It was beast against beast in the quiet courtyard of the Spanish Inn. From a high window a frightened girl watched the death struggle. She thanked God that this black-hearted scoundrel was learning now the terror of a beast's caress just as she, scarcely an hour before had known the frenzy of his bestial arms about her.

Floating Foot Clinic for New York

New York now has a floating foot clinic, first in the world, which makes regular trips around Manhattan Island stopping at various piers to attend to the foot troubles of boatmen, dock workers and bathers. It is named the Podiatrist.

BRIEF INFORMATION

Short-sighted people are said to be the most intelligent.
Worms attacked the first wheat crop of the Virginia colonists.
Prior to 1825 all women's shoes were made without heels.
Workers in jantries are generally very free from lung troubles.
Many Chinese women have distinguished themselves as poets.
A silkworm in its brief lifetime spins about 4,000 yards of thread.

COP WITH MANY DEGREES

William D. Halslip, a policeman in the Ninth precinct of the Washington force, has been awarded degrees of bachelor of laws, master of laws and master of patent laws by the National university, and degrees from Virginia Polytechnic institute and Georgetown Law school. Halslip was an officer in the navy during the war.

The Modern Vamp.

The modern "vamp" is a colloquial contraction of the term "vampire," used in the sense of the "rag and the bone and the hunk of hair" type of woman, "who did not care," described by Rudyard Kipling in his famous poem of that name. This word is being used as a verb, meaning to extort money or other valuable articles.

Alaska May Solve Wood Problem.

Alaska alone is said to have wood enough to fill one-third of the newspaper need of the nation. There are 56,000 acres of fine lumber available most of which is spruce and hemlock and the remainder is pine. Alaska's gold will probably vanish before her wood supply is exhausted. There are forty varieties of wood which will soon become marketable by the opening up of transportation facilities.
