which he will attend in France, was dispensed with, as the result of the excellent recommendation given by Dean Goodrich of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. Coon, instructor of French at the university, will accompany the professor and will take advantage of the opportunity to study under some of the best instructors on the continent while abroad.

PROFITEERING PEDDLER DID NOT SELL DOPE

DENVER, May 5.—A "profiteering dope peddler" was discovered here when federal agents arrested Ben B. Green on a charge of selling cocaine and morphine.

"Nothing but quinine in these capsules," reported the government chemist, who made an analysis.

Green is alleged to have been selling quinine capsules for $1 each, purchasers believing them to contain drugs. His profit on each capsule is figured at 10,000 per cent.

REAL ESTATE

We have a very fine 10 acre tract, well improved, located within the city limits of Ashland, and with advantage of city water, that is being offered for a short time at a low price and is well worth investigating if you are looking for something of that kind. A good share of the place is in bearing orchard, fine varieties and excellent quality. The price is $4500.

We also have some one-acre tracts that we consider good bargains at the price asked. Any one of them will make a good home and furnish a large amount of produce for the man who will give them attention. Prices will vary from $1200 to $1800. Now is the time to secure these properties.

MAIL OFFICIAL IN CITY COMMENTS ON CHANGES

W. C. Van Dervoort, superintendent of the railway mail service, with headquarters at Seattle, was in the city yesterday, having come to Ashland on train 13 in the morning and leaving for Portland on 54 in the evening. Mr. Van Dervoort, when questioned regarding passing events in the railway mail service, said that a great many changes had taken place in the last few weeks, many high officials having been demoted, apparently on account of political affiliations.
