

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Recovering from Operation—

Dr. A. C. Caldwell, who went to San Francisco several days ago to undergo an operation, writes that he is getting along very nicely. He extends the wish that all the people of Ashland have a grand and glorious Fourth of July. He expects to be able to return to Ashland in about two weeks.

Dance, Jackson Hot Springs pavilion, Saturday night. Admission $1, war tax 10 cents. 253-4

Accommodations for Ashland—

Southern Pacific Agent Kramer announces that he has received word to the effect that train 54, due out of Ashland at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, will carry a day coach out of Ashland, effective at once. This makes it possible for passengers to ride on this train without buying a Pullman reservation, as has been the custom heretofore.

FORD TICKETS

During the remainder of the month and until July 3d at 5 p. m. the Ashland Laundry will give one Ford ticket with every 25 cents paid on all old accounts due prior to June 1, and it will make no difference how old the account—the older the better—and will continue to give two Ford tickets with every $1 bundle as long as the contest lasts.—Ashland Laundry Co. 252-5

Wins Cabinet at Enders—

Nate L. High, who conducts a blacksmith shop at the corner of C and First streets, considers himself a lucky man, as he had the key that won the all-metal white enamel kitchen cabinet, which was given away at the Enders store last week. He took the cabinet home yesterday.

To Attend Medford Institute—

A large number of Ashland members of the Modern Woodmen of America have planned to go to Medford tonight to attend the initiation of a large class of candidates at that place. The Ashland delegation is expected to leave here in a body from Moose hall at 7 o'clock. All who desire to go are asked to be present at that time, whether they have a car or not, and efforts will be made to make room for everyone for the trip.

When you want better ice cream, order Rosebud of Rose Bros. 247tf

Pickwick Drivers Arrested—

State Traffic Officer McMahon arrested two drivers of the Pickwick stages Wednesday evening between Ashland and Phoenix, and brought them to Ashland where they were brought before Justice Gowdy and fined $50 each, which they paid and went their way. McMahon claimed they were making 40 miles an hour.

CONSOLATION PRIZE

The joy the prize Ford car will bring to the winner will be about equaled by the disappointment felt by the holder of the "next to" the winning number. To assuage this disappointment, THE BAZAAR has decided to award a 9 by 12 (regular $45 value) Axminster rug, or choice of two attractive fluff rugs, providing of course this "next to" lucky number emanates from the Bazaar. Consolation prizes on display in the window of the Bazaar—on the Plaza. 254-2

Returns from Montana—

Mrs. I. A. Dew, of 196 Factory street, who left with a sister from Medford to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law at Helena, Mont. several days ago, returned home yesterday.

Here to Attend Funeral—

Herman Trotter, a son of Mrs. J. C. Ferguson, arrived in Ashland yesterday morning, being called here on account of the death of his grandfather, Mr. James Boyd.

BIG DANCE IN THE COOL OPEN AIR JULY 1, 3 and 4, ASHLAND

The open air platform is assuming attractive proportions, and promises to be one of the chief attractions at the coming Fourth of July Celebration at Ashland. Carpenters are putting the finishing touches on the floor and smoothing it up so that those who swing a wicked limb may have the time of their young lives. Every one is predicting that it will be the snappiest, cleanest and most enjoyable event ever attempted in Ashland.

"All Star Dance Orchestra"

The pick of the best dance musicians in SOUTHERN OREGON and NORTHERN CALIFORNIA. The most efficient aggregation of real jazzy hounds ever assembled together. Four LEADERS of four different established orchestras. Masters of their respective instruments and need no introduction to the dancing public. Assembled without regard for expense.

CARL H. LOVELAND (Director)

SAXOPHONE, FISH HORN and CLARINET. Director of Loveland's Paramount Orchestra, Ashland Concert Band and Ashland High School Band. Three years with the Seattle Hippodrome, the largest dance hall on the Coast. Mr. Loveland is considered one of the best Saxophonists available.

HERBERT ALFORD

BANJO and SAXOPHONE. Director of the Imperial Orchestra of Medford, which has been drawing crowds at the Natatorium for the past two years. Mr. Alford is a "whiz" on the banjo and saxophone, and his middle name is "PEP." Cayenne hasn't anything on this boy.

GEORGE WHEELER

MARIMBA and XYLOPHONE. Director of Wheeler's Orchestra, Dunsmuir, Cal. Noted for the wonderful dance music he plays. Mr. Wheeler is considered the best Marimba and Xylophone player on the Coast.

HERBERT LAUNSPACH

PIANO and CLARINET. Director of Launspach's Orchestra of Medford. Everybody knows "Herb" at the piano—he's a "bear" for dance time and rhythm.

HARRY SNYDER

PIANO and TROMBONE. A natural jazzy musician picked for this orchestra because of his ability as a "Jazzy" Trombone player unequalled in this vicinity.

CHAS. ROBERTSON

DRUMS and TRAPS. Mr. Robertson is the peer of all drummers around here, a specialist in time and rhythm and the "peppiest" wielder of the ebony sticks you ever danced to.
