BATES ON THE PAYROLL ALL WINTER LONG

Oregon Man Says Tanlac Built Him Up 25 Pounds and Kept Him on Job by Completely Overcoming His Long-Standing Stomach Trouble.

"Tanlac not only built me up 25 pounds, but it actually kept me on the payroll all winter," said C. T. Bates, 470 Umatilla avenue, Portland, Or. employe of the West Side Lumber company.

"I suffered so bad from stomach trouble and a run-down condition for three years that even the slightest foods gave me indigestion. Gas on my stomach gave me awful cramps and my heart palpitated so I could hardly breathe. I had dreadful headaches and dizzy spells, and my kidneys bothered me too, with such sharp pains in my back I could scarcely bend over. Nothing helped me and I got so weak I had to give up my job, when winter came, for I didn't have strength to stand the cold.

"When I read how Tanlac helped other people with troubles like mine I decided to try it. I improved from the very first, now feel fine all the time and will always have a good word to say for Tanlac. It's a world beater."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

ANOTHER OREGON INDUSTRY

PORTLAND, June 7.—Another Oregon lumber product industry is making heavy inroads into the markets formerly controlled by the southern pine products manufacturers. This new competitor for national and international recognition is the Douglas fir cross-arm industry. The manufacturers of cross arms are now receiving orders from almost every state in the Union and many foreign countries.
