TALENT LADIES ENTERTAIN CIVIC CLUB VISITORS

By MARGARET E. DILL

That the Pacific highway, the auto, and a spirit of community interest is making neighbors of the women of Rogue River valley was manifest yesterday at a party in Talent with the Talent Community club as hostess to the Ashland Civic Improvement club, and with ladies from Medford sharing in the rendering of a most delightful and instructive program.

A short business session in charge of the president, Mrs. J. R. Luke, revealed some interesting data relating to the activities of the Talent women, and how their men folks help out—two cash contributions of $25 and $5 being reported by the secretary, Mrs. Sheets, as handed in by two Talent men toward paying for a piano the club is buying.

That the Talent babies come in for their share of scientific attention was shown when the club voted to give their last meeting day over to a baby clinic, with Miss Poole in charge.

When Mrs. George Carter, chairman, announced that the program would be a Japanese one, two dainty Japanese girls in silk kimonos tripped in, who, when they are not dainty Japanese girls at a community party, are Misses Vera Lamb and Ethel Keith of Talent.

Mrs. Childers, of Medford, accompanied by Mrs. George Andrews sang the "Moon Song" from Hearn, and graciously responded to an encore by singing "Haymaking." Mrs. Heine, of Medford, read a paper on Japanese art, and had on display a number of exquisite pieces of the different kinds of work done by the Japanese. Among these was a painting done by the Japanese artist, Genesetso Takai, 600 years ago. This picture is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Salto, who have the Japanese store in Medford, and is valued at $300. Mrs. Salto had graciously responded to Mrs. Heine's request and came dressed in a beautiful costume of blue cloth trousers and coat with handsome embroidery trimming. The art work used in illustration was loaned by Mrs. Salto.

Professor F. C. Reimer, who, while his post office is Talent, is claimed by the whole of southern Oregon and by Uncle Sam, for that matter, as he has twice been on trips to the Orient sent by the government, gave some of his experiences in Japan, with detailed description of the customs and manners of Japanese folks. Miss Grace Chamberlain, as president of the Ashland Civic Improvement club, was called on for a talk, and responded by voicing her pleasure in these community meetings and stating that the Ashland club was now working to make the dreams of earlier members come true in the building of the community house which is now under construction on the lot opposite Lithia park. She said that her greatest desire in this matter was to have a home where the women of the valley might meet and where the stranger in the city might be made welcome. She called on Mrs. E. D. Briggs, the first Ashland woman to sponsor the task of building a club house many years ago, to tell a bit of the past history of the Civic club work, but Mrs. Briggs begged off, saying she preferred that our president tell of our present plans. Miss Chamberlain told of the splendid team work of the women toward the raising of funds for the building, and of several men in Ashland who have lately said they were going to give substantial assistance, and of Madame Tracy-Young's generous offer to take a collection at her recital this summer.

The Talent ladies had decorated the room artistically with purple and white iris blossoms, Japanese rose, and lilacs. Japanese lanterns were swung jauntily about the room, and a Japanese screen and table runners carrying out the idea, the effect was most "Japanesey." The hostesses—Mesdames Frank, Holdridge, Earl Duncan, Frank Dillard, Will Ferns, Chase Gardner, Denam, and Clyde, assisted by the two dainty Japanese maidens served the guests at daintily appointed tables with the most delicious home made sherbet and cakes and tea.

Mrs. Terrill, the newly elected president of the Southern Oregon district of the state federation, was present, as a hostess club member.

A larger number of Ashland ladies would have attended, had it not been that the Presbyterian ladies entertained the Phoenix church ladies the same afternoon, and the conflict of programs was known too late for either to postpone. The following attended from Ashland: Mesdames E. D. Briggs, Wade, Briscoe, Perozzi, Whittle, Walker, William
