"Ashland, thou gem of the hills, Whose liberality our every want fills Your tourist camp is a paradise Where the tourist will head for, if wise.

We all join in praise of your enterprise Worthy a city of twice your size. Ashland, we hate to say farewell, But of your hospitality we'll gladly tell."

Feeding Her Brood of Air Craft

Air craft attached to the United States navy at Guantanamo bay taking off from the U. S. S. Wright, the navy air tender and mother ship.

Public Announcement

Some false and malicious statements have been made and circulated throughout the community, regarding an incident that happened in my place of business some weeks back. On or about April 20th, 1922, a woman with three little children came into my place, asking for assistance. I was busy in my kitchen at the time, and gave her what money I had in my pocket and offered her meals for herself and the children. The money she accepted, but the meals she refused, saying she had eaten only a few minutes before. Thanking me for the assistance she departed.

It appears, as the story goes, that I refused to give her assistance, put her out of my house, and told her to stay out.

It has been my policy in my business to feed or help otherwise, the needy. You will understand that I could not feed free gratis all of the men who ask for meals, as I am located on the railroad, and as high as a hundred a week hit my place, that are broke. I try to the best of my ability to give them a few minutes' work to earn a meal, but the needy that are not able to work have never been turned from my house hungry.

But I wish to put the story before the public and let them judge for themselves, whether it is the truth or not. I have a wife, mother and sisters of my own, and why should I not treat any poor woman as I would like to have them treated if they were in the same circumstance.

This story has sorely injured my pride and name and I CHALLENGE any person or persons to make a public statement saying that the story is the truth—an absolute fact. If there is a person who can prove such a falsehood, I will gladly take the consequences. But I feel that a great injustice has been placed upon me.

Signed: W. S. HARTMAN, Port-Shasta Restaurant.
