 or societies charging a regular initiation fee and dues, no discount. Religious and benevolent orders will be charged the regular rate for all advertising when an admission or other

What Constitutes Advertising
 In order to allay a misunderstanding among some as to what constitutes news and what advertising, we print this very simple rule, which is used by newspapers to differentiate between them: "ALL future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection is taken IS ADVERTISING." This applies to organizations and societies of every kind as well as to individuals.

All reports of such activities after they have occurred is news.
 All coming social or organization meetings of societies where no money contribution is solicited, initiation charged, or collection taken IS NEWS.

At that, the efficiency experts are not nearly so numerous as the inefficiency experts.

Nothing is more improbable than that the sun won't rise tomorrow, unless it is peace in Ireland.

This is the month when June brides and graduates are fired with a like ambition—the one to reform husbands, and the other the world.

Women reformers are now getting all fussed up over having a ban placed on smoking by women. Oh, well, as long as they keep the ruction among themselves, we men should worry.

The record up to date would indicate that the Russian soviet will never feel that it has been officially recognized by this country until formally presented with a license to dip into the United States treasury.

Looks like Ashland would be depopulated on Monday. Everyone appears to have fallen under the spell of the "cave men," and will migrate to Grants Pass for participation in the formal opening of the Josephine caves.

From a commercial standpoint, the Ford day campaign has proved a great success and if all those who are demanding tickets on the Ford machine to be awarded on July 3d, are in Ashland on that date, the town will have to expand considerably to give the visitors even elbow room.

There have been frequent reports that business in Klamath Falls was on the hummer, but there appears to be no falling off in the moonshine industry. An average of 12 arrests a week is going pretty well. There are 19 cases pending in Portland before the federal courts, and all this week the city has been without a police chief and the county without a sheriff, as both of those officials are sewed up in Portland in connection with bootlegging cases.

Fretty nearly everything these days is getting into the United States supreme court. It's the outja board now. The manufacturers protest against it being classed for taxation with sporting goods and in appealing to the court for relief, describe it thusly: "A grade of motor automatism, involving considerable subconscious action of the intelligence." Now that we know just what it is, it occasions no surprise that the supreme court refuses consideration.

PORTLAND TRUE TO FORM
 The Portland chamber of commerce and the Portland newspapers show a tendency to favor the separation of the Southern Pacific and Central Pacific systems, which would probably give the Union Pacific a transportation monopoly of Oregon.

This attitude is in accordance with the traditional Portland policy of upbuilding Portland at the expense of state development, a policy which has made Oregon a one city state and Portland a top-heavy city.
 Anyone with any vision can see that this will react to the injury of the metropolis, but Portland's vision has always been myopic. The Portland idea is the exploitation of tributary territory instead of its development, yet if it is not developed there will be little to exploit.

The efforts of the Southern Pacific to develop western Oregon by equitable and preferential rates have been strenuously combatted by the Portland chamber of commerce for many years, as have efforts by the various communities to develop themselves by the same means. Portland wants to hog the manufacturing as well as the jobbing business of the state, and special rates to develop industry that competes with Portland industry arouses opposition inspired by the hope of driving industry to Portland.

When western Oregon lumber mills were given special rates to California that their geographical location justified, the Portland chamber of commerce appealed to the interstate commerce commission and had their rates set aside for the benefit of Portland lumber mills.
 Portland is willing the logging should be done in the forests, but wants the manufacturing done in the metropolis, and it is the same story in other industries.

Whenever Medford and other cities brought suits to secure more equitable freight rates, the Portland chamber of commerce was always on hand to intervene in opposition, fearful lest these struggling little communities get a square deal and a chance to grow. Portland has sent numerous delegations to Washington and elsewhere to fight these small cities, oblivious of the fact that Portland could only grow as they developed. As Portland fought harbor improvements at Astoria and Marshfield and along the coast so has she fought rates for interior cities.

It will surprise no one if Portland actively champions dissolution of the Southern and Central Pacific despite the injury to the state, because the city itself may reap a temporary advantage thereby. Western Oregon will lose traffic competition and be handicapped in shipping, but must send and receive everything through Portland. Such arrangement will eliminate California competition and give Portland the same monopoly in manufacture and commerce that the Union Pacific will enjoy in transportation—and that is the only thing Portland is interested in.

TRAVELING SHOWER GIVEN COUNTY NURSE FALLDINE

County Nurse Marie E. Falldine was given a traveling shower Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs.
 Carlton near Central Point. Miss Falldine is on the eve of departure for a two months trip to New York and other eastern points.

Miss Falldine received many nice presents, ranging from a pin case to a purse of $50. There were 57 ladies present from all parts of the valley, and each brought a gift.
 Singularly enough only one case of duplication was reported among all the remembrances received.

Jackson county women regret very much the absence of Miss Falldine, even though it is only for two months, for many of them have come to look upon her as a guardian angel, who comes at their call to minister to the ills of the little folks.
 Ashland women present at the affair were, the Mesdames William Denton, Fred Engle, Sam McNair, and Miss Ethel Reid.

DRUNKS PAY FINES AND ARE GIVEN FREEDOM

Charles Erickson, Leonard Johnson and Gus Ogren were arrested Wednesday night at the Union rooming house where they were boisterously celebrating, and were locked up on the charge of drunkenness. They were taken before Justice Gowdy yesterday and assessed a fine of $25 and a jail sentence of 15 days each. They refused to pay the fines at the time and were taken back to jail to lay out the sentence, but upon further reflection in the barred room in the city building, decided that it was no place to spend the bright summer days and asked to be allowed to pay their fines. They were taken back before the court and paid up, whereupon the court suspended the jail sentences during their good behavior.

KLAMATH SOFT PEDALS ON RAILROAD CONTROVERSY

KLAMATH FALLS, June 23.— Precipitate action in any direction should be avoided in the present railroad situation, involving the Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Central Pacific, was the consensus of opinion of lumbermen and business men who met here today to discuss the best policy for this county in dealing with the situation.

A committee of lumbermen was appointed to confer with the Southern Pacific on plans and policies.
 The Western Pacific has not been heard from, and its interests will be inquired into. The Great Northern will also be communicated with. The Union Pacific has already laid its plans before the chamber of commerce here.

EXECUTIVE MEETING OF
 SO. OREGON PRESBYTERIAL

An executive meeting of the South Oregon Presbyterial was held at the home of Mrs. C. B. Lamkin, vice-president of the body, Saturday afternoon. Mesdames Brown, Warner and Dixon, of Medford; Mrs. Angell, of Phoenix, and Mrs. Koehler, of this city, were present. An executive meeting will be held again on the third Monday of October at Grants Pass, and the third Monday of January in Medford. The hostess served delicious ice cream and cake after the business hour.

LEAVE FOR NEVADA TO MAKE THEIR HOME

Will Lindsay and three sons, Henry, Roland and David, left this week for their new home in Nevada, driving overland via Klamath Falls.
 Mrs. Lindsay and her father, Mr.
 Williamson, expect to go by train next Monday. The many friends of this excellent family regret very much their departure, but wish for them all success in their new home.
 Mr. Lindsay is keeping his property interests here and may return some day.

Portland—Meier & Frank company will erect $60,000 garage.

LOGAN JULIAN
 AND GERTRUDE
 MIKSCH MARRY

Miss Gertrude Miksch became the bride of Logan Julian Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents on the Boulevard, at a very quiet home wedding which was performed in the presence of a few immediate relatives by Rev. C. P.
 Koehler of the Presbyterian church.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful white gown and wore a corsage bouquet of rosebuds. The decorations in the parlor and dining room consisted of a large collection of pink roses, many of which were banked about the room. After the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served to the newlyweds and the guests.

Mrs. Julian is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Miksch and is a graduate of the local high school and taught in the Rogue River schools during the past year. She has been an active member of the Presbyterian church and the Christian Endeavor society.

Mr. Julian is a veteran of the world war and is at present in business with his father in Rogue River.
 Shortly after the breakfast, the newly married couple left for a wedding trip by auto to points in the northern part of the state, after which they will be at home to their friends at Rogue River. As they left their car was gaily decorated with several pairs of old shoes, and they were showered with rice as they prepared to leave, which, according to old traditions, betokens a long and happy married life.

 They have many friends here to wish them God speed on their journey of life.

CAVE MEN FROM GRANTS PASS ADVERTISING OPENING

A truck bearing several Grants boosters dressed to represent "cave men" spent about an hour in the city Wednesday driving over the streets and doing a good job of advertising the Cave Day opening next Monday.

It was stated by one of the committee present with the "cave men" that accommodations could be had at the camp for all the cars that brought their own equipment, or that the hotel at that place could take care of a large number, though reservations there would have to be made in advance, probably.

The camp is eight miles from the caves, and small cars may be left at this point, provision having been made to take any one not caring to drive to the mouth of the caves, in cars belonging to the committee.

The road from the camp to the caves is on a grade with a maximum of 7 per cent, which can be made easily by any large car that is in good condition.

Let the Lind Home Lodge worry about your "eats" for the Cave Day week-end. Everything clean and new, half mile from the general camp ground and barbecue. 248-3
