Katherine MacDonald

—in—

"The Infidel"

Can you imagine beautiful Katherine being used as man-bait—and willingly? Way down in the South Seas—a strange, strange plot!

Her victim a two-fisted fighting gentleman who dislikes all women—until he meets her.

Then, too, there's a mighty Nabob and his savage hordes. He wants this adventuress and plots to get her!

Marines! Mobs. Tropical Tornadoes! What a background for a great love story.

Too Exciting to Guess the Finish!

Why You Are Asked To Invest in the Production of OIL FROM SHALE ON DEAD INDIAN

- ### FACTS!
- 1st—It is a proved proposition; not an experiment.
 - 2nd—The supply of shale in this county is almost inexhaustible.
 - 3rd—The cost of production is small, compared with the price oil brings in the world markets, leaving a large margin of profit.
 - 4th—It is not a gamble; within a half hour after the Hartman Retort starts operations, it is producing oil.
 - 5th—It brings to Ashland an industry that means a large pay roll and dividends.
 - 6th—It will put into circulation in this county more real money than was ever dreamed of by the greatest visionary.
 - 7th—The Hartman Retort begins making money for its stockholders the day it starts operations.
 - 8th—It is up to you to say when operations shall begin.
 - 9th—There is absolutely no risk; no wells are to be sunk; it is not a prospect, but a certainty; your stock becomes a dividend payer practically from the moment of investment, and
 - 10th—No other investment today can offer such a large and certain return to the investor.
