

Ashland News in Paragraphs

Local and Personal

Side Lights

Dance Kingsbury Springs every Saturday night. Leedom's Orchestra. 208-2

Dance Kingsbury Springs every Saturday night. Leedom's Orchestra. 208-2

Hand-made gifts for graduates and June brides.—Needlecraft Shop.

Leaves Today for Frisco.—Luis Elmoro, a railway mail clerk, who has lived in Ashland for the last year and a half, will leave for San Francisco this evening, where he expects to make his home.

Our suits satisfy. Paulserud's. 198-ft

Elmore lived in Frisco before coming to Ashland and therefore is going back home. He has transferred from the Ashland-Gerber to the west division of the Ogden and San Francisco run, with headquarters at San Francisco.

Will Teach at Roseburg.—Miss May Hedrick, of B street, expects to go to Roseburg to teach the next school term.

Tourist from South Dakota.—A large truck with a good sized house built on the chassis, arrived in the city this noon and proceeded to the auto camp ground. The outfit has been on the road for some time, originally starting from Rapid City, S. D., and had spent considerable time in California the last few months.

Columbia records reduced to 65c at Rose Brothers. 152ft

Bring your next BLOWOUT to Leedom's Tire Hospital. 209ft

Phone 119. We call and deliver. Paulserud's. 198ft

Let us brighten up your old suit. Paulserud's. 198ft

Returns from Trip South.—E. J. Raine, manager of the Natorium, returned yesterday from a four weeks trip in California. Most of his time was spent at Salinas.

LEAVES FOR CORVALLIS ON WRONG SCHEDULE.—Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Whittle left this morning about 4 o'clock for Corvallis. Mr. Whittle had made preparations to spend Mother's day with his mother, and with the idea that tomorrow was the day set aside to remember "mother," left to be with her over Sunday. It is thought that he will return to Ashland Monday and will let Mother's day be advanced one week on his calendar. Nothing like being ahead of time, even for Mother's day.

Detrick sells butter for less. 201ft

SIX KILLED IN ELECTION RIOTS IN MEXICO.—MEXICO CITY, May 6.—Six persons are reported killed and 60 were wounded in election riots at Uruapan in the state of Michoacin on Friday, according to a report received here.

Special Notice.—Beginning Monday, May 8, standard price for the season on Malted Milk Twins and Blue Ribbon Bread.—One pound loaves, 8 cents; one and a half pound loaves, 12 cents. At the bakery or your grocer. Bon Ton Bakery. 208-2

REMODELING PROPERTY RECENTLY PURCHASED.—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr. are remodeling the property at 595 Iowa street, which they recently purchased. They are moving the house to the center of the lot, and after remodeling and adding to the present house, they will have an exceptionally nice home.

Will Arrive Here Today.—W. T. Newton, of San Francisco, a brother of Mrs. Homer Elhart, will arrive in Ashland, enroute for Portland, this evening. He will continue his trip as far as Gold Hill this evening, and will be accompanied to that place by Mrs. Elhart. They will visit there with their parents over Sunday, before Mr. Newton continues his trip to Portland. Mr. Newton is connected with the American Can company, and is going to Portland on business for the company.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

The best home made candies can be had at Rose Brothers. 152ft

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Bargains in second hand lawn mowers. Fixit Shop. Beaver block.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Buy New Machines.—R. A. Field and George H. Taylor are both the owners of new cars of the Chevrolet "490" model.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Dance Moose hall, Saturday night 208-3

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Visits Relatives Here.—Harry Colvig, cashier of the Commercial Trust and Savings bank of Prescott, Ariz., is here visiting with his father, Volney Colvig, his brother Frank and his sisters, Mrs. George Gillette and Mrs. Torbert W. Sanford, and his cousins, the Emerys.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Nine O. A. C. Barred Rock hens and roosters for sale. 243 Laurel St. 209-1

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Baby Boy Born.—Mr. and Mrs. George King, of Beech avenue, are the proud parents of a little eight and a half pound boy, which arrived Friday, May 5. Both mother and son are reported to be doing nicely.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Dr. J. J. Emmens, of Medford, has resumed his practice in the Medford Furniture and Hardware building.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

BASEBALL NEWS OF ASHLAND JUNIOR LEAGUE

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Team Standings to Date

Table with 3 columns: Team, Played, Won, Pet. Methodists 3 3 1.000, Christians 3 2 .666, Presbyterians 3 1 .333, Baptists 3 0 .000

The Methodists won from the Baptists in the opening game this morning, by a score of 15 to 10. The latter gave them a bad scare, however, in the last innings and at one time were within one point of the winners.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

The lineup was: Methodists—Ludlow, Marske, Frulan, Ramsey, Norton, Brown, Nutter, Watkins, Tilton. Baptists—Nelson, Gilmore, Ring, Cotter, Doe, Carson, Gill, Butterfield.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

In the second game the Christians won a rather easy victory over the Presbys by a score of 9 to 3. Some of the older players of the latter team were forced to leave early, thus handicapping their team somewhat.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

The lineup was: Christians—Moore, R. Parr, Kanasto, Bloomfield, Hoxie, Jones, Henry. Presbys—Pittenger, Moore, Phipps, Wagner, Wilcox, Leslie, Watson, Wentner, Trott.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

LIONEL BARRYMORE AT THE VINING

LIONEL BARRYMORE IN 'JIM THE PENMAN'

It is seldom that an actor has the distinction of having his name in electric signs on two of New York's uptown theaters at the same time. Lionel Barrymore recently had the distinction of competing with himself for patronage in two of the leading show houses in New York. It happened during the week the Stand theater ran "Jim the Penman," the same production which will be the attraction at the Vining theater Sunday and Monday. Mr. Barrymore is the star of that production, and immediately after it was concluded he opened a short season in a Broadway house in "Macbeth."

SUDDEN CHANGE OF OPINION

Or Possibly the Lady Had Really Been Enjoying Herself and Wasn't Aware of It.

At one of those banquets where almost every one is called on to make a short speech or to tell a funny story, a woman who sat near the speaker's table was heard to remark after nearly every story told: "My goodness, that's another old one. Why don't they tell some new ones?"

Regardless of whether the speaker got a good laugh, she complained to her companion of the antiquity of the stories.

"I've never been to a worse affair. I wish they would cut it short. I'd rather have stayed home than come," she bitterly asserted.

In the midst of her harangue, the toastmaster beamed in her direction, and said: "Now, there is Mrs. ——. She is one of the most charming workers in our organization, and I know we would all be glad to hear her speak."

Dismayed, Mrs. — managed to get on her feet, and addressed the guests thusly: "I really don't know what to say, only that I am so glad to be here with you. I just said to the lady sitting next to me what a perfectly splendid time I was having. I didn't know we had so many clever people in the organization who could tell such funny stories." — Indianapolis News.

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

Curiosity Satisfied.—I have been in the habit of patronizing a printing shop near home, and on each occasion I have noticed a man in particular who never spoke to me. He always had a scowl on his face. Recently I went to a nearby town by Interurban and sat in the smoker. A man across the aisle spoke to me: "You patronize the Thomas print shop, don't you?" I said "Yes."

BIG POW WOW

To be held at Hotel Ashland, Tuesday evening, May 9, when the Lithians of Ashland will entertain the Cave Men of Grants Pass. Big chiefs will attend this pow wow. Matters of grave import will be discussed. Music appropriate to the occasion will be furnished. Lithia water will flow freely, and any Cave Man desiring stronger drink will be furnished sulphur and soda combined.

MRS. HARDING TULIP

The latest botanical development is this tulip which appears to be a cross between the common tulip and the tiger lily. It has been named by botanists the Mrs. Warren G. Harding tulip.

At the Churches

First Church of Christ, Scientist.—Pioneer avenue, South. Sunday services at 11 o'clock. Subject of lesson, "Adam and Fallen Man."

Church of the Nazarene.—Corner of Fourth and C streets. Services for Sunday, May 7: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Thornton S. Wiley, superintendent. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Preaching service at 8 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday night at 7:30. You are cordially invited to come and worship with us. J. E. McShane, pastor.

Baptist Church.—Corner Hargadine and First streets. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. O. F. Carson, superintendent. Morning

Final Showing Vining Today

"Don't Ever Marry" with Wesley Barry

"Don't ever marry" has been the sympathetic advice of the old to the young for generations gone-by. This is a Comedy-Drama of the "Why?"

—Also—"UPPER AND LOWER"

Tomorrow and Monday

"Jim the Penman"

—with—

Lionel Barrymore

He was a coward, yet he feared not man nor devil. Which does a man love best, his wife or his daughter?

The world-famous melodrama of a man who wins to the highest pinnacle of financial success through his clever pen—and the inevitable end—a climax that will startle you.

Also — "A PAIR OF SEXES" and SPORT REVIEW

CHERRO FLOUR

Your meals cannot be relished unless you have good bread. We have the good meal remedy— Let CHERRO be your flour.

ASHLAND Big Spring Festival

5 BIG DAYS 5 BIG NIGHTS 5

—starting—

Tuesday, May 9th

SHOW GROUNDS NEAR HAWTHORNE SCHOOL

All Attractions Furnished by

Queen City Shows

FACTORY BLOX

The Ideal Fuel —for— Summer Use

They Make a Quick, Hot Fire Prices Reduced for Summer Use

Try a Load of Mill Ends

Carson-Fowler Lumber Co.

"In the Heart of Town."

Have you ever followed the washing you "Send Out"

Strange adventures sometimes befall the linens and personal things which make up the bundle you "send out."

Conditions in the homes of laundresses who "take in washings" are not always ideal; sanitary standards may not be as high as you might wish; often there is sickness in the house.

In a crowded kitchen, the dainty lingerie which you wear; the linen which clothes your beds; the napery from which your meals are served, is washed under conditions far from perfect.

Why take this risk, week after week, when at no additional cost you can send your family bundle to our modern laundry? Ours is a sunny, airy, wholesome place, where cleanliness is a fine art. Here your clothes are protected by every sanitary safeguard; here healthy, clean-garbed people wash and iron for you in quarters which are spotless.

Send us your bundle this week—a phone call will bring our representative.

Ashland Laundry Co.

PHONE 165