LITHIANS HAVE BIG FEED AND LENGTHY POPOFF

The Lithians popped off last night at Masonic hall at a meeting which began with a sumptuous feed. Upon calling the roll, it was found that Bubble H. K. Tomlinson had failed to turn in a suitable excuse, neither was he present.

When he was called on at the scene of the festivities, he issued an order for cigars, which the committee attempted to cash, but found the order had been cancelled by telephone before their arrival.

Following the feed, Mrs. Jay, who had been invited to play her new song for the Lithians, appeared and spent some time in an endeavor to teach the bubbles the words of the song in connection with the music.

A business meeting followed, at which committees reported what had been done and what was planned.

The parade committee reported good progress, though they have a great deal of work before them. All the people of the city who own cars, will be asked to put some decorations on their cars and take part in the parade on the Fourth.
