 31, this year. This is according to a statement by H. D. Newell, government project manager to the Klamath county chamber of commerce.

A bill giving ex-service men preference rights on homestead entries has been passed by congress.

All of the lands reclaimed from the bed of Tule lake are public domain, and will be thrown open to entry as rapidly as they are uncovered and irrigation service can be provided. Pending the construction of canals and laterals necessary for providing water to Tule lake lands, they have been leased from year to year in tracts of about 80 acres.

Richmond Outlines Plan For Big Company to Hotel Committee

WILL NOT CONSIDER BONUS

Will Submit Concrete Plan for Erection of Hotel in Ashland on the General Idea of Selling no Stock, but Issuing First Mortgage 6 Per Cent Bonds, Taking One Half or More Himself and Balance to be Marketed.

If there has ever been any doubt as to the genuineness of the plan to establish a big tourist hotel in Ashland, it was dissipated this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, when A. L. Richmond, the southern California hotel operator, positively declined to entertain any proposition on the basis of a bonus, and outlined a definite plan to the hotel committee, whereby the project can be secured. The plan provides for the formation of a company with a capital sufficiently large to insure the erection of a magnificent hotel and its accessories; no stock to be sold, but first mortgage bonds, bearing 6 per cent interest; no stock to be sold, but first mortgage bonds, bearing 6 per cent interest; he and his associates to carry one-half or more of the undertaking. The hotel to be personally conducted by Mr. Richmond. That is the gist of the plan outlined in the conference this afternoon in which the entire hotel committee took part, as well as E. O. McCormick, vice-president of the Southern Pacific railroad. Later he will submit a concrete plan in writing, when all details can be gone into.

At last the big hotel proposition is definitely under way. This afternoon the hotel committee after having a definite proposition outlined to them by A. L. Richmond, went on a sight-seeing trip up the canyon as far as "Sap-and-Salt," and which will probably afford opportunities for individual talks and the interchange of ideas. The party are expected to return in time for Messrs. Richmond and McCormick to leave for San Francisco in the latter's private car attached to train 53 at 4:40 this afternoon.

This morning the party paid a visit to Buckhorn Lodge at Tolman Springs, and then on to Green Springs, where they were afforded the magnificent scenic panoramas which is unfolded from the peak of Green Springs mountain. After this, Mr. Richmond's mind was made up. He was prepared to commit himself to the project.

This he did in no uncertain manner, when he met with the committee at 1 o'clock. It was informal talk—the talk of plain, straightforward business men. He let it be known right from the start that he was opposed to anything in the way of a bonus. "That sort of thing is all right for promoters," he said, "but I am not a promoter. My mission is the upbuilding of territory." He told how he had gone into the Imperial valley and how with the moral support and help of the Southern Pacific railroad, he had built the magnificent Barbara Worth hotel, perhaps, one of the finest tourist hotels in America, on what was practically a desert, and in three years was a substantial dividend payer and which today, large as it is, cannot accommodate the demand for reservations throughout the winter. And he told how co-incident with the growth of the hotel was the growth of El Centro, from a little place of a couple of thousand of people, to a thriving town of nearly ten thousand. He showed how the development of each went forward, side by side, and pointed out that the results would be the same in Ashland, except that the field was greater, owing to the fact that the assets of southern Oregon, from the Josephine Caves and Crater Lake, to the California line, all contiguous and a part of Ashland's assets, offered a thousand-fold greater attraction for the tourist, than almost any other place in the United States that he knew of. He pointed out how practically everything of value in the way of tourist attractions in California had been worked out and that the same old scenes were being visited by the tourists over and over again. There was nothing left to offer them. Nothing left to advertise. But southern Oregon was a virgin field, that only had to be made known to the world to insure a teeming population of tourists the year around.

Mr. Richmond's proposition appeared to be received favorably by the committee, though of course no definite action was taken, nor will there be until the concrete plan is submitted to them, which Mr. Richmond promises will be as early a date as feasible. There was no reference made as to a site for the hotel. That will be a matter for determination by the company after it is formed, as well as all the other details.
