BOYS LEAVE SOON

Great enthusiasm reigns among the men belonging to the company, and the largest turnout Ashland has ever sent to camp will leave here this year. This is largely on account of the splendid location for the camp, being about 25 miles from the Canadian border on the shores of the Strait of Juan de Fuca, and close to the cittes of Port Townsend. Victoria, B. C., and Seattle.

The troop train, which will be composed entirely of sleepers, will arrive in Portland the night of June 14, and will continue on to Seattle. arriving there the next morning. F After a short lay-over at Seattle, the men will go by steamer to Fort Geo. N. Lewis, grand jury
