We note that an English jurist has ruled that a man has the right to define what he deems is extravagant in the purchases by his wife. Well, how does that get hubby anywhere. That's a good deal like locking the barn after the horse is stolen. His opinion on the subject of extravagance doesn't worry the missus half as much as his ability to dig up the price of its indulgence.

Concord, N. H., is enforcing a blue law that bans not only baseball and the sale of tobacco on Sunday but puts the ban on golf and auto riding. Yes, gentle reader, Concord is in the United States, and if you look in the geography you'll find that it is on the Atlantic seaboard, and is bounded on the north by Maine and on the south by Massachusetts, where they used to burn witches at the stake.

It is surprising the persistency with which men of single track minds and one-cylinder mentalities—the one is generally the accompaniment of the other—pursue public office. Just about the time they have succeeded in demonstrating that they are failures at everything else under the sun, they arrive at the conclusion they are admirably fitted to attend to the business of everybody, grouped under the head of the general public. This, however, is not nearly so much of a surprise as the fact that they are so frequently taken at their own valuation.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF JACKSON COUNTY

There will be a special recall election held in this county on July 29th. My name will appear on the ballot as a candidate for the position of sheriff, now held by C. E. Terrill. With reference to this election and my candidacy, I wish to say a few words to the voters of Jackson County:

In the past two years the people have to a great extent lost confidence in the disposition or ability of the county police powers to control violations of the law. It has been necessary to bring in special officers, at great expense, to run down and secure conviction of law violators.

The sheriff's office has seemed to be helpless in dealing with certain classes of offenders. With an efficient, honest, and capable police and law enforcement administration working and co-operating with a vigorous prosecution, bootleg rings could have been broken up by the arrest and conviction of their individual members and their more or less prominent backers and defenders brought into wholesome disrepute. This should and could have been accomplished by a capable and energetic local police administration, and the taxpayers saved thousands of dollars paid out for the assistance of special officers.

Another class of offenders directed against the majesty of the law would never have led to the division and bitterness now existing if they had been met promptly and vigorously by the sheriff and other law enforcement officers of our county. I refer to the so-called Ku Klux Klan outrages. For the past three or four months indictments and convictions have been of daily occurrence by the newspapers and other biased and interested groups, mostly for political purposes, but no arrests have been attempted by our lawfully constituted county authorities.

These crimes, however simple their nature, have been magnified and enlarged upon by rumor, hearsay and downright misrepresentation both from home and up-state sources, until they are now the subject of a special grand jury investigation with all its attendant expense and notoriety, with special correspondents from the big dailies, special prosecutors and assistants, ex-sleuths from Portland, and witnesses from Southern California with precious grand goblin records, all to make a Roman Holiday for the lawyers and politicians at the expense of the people.

And still a great hubbub is being raised about the expense of a recall which is the only method under our electoral system whereby the people can have a chance to remedy an unbearable situation.

Now a word, personal, as to myself. I have lived in Jackson county 13 years. All my life I have been engaged in productive and constructive pursuits. I have a great pride in my country and its institutions, the greatest and freest on earth, and its laws, which are the bulwark of our liberties.

If you elect me sheriff at the coming election, I pledge you that I will give the people of Jackson county a sound, conservative business administration, and that the infractions and violators of our laws, whether they be individuals, class or clan, will have to reckon with the sheriff's office, and not with imported special officers and ex-Portland sleuths.

Sincerely yours,
 D. M. LOWE.

PERFORMANCE PROVES SAVAGE TIRES Are BUILT TO EXCEL

IN LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Opposite Pershing Square, Little Heap, trade character of the Spreckels "Savage" Tire Company, situated in the Billmore Hotel now in the course of construction.

Southern California is noted for its good roads and wonderful highways. A tire will surely give satisfaction under normal conditions here—if anywhere. To recite everyday instances of performance and mileage in this territory would be to paint an unusually glowing picture, for the ordinary run is not especially taxing on good makes of tires.

Another local corporation operating a fleet of 225 cars throughout Southern California has standardized on Savage tires after an exhaustive test in which our tires were compared with other makes under every existing local condition. Many of these cars are heavily loaded as a usual thing.

Savage Cords on one-ton Ford trucks loaded daily to 4000 and 4500 pounds are giving far greater service than any other tire equipment used in a similar manner by a local feed and fuel company.

Worth while comparisons, pointing to the superiority of our product over other makes, can therefore be brought out best by citing unusual types of service, showing the durability, correct construction and economy of Savage tires in service which renders excessive stress and hard usage.

Unusual Service
 A fleet of trucks operating throughout the city, making 250 to 400 stops a day, has been equipped with Savage Cords—solving the tire problem of this company by increasing their tire mileage 100%.

A jobber sending salesmen into an outlying territory, where roads are particularly rocky, claims Savage Cords are the only tire that is capable of giving their men satisfactory service.

Tire men and motorists familiar with tire construction have found in the Savage Cord seventeen outstanding constructional features that make it the wonderful tire it is.

Almost any tire will give satisfactory service under ideal conditions. Some makes will even render satisfactory service under certain adverse conditions. Certain makes of tires will perform best on long drives over pavements, other makes will show to better advantage on dirt highways—and so it goes.
 Our object has been to build Savage Tires to perform equally well under every condition—on the short haul of the heavily laden commercial car, on the heated roads of the sandy desert, over mud and stones of the land of forests or the broad dirt highways of the plains.

 That we have accomplished our purpose is evident from the results users of Savage Tires are getting—everywhere.

The ever widening circle of good Maxwell admirers is a tribute both to its superb beauty and its reliable, economical performance.
 The conviction is rapidly spreading that only in this car can there be found such sound value.
